BRUSH CREEK.

Quite a drop in the thermometer during the last week.

Mrs. Watson Pleasinger spent a day last week at the home of her parents, J. D. Smith and wife at Emmaville.

Mrs. Samuel Diehl and Mrs. George Diehl and little son, Harper of Whips Cove, spent a day last week in the home of John Smith, jr.

Grace and Fred Lodge spent the latter part of the week at the home of their mother, Mrs. E. H. Lodge.

The institute at Buchanan on Friday night was well attended.

Quite a lot of Valley people were shopping at Everett last Saturday.

Ada Barton spent the latter part of last week at her home near Crystal Springs.

Hunter Jackson, wife and little daughter Helen Belle, of Altoona, are spending a few days at their respective homes at Akersville.

Lucy L. Peightel spent from Friday evening until Sunday in the home of M. E. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Seaman returned to their home at Newport, last Friday, after a two weeks' visit at the latter's home at Akersville.

Walter V. Barton spent several days the latter part of last week in the vicinity of Everett.

Lily Whitfield returned to her home here last week after spending several weeks in Everett.

Howard Mellott was seen in the vicinity of Emmaville one day last week.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c. at Trout's drug store.

1000.

The corn is getting its ears dulled, and is turning out better than was expected.

Blair Garland has accepted a school at Bell Grove, Md. Success, Blair.

William Mellott, who had been at home, started this week for Washington, D. C. to seek employment.

The institute held at Pleasant Grove was good except on part of the teachers. We would advise the balance of teachers of the township that were not present that their time is coming to have their institute; so, prepare.

Clem Chesnut was around laying up some of his political fences for the coming November.

B. H. Truax will not get thirsty for he has had two wells drilled on his place by Wink and Mellott. Joseph Pleasinger, of N. Brasika is visiting his brothers John and Jacob and other relatives in this section. Although Mr. Pleasinger had a leg removed about two years ago, he has the activity of a boy, at the ripe age of 84.

Mrs. John Spade, of McConnellsburg, spent part of last week in the home of her mother Mrs. Amos Palmer.

Miss Nettie Mellott, of Gem, spent from Friday till Monday with Miss Blanche Smith.

Sheridan Deshong and wife were visiting in the home of Samuel Truax recently.

Ex Judge Morton was seen driving on some of our good roads.

END.

F. E. Cunningham is spending a few days with his parents L. W. Cunningham and wife.

Miss Grace Lodge spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Brush Creek Valley.

Levi Truax is laid up with a lame back.

H. M. Edwards and wife and Mrs. Rebecca Edwards went to Juniata on Wednesday. Mr. Edwards returned on Friday but the ladies stayed for a more extended visit with relatives there.

Mrs. Catharine Tice is spending some time with friends in the Valley.

The social held at L. W. Cunningham's was a success both financially and socially.

Miss Laura Edwards and her cousin Nell C. spent Saturday at Broadtop City.

Mrs. Chas. Deshong is quite poorly with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Elwood Hedding of Altoona spent a few days with her aunt Mrs. Lizzie Woodcock.

Mrs. Jessie Gearenger, who has been in the Valley with relatives for some time returned to her home at Six Mile Run last Saturday.

CLEAR RIDGE.

Mrs. Walter Stouffer master Paul and baby Margaret, of Waynesboro, returned home after spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mort.

Myrtle Taylor returned from a Philadelphia hospital after having gone through an operation on her eyes.

W. S. Kimmel, Benjamin S. Sharpe and wife, Miss Ruth Kimmel and Miss Mae Mort, all of Saltville, ran out in the afternoon in the former's auto and spent a few hours with J. S. Mort's family.

Isaac Stinson formerly of this place has been in all the western States and for the past eight years has been in Seattle, Washington. He left home when a boy about thirty-two years ago. He is a son of the late John Stinson.

Mrs. Gustie Dake of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister Mrs. James Wible, of Dublin Mills, and her brother, George Everhart of near McConnellsburg and other friends.

Booming Real Estate.

Five Hundred copies of book descriptive of Fulton County Real Estate for sale will soon be printed. It will contain a good write-up of the different sections of the county, as well as the full description of each property listed for sale. It will contain a map of the county showing the different railroad surveys, the proposed ones, the trolley lines, and such other information as should induce capitalists and other strangers to come to Fulton and invest in new enterprise, or real estate.

This book is being made much more extensive than at first intended; hence, the delay in its completion. It will contain cuts of buildings for sale, when photographs is furnished, that will show up better than words can express. Send description and photo, quick. No expense to owner unless property is sold.

WELLS TANNERY.

Scott Kegaris, of Salvia, has taken charge of Reichley Bros' boarding house, in the lumber camp.

In some unknown way Reichley & Co.'s No. 2 engine caught fire and partly burned. Loss several hundred dollars.

A large number of Mrs. J. B. Horton's friends met in her home Friday evening to celebrate her 40th birthday. All report a jolly good time.

Mrs. N. W. Horton entertained about twenty of her young friends Saturday evening.

Our blacksmith J. A. Horton of whom mention was made two weeks ago is still off duty.

Mr. Clem Chesnut called on us Monday soliciting votes for his election to the legislature.

The Famous Rayo

The Lamp with Diffused Light

should always be used where several people sit, because it does not strain the eyes of those sitting far from it.

The Rayo Lamp is constructed to give the maximum diffused white light. Every detail that increases its light-giving value has been included.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp. You may pay $5, $10 or even $20 for other lamps and get a more expensive container—but you cannot get a better light than the Rayo gives.

This season's Rayo has a new and strengthened burner. A strong, durable shade-holder keeps the shade on firm and true. Easy to keep polished, as it is made of solid brass, finished in nickel.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One. A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to section twenty-six of article five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 26. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; and the General Assembly is hereby prohibited from creating other courts to exercise the powers vested by this Constitution in the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Orphans' Courts, to be amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 26. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; but, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any act or resolution of the General Assembly, the General Assembly shall have full power to establish new courts, from time to time, as the same may be needed in any city or county, and to prescribe the powers and jurisdiction thereof, and to increase the number of judges in any courts now existing or hereafter created, or to reorganize the same, or to vest in other courts the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by courts not of record, and to abolish the same wherever it may be deemed necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of justice.

A true copy of Resolution No. 1, ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two. RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to eliminate the requirement of payment of taxes as a qualification of the right to vote.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section one of article eight be amended by striking out the fourth numbered paragraph thereof, so that the said section shall read as follows: Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to laws providing for the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the Commonwealth, he shall have moved therefrom and returned, then six months), immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

A true copy of Resolution No. 2, ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Three. A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section six of article five be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the aggregate to three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

A true copy of Resolution No. 3, ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Four. A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight. Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows: "Section 3. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, so as to read as follows: "Section 3. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for the cancellation shall be established and maintained.

Their Right to Know

The people who intrust their money to a bank want to know something of its financial strength. We fully recognize this right and gladly furnish depositors with a list of our Directors and Stockholders; then, from time to time, we publish reports showing the condition of the bank. Copies of these reports are kept on hand for those who may wish to see them.

The Farmer and His Banker

Our bank never fails to give as good service to the farmer as it gives to any business man. As a matter of fact few banks could exist in this day and age of the world without the co-operation of the farmers. Often a farmer can make money by borrowing. Do not hesitate to call on us when you want money. We welcome a responsible borrower quite as heartily as a substantial depositor. It will pay every farmer to carry a checking account with us. Why not come in and talk it over with us to-day? Accounts may be opened by mail and monies deposited or withdrawn in this way with equal facility. We make a specialty of serving the farmer.

We Pay 3 Per Cent. Interest.
