Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and woman. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

Chas. F. Scott and wife went over to the Hagerstown fair yesterday. After taking in the fair they will go to Chambersburg and spend to-day with friends there.

Friday night of last week Nicholas Koozt, an agent of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, was held up in the narrows below town and robbed of $68 and his watch.—Bedford Gazette.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

Rev. E. H. Swank, who has recently been appointed pastor of the Hustontown U. B. church, preached his initial sermon at Hustontown last Sunday morning, to the entire satisfaction of the congregation present.

I wish to call the attention of the teachers of Fulton county to the observance of the day set apart as Arbor Day, Friday October 28 1910. Let each one of you call the attention of your pupils to the matter. It maybe done in different ways, as, planting trees that will become ornaments or by giving attention to those trees already on the school ground or by any other means of interesting the children in this great work. Read to your pupils and have those who are old enough commit that beautiful poem: "Woodman Spare That Tree."

B. U. LAMHERSON, County Supt.

Arthur E. Manley (colored) of Tod township went to Harrisburg Monday to complete a course of study for the Civil service examination on the 12th of November. Arthur has been studying hard to fit himself for the position of railway mail clerk; but he finds that working hard all day and studying late into the night, has a tendency to unfit him, both for work and study. Arthur is a good speller, and he writes a beautiful hand, and he is deserving of much credit for trying to better his condition.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. Ephraim Mellott, of near Sipes Mill, met with what might have been a more serious accident. He was engaged in picking apples and after placing the ladder against the tree climbed up. After picking the bag, which was fastened around his neck, almost full he started to descend the ladder when it turned, throwing Mr. Mellott to the ground, the heavy bag of apples falling on him, rendering him unconscious, in which state he remained for some time. Fortunately no bones were broken and he is improving.

DON'T BE BALD.

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

We have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will cure dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. With our guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.
