School tax receipt at the NEWS office.

W. H. Lake, one of Belfast's substantial farmers was a town visitor Monday.

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents.

Mr. Irvin Bradnick, near Knobsville, sent two apples in perfect condition to this office Monday morning. The thing remarkable about them is that they grew during the summer of 1909. If they had been kept away from hungry printers, they might have lasted until 1911.

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and woman. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

The Ladies Aid Society will have a chicken and flannel cake supper at the home of Mrs. George Reisner on Saturday, October 29th beginning at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Swallow, ice cream and cake will be served at the same time.

While out hunting wild turkeys last Saturday John Peck shot a Golden Eagle along Serub Ridge mountain that measured eighty inches from tip to tip. He brought it to town Monday morning and it is now in the hands of Druggist Sevlar who is an enthusiastic taxidermist.

Miss Josephine Runyan, of this place, left this morning for Washington, D. C., where she will visit her brother Russell, who holds a clerkship in the Census Department, after which she will return to Harrisburg and visit relatives and friends there.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

John M. Truax and wife, of Belfast township, accompanied by their son Sherman and daughter Wilda, spent Monday in McConnellsburg, "Miller" as Mr. Truax is more familiarly known, owns and resides on the Samuel Clevenger farm, and is doing his share to help bring Belfast along in the line of general farm improvement.

Mrs. M. E. Dalbey, who has been spending the summer in McConnellsburg left for her home in Yeadon, Pa., Tuesday morning. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Reisner, and the ladies intended to stop at Gettysburg and witness the inaugural ceremony of the new president at Gettysburg college. Mrs. Reisner would then accompany her mother as far as Harrisburg, when Mrs. Reisner will return to McConnellsburg.

Kills a Murderer.
A merciless murderer is Apandicitis with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill it by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invites apandicitis, curing Constipation, Headache, Biliuness, Chills. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

A company formed of eighteen farmers of Tod and Ayr townships, have recently purchased a thorough-bred imported Stallion of the Belgian type for which $3400.00 was paid. For several years the Cove farmers have been interested in the breeding of higher class stock, and they have learned that it is worse than foolishness to waste time and effort on "scrub stock." A few days ago, David A. Nelson sold a two-year old colt for $200, and James H. Kendall one at the same price. When the editor was a boy, you couldn't have gotten two hundred dollars for a horse if you had kept it till it was fifty years old.

The Story of Roosevelt.

The September installment of Alfred Henry Lewis's great serial in Human Life, "The Story of Roosevelt," contains several characteristic anecdotes, of which the following is one:

It was in the heart of a soft Dakota afternoon. Mr. Roosevelt had repaired to a barroom, known locally, I believe, as the Tub of Blood. The Western bar room is the Western club. There the Western man meets and mingles with his spurred and broad brimmed fellows.

One whom I shall call Sagebrush Sam made vociferous entrance into the Tub of Blood. He was refreshing himself at the moment by twirling his six-shooter about his forefinger, two hundred revolutions to the minute. The artillery looked like a steel pinwheel.

"I'm a wolf an' I propose to howl!" announced Sagebrush Sam.

The sophisticated public took no notice. Nettled by the common indifference, Sagebrush cast about for ways and means where with to focus attention upon him self. His eyes fell upon Mr. Roosevelt.

"Whoever is this yere four eyed shorthorn?" demanded Sagebrush, violently. "Which, unless he's plannin' to provoke me speshul, he'll shorely buy the drinks."

The whirling six shooter whirled menacingly in the direction of Mr. Roosevelt. That gentleman, thus distinguished, arose as though about to comply with the recommendation of the bibulous Sagebrush. It was but a ruse de guerre. As the fatuous Sagebrush turned to nominate his "nosepaint," something struck him in the jaw. It was the fist of Mr. Roosevelt. Sagebrush—who went down in heaps—said later that the blow which swapped ends with him was like the kick of a pony.

HUMAN LIFE PUBLISHING Co. Boston.

The water in the Reservoir is exceedingly low, and no one should take the risk of drinking it now, or for some time after a rain falls, without boiling the water first. It may be a little troublesome to boil your drinking water, but it would beat a spell of typhoid fever, and maybe save funeral expenses.

FOR CONSTIPATION.

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.
