Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mellott and little daughter Joyce, of Altoona, Pa., returned home, after spend ing Mr. Mellott's vacation in the homes of their respective parents Ex-County Commissioner Samuel Mellott and W. H. Lake. Mr. Mellott has a fine clerical position in the office of the P. R. R. Co., in Altoona.

A very instructive lecture was delivered to a few of our people in the orchard of J. B. Runyan, in this place, last Friday, by Mr. Fox, of Harrisburg. He told of the many pests to which our fruits are heir, and how to treat the trees. It is strange more of our fruit growers do not attend these free lectures, as they certainly are instructive.

We Crow.

Josh Billings said, "I luv a krow that is in him, and the other is the spurs tew back up his Petition of citizens of Taylor krow with." Perhaps you think we "crow" too much about our Rexall Remedies, but we have stable, to fill the unexpired term | the spurs to back up our "crow," and if you don't believe it, wade

Noah was the first man to advertise. He advertised the flood, Noah didn't have very many loving friends to advertise for him, but Rexall Remedies have. Evpass a good thing along.

A man using a Rexall Remedy is just like a man who smiles a smile; for when he smiles, anothmiles and miles of smiles, and life's worth while for many, just from one smile.

And speaking of smiles-we have a number of things to make people smile. There are the Rexall Watches, guaranteed good time keepers, for $1 00; one of them would make any boy on earth smile. Then, there is Rex all Candy. There is a smile in ev and satisfaction - prices from $1.00 to $2.50. Then there is the new-entirely new and up-todate-ine of Rexall Station- Women's Shoes

ery. Think of the smiles there are in connection with it. The young man loves the young lady (that makes you smile yourself, don't it?). He writes her a letter on dainty Rexall linen paper That makes her smile; she answers, which makes him smile: so, there you are. Nothing denotes refinement and good taste more than good stationery, and nothing denotes good stationery more than the Rexall mark of quality. A fine line of linen pound papers, too, at 25c. the pound of 100 sheets. Envelopes to match. Tablets-all kinds, but poor ones-and all sizes; and the prices don't put too big a crimp in your bank roll, either. The box papers run from 10c. to $1.00, and everyone is good value for the money.

THE REXALL STORE, LESLIE W. SEYLAR, Prop'r.

Attorneys O. C. Bowers and J. R. Ranthrouff of Chambersburg, came over on Monday to attend

J. C. Comerer and wife, of Thompson township, spent a day or two this week in the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Sarah Pittman, of this place. The many pleased to learn that her health has so far improved that she is Deft, appeared in open court and able to take her place at the tapleaded guilty to the charge of ble at meal time, with an appetite about as vigorous as most people.

HAIR HEALTH.

Take Advantage of This Offer.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

We assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp troub'e, Rexall '93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and pre vent premature baldness. Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarclock. An offering will be asked antee that your money will be for, to defray expenses, and for cheerfully refunded if it does not do as we claim. Two sizes, 50c. and $1 00. A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section twenty-six of article five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Resolved (if the Senate concur). That the following amendment to section twenty-six of article five of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section 26 of Article V., which reads as follows: "Section 26. All laws polating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; and the General Assembly is hereby prohibited from creating other courts to exercise the powers vested by this Constitution in the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Orphans' Courts," be amended so that the same shall read as follows:—

Section 26. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform but, notwithstanding any provisions of this Constitution, the General Assembly shall have full power to establish new courts, from time to time, as the same may be needed in any city of cour-

Assembly shall have full power to establish new courts, from time to time, as the same may be needed in any city or county, and to prescribe the powers and jurisdiction thereof, and to increase the number of judges in any courts now existing or hereafter created, or to reorganize the same, or to vest in other courts the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by courts not of record, and to abolish the same wherever it may be deemed necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of justice.

Number Two RESOLUTION

Number Two.

RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to eliminate the requirement of payment of taxes as a qualification of the right to vote.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur). That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof.

That section one of article eight be amended, by striking out the fourth numbered paragraph thereof, so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact.

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months), immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law. In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered court and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law. The number of judges in said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said
