MUNYON'S RHEUMATISM CURE

BANKERS KNEW THEIR MAN

Get a 25-cent vial. If it fails to cure I will refund your money. Munyon.

One day a big city bank received the following message from one of its country correspondents: "Pay $25 to John Smith who will call today." The cashier's curiosity became suspicious when a cabman assisted into the bank a drunken "faro" who shouted that he was John Smith and wanted some money. Two clerks pushed, pulled and piloted the boisterous individual into a private room away from the sight and hearing of regular depositors. The cashier wired the country bank:

"Man claiming to be John Smith is here. Highly intoxicated. Shall we wait identification?"

The answer read: "Identification complete. Pay the money."—Success Magazine.

History of Red Cross Seal.

"Charity stamps," first used in Boston in 1862 for the soldiers' relief funds during the Civil war, were the original forerunners of the Red Cross Christmas seal, which will be used this year to bring happiness and cheer to millions. The Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis society in 1907 for the first time in America made use of a stamp for the purpose of getting revenue to fight consumption. In a hastily organized campaign of only three weeks they realized $3,000. The next year, 1908, the American Red Cross conducted the first national tuberculosis stamp campaign. From this sale $135,000 was realized for the anti-tuberculosis movement. In 1909, under many adverse conditions, $250,000 was realized from these stamps. This year the slogan of the tuberculosis fighters and the Red Cross is "A Million for Tuberculosis From Red Cross Seals in 1910."

Slightly Mixed.

Two Englishmen were resting at the Red Home Inn at Stratford-on-Avon. One of them discovered a print picturing a low tumbling building underneath which was printed: "The House in Which Shakespeare Was Born." Turning to his friend in mild surprise he pointed to the print. His friend exhibited equal surprise and called a waiter, who assured them of the accuracy of the inscription.

"Pon my word," said the observing Englishman, shaking his head dubiously, "I thought he was born in a manger!"

Tit for Tat.

Lloyd C. Griscom, in an interview in New York, said of party dissenstions:

"They are animated by a nasty spirit, a tit-for-tat spirit; and they go from bad to worse."

"It's like the case of the engaged couple at the seaside dance. The young man, a little jealous, said coldly to his fiancée at supper: "Let me see—was it you I kissed in the conservatory?"

"About what time?" the young girl answered, with a little laugh.

Like the Other Kind.

It was in a "down east" village that the young man met his sweetheart, a charming country beauty. When he returned to the city he sent her a jar of cold cream to keep her cheeks as fresh as the budding rose.

On his next visit he asked her how she liked his little gift.

"The taste was very nice," she said, with a rather sickly smile, "but I think that I like the other kind of cream best, dear."—Lippincott's.

More to Be Pitted.

Tramp (to lonely spinster)—Come Missus, arst yer 'usband if 'e ain't got a pair o' trousers to give away.

Spinster (anxious not to expose her solitude)—Sorry, my good man, he—sh—never wears such things.—Punch

Against Orders.

"If you refuse me, Miss Gladys, I shall get a rope and commit suicide."

"No, colonel, you must not do that. Papa said distinctly he would not have you hanging about here."

Some men expect others to agree with them even when they don't agree with themselves.

MICHIGAN TO SET NEW RECORDS

Captain Benbrook.

Everyone who has watched Michigan football teams train in other years and then has taken a daily look at the squad while at work at Whitmore Lake recently, is convinced that the 1910 eleven is going to set some records. Yost thinks so, although as yet he isn't saying so; Coach Douglas of the freshman team thinks so, and has not the slightest compunction about saying so; while Athletic Director Bartelme, Assistant Coach Dave Allerdice and Trainer Kraenzlein are equally optimistic. That being so, the team could hardly keep from making some records and already one new mark has been established by the 1910 squad.

When Don Green, Herrington and Cornell joined the squad at the training camp the other day it swelled the list to 25, and of the 25 no less than seven were their "M" by playing on the team that downed Pennsylvania and Minnesota last year.

For uniformity in size, this year's group of line candidates surpassed the teams of 1903, 1904 and 1905. Captain Benbrook easily towers above the others, but with that one exception the men are about equal in weight. When it is considered that the bunch of line-men will average more than 185 pounds, one can readily see why Yost is so well pleased with the prospects for a formidable set of forwards for this year's eleven.

Captain Benbrook will be left at guard, where last year he showed so well that Walter Camp chose him for his imaginary All-America eleven.

STAGG SEVERE WITH MAROONS

Midway Candidates Treated to Strenuous Daily Practice—Ignorant of New Rules.

Capt. "Bill" Crawley has been busy recently lining up the candidates for the University of Chicago football team. At the start Crawley and Coach Stagg put the men through a severe course of practice. This was kept up for several days.

Coach Stagg departed long enough from regular practice one afternoon to give his entire squad a quiz lecture on the new rules, which lasted over an hour, and to his great surprise he found few of his men acquainted with them. The mentor of the university not only gave each man a formal introduction to the new code, but invited them, one and all, ing or pushing. Before this season the words pull and push were heard more than any others in practice and the players have been coached so much in this that it will be a task to stop them.

"Of course, this is only my opinion, but I hope the rules work for the satisfaction of all."

Camp said it was a hard fight to agree on many of the points which have been adopted, as each member of the committee had certain suggestions which he wanted converted into a rule. As a result, several compromises had to be made.

M'LEOD BOXES TWO ROUNDS

Big Missouri Farmer Boy Makes Praiseworthy Showing Against Veteran Fighter in Chicago.

Although brought face to face with a man who in his time was considered one of the world's premier heavyweights, Miles McLeod, the farmer boy from Albany, Mo., who aspires to wrest the heavyweight title from Jack Johnson, in Chicago the other day showed in a two-round bout with Joe Choyanski that he has possibilities which might in time lead to a match with Jack Johnson.

McLeod and Choyanski met by appointment at Gilmore's gymnasium, where Joe agreed to test the boxing ability of the Missourian. The "show me" aspirant stripped for action and exhibited a physique which would be the envy of any young American. His legs were well shaped and they looked strong enough to hold the massive frame of 225 pounds under any kind of torture or punishment. His shoulder muscles were ideal for a fighter and his reach was at least four inches longer than Choyanski's, who is noted in fight annals for his long arms.

Unlike most novices who apply for tryouts from fighters who have been and taken part in every phase of the pugilistic game, McLeod did not show the least bit of fear as the gloves were pulled over his massive hands. He laughed and joked with the select few who were admitted to see the go and seemed anxious to mix matters with the man who has acted as a trial horse for many with pugilistic aspirations.

Capt. "Bill" Crawley.

to get familiar with a rule book for this year at once. Some of the answers to his questions were amusing, and good-natured Old Man of the Midway could not help but smile at the ignorance of some of the regulars.

MENTOR SAYS YALE IS WEAK

Walter Camp Declares Old Eli's Material is Lacking in Strength—Talks of New Rules.

Walter Camp, the football mentor at Yale, gave out an interview recently in which he stated Yale will not have as strong a football team next fall as in the last two or three seasons. The material is said to be not as good as in former years, and it is Camp's opinion that both Harvard and Princeton will have strong teams, but he would not say whether they would be able to defeat Yale.

Speaking of the new rules formulated last spring, Mr. Camp said:

"I think we ought to have a great game this fall if the coaches and players are quick to grasp the possibilities. Of course, there are a number of technicalities in the rules which are going to make the work of the officials mighty hard. One of the hardest kind of tasks for the officials is to determine when one player is pushing another. When the players are massed, it will be hard to designate the man who is pushing or pulling another. In this connection it might be said that one of the hardest problems for coaches to solve is to stop the players from pull-

REULBACH HAD MANY STARTS

Crack Pitcher of the Champion Chicago Cubs Says College Training Assisted Him Greatly.

By ED REULBACH.

(Copyright, 1910, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

My start in professional baseball is hard to find, as I had started several times. I am willing to tell the facts of the case now, and defend them, because I always thought a college pitcher had the right to pitch for money when not at his own college. I did not consider it wrong. I had pitched around Detroit and St. Louis as a boy, and, being strong and having a lot of speed, had made some little reputation among the fellows. I wanted to go to college and I did not want my family to have to bear all the expense. In fact, while they could have afforded it, I thought it better to earn my way. I could make money pitching baseball, and I was offered certain favors, which would materially reduce the expense, if I would go to a certain college and go in for athletics. I did not consider this as a salary or bribe, and as I would have gone to the college, anyhow, I thought it as legitimate for me to pay part of my expenses by playing ball as it would have been for a skillful student to keep books for the varsity and help pay his way.

Also I determined to pitch during vacations and to make it pay my college expenses. Under the rules I did not dare use my own name, as that would have barred me. So I pitched under an assumed name. This might be considered unfair to pitchers for rival colleges, and taken to give me an unfair advantage, but the truth is that it was not so, for two reasons. In the first place the rival pitchers also were pitching all summer, whether or not they were paid for it. But the second reason is better. It is a fact that what I learned about pitching at college helped me more in the minor leagues than what I learned in the minor leagues helped me at college. So I did not gain any unsportsmanlike advantage at all.

My real start was with the Chicago

training camp the other day it swelled the list to 25, and of the 25 no less than seven were their "M" by playing on the team that downed Pennsylvania and Minnesota last year.

For uniformity in size, this year's group of line candidates surpassed the teams of 1903, 1904 and 1905. Captain Benbrook easily towers above the others, but with that one exception the men are about equal in weight. When it is considered that the bunch of line-men will average more than 185 pounds, one can readily see why Yost is so well pleased with the prospects for a formidable set of forwards for this year's eleven.

Captain Benbrook will be left at guard, where last year he showed so well that Walter Camp chose him for his imaginary All-America eleven.

Ed Reulbach.

Cubs, and I guess it was about the warmest start ever a young pitcher made. I made my first two appearances against New York, had them beat each time and each time blew up in the ninth inning and threw away the game. That I stuck to baseball after what the old players said to me after those games showed that I was determined to succeed. They had me on the point of jumping out of windows both times, but I got mad and determined to stick and show them I could pitch. I guess that was about all that kept me. They figured if I could stand what they said to me I would have nerve enough to stick through anything.

The only reason I write this is to defend summer baseball for college players. I think a college player ought to be permitted to earn money in summer playing baseball if he has the ability, and allowed a chance to earn his college expenses just as well as the student who sells books should be allowed to pay his way through school.

Fast Run by Charles.

The performance of Second Baseman Charles of the Milwaukee (American association) team, the former Cardinal, who went in exchange for Harry Mowrey, in the field meet in Minneapolis recently, when he encircled the bases in 13 3/5 seconds, created a great deal of interest in baseball circles. It is a new world's record.

In the record book, Marty Hogan, while member of the Indianapolis team, encircled the bases in Indianapolis in 13 1/5 seconds in 1895, but this mark is said to have been unofficial. Ty Cobb is credited with doing the stunt in 13 4/5 seconds in Chicago, October 15, 1908, and this has been considered the real official mark, as the trial was made under the sanction of the national commission. Hans Lobert of the Reds has a mark of 14 seconds for the trip around the bases.

McGann Wants Job.

Dan McGann, first baseman of the Milwaukee club, has applied to Mayville of the Blue Grass league for the position of manager for next season. McGann started his baseball career at Mayville in 1894 and since then has played in the major leagues and the association.

Hamilton is Barred.

Hamilton, the star on last year's Notre Dame team who is charged with having played professional ball with the Louisville club, has been barred from football competition at Notre Dame. His loss will be a severe blow to the Catholic institution's football lineup.

Le Baron Injured.

Le Baron, a candidate for quarterback at Northwestern, was seriously injured the other day when tackled. His back was wrenched and he probably will be out of the game for a month.

LEFT TO A WORSE FATE

Dynamiter, Himself a Married Man, Knew What Awaited Forgetful Husband.

The business man was sitting in his office, thinking of starting for home, when a suspicious looking person came in with a leather bag in his hand.

"If you don't give me $25," said the visitor, coming at once to the point, "I will drop this on the floor."

The business man was cool. "What is in it?" he asked.

"Dynamite," was the brief reply. "What will it do if you drop it?"

"Blow you up."

"Drop it!" was the instant command. "My wife told me when I left home this morning to be sure and send up a bag of flour, and I forgot it. I guess it will take just about as much dynamite as you have there to prepare me for the blowing up I'll get when she sees me!"

He threw himself back in his chair and waited for the explosion, but it did not come.

"I'm a married man myself," said the dynamiter, and quietly slipped out.—Illustrated Bits.

Childlike Ignorance.

Laura Jean Libbey, discussing in Brooklyn her successful appearance on the stage, said:

"I talk in my monologue about love, marriage and the other interests of the heart. On these subjects women, especially young women, are strangely ignorant."

"They really make me think, you know, of the little girl who was asked by her teacher:

"What can you tell us about Solomon?"

"Solomon," replied the little girl, "was very fond of animals."

"And how, my dear," said the teacher, "do you make that out?"

"Because," answered the little girl, "the Bible says he had 500 porcupines."

Ho Knew.

A small boy brought up by a fretting father to hate anything connected with England or the English was consigned recently to eat dinner with the nurse while the family entertained a genuine English lord in the dining room. The grown-ups' meal had come to that "twenty minutes past" stage where conversation halts directly, when a childlike treble fell upon the dumb-waiter shaft from the kitchen. This is what the astonished nobleman heard:

"P. H. ho, ho,

"I smell the blood of an Englishman!"—Wasp.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

CONVINCING PROOF

OF THE VIRTUE OF Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

What is the use of procrastinating in the face of such evidence as the following letters represent? If you are a sick woman or know one who is, what sensible reason have you for not giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? For 30 years we have been publishing such testimonial letters as these—thousands of them—they are genuine and honest, too, every one of them.

Mrs. S. J. Barber says:

"I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women—and I feel it my duty to let others know the good it has done for me. Three years ago I had a tumor which the doctor said would have to be removed by an operation or I could not live more than a year or two, at most. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, and took 14 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today the tumor is gone and I am a perfectly well woman. I hope my testimonial will be of benefit to others."—Mrs. S. J. BARBER, Scott, N. Y.

Mrs. George May says:

"No one knows what I have suffered from female troubles, neuralgia pains, and backache. My doctor said he could not give me anything to cure it. Through the advice of a friend I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the pain soon disappeared. I continued its use and am now in perfect health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a God-send to me as I believe I should have been in my grave if it had not been for Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. GEORGE MAY, 86 4th Ave., Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. E. F. Hayes says:

"I was under the doctor's treatment for a fibroid tumor. I suffered with pain, soreness, and could not walk or stand on my feet any length of time. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, followed her directions and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. To-day I am a well woman, the tumor was expelled and my whole system strengthened. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 1800 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. K. Housh says:

"I have been completely cured of a severe female trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and want to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. W. K. HOUSH, 7 Westview Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, etc.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
