WHIPS COVE.

As we have not seen anything in the columns of the NEWS from this neck o'woods lately, we will take it upon ourselves to make a brief report of the late doings.

The calm weather with which October had been serving us all along came to an end rather suddenly last week and on Saturday we were given a little sample of "the good old winter time." We are glad it was just a remnant.

Sheriff Harris of McConnellsburg, in company with Andy Mellott, was in the Cove a couple days' last week. We are glad to learn that Andy is going to be one among us again soon.

Emory Diehl and wife, and Will Diehl and wife visited in the home of Miller Truax near McKibben, Saturday and Sunday.

Aaron Garland and wife and little son Carl, of Needmore, with Harriet Garland spent Sunday in the home of N. W. Mellott. Harriet expects to remain among friends for some time.

Alvey L. Wertz and family were visiting friends in Canada last Sunday.

Joseph Plessinger, of Poke, Neb., is visiting in the home of Albert Plessinger.

Silas Holly and wife visited in the home of James Garland.

Henry Sharpe is on the sick list.

Leslie Hart remains about the same as last reported.

Gus Davison left for Johnstown Monday. He sold his mules to D. C. Mellott.

Frank Diehl and wife, of Amaranth, visited Howard Mellott Sunday.

Simon Layton, of Seiding Hill, was in the Cove a few minutes, Sunday morning.

Logue Plessinger and son Ray visited in the home of Albert Plessinger, Sunday.

Study the above table and see if you don't think it is time to elect a farmer Representative, living in an agricultural county as we do. Three of the above Representatives were from Dublin township while Brush Creek township has never had a Representative and she now appeals for her sister townships for recognition, and fully believes they will respect her wishes.

Hon. B. K. Focht.

Shall Women Vote?
If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure, 25c. at Trout's drug store.

A STATE OF MIND.

In the state of Mass.
There lives a lass
I love to go N. C.;
No other Miss.
Can e'er I Wis,
Be half so dear to Me.

And her cheeks the hue
Of shells where waters wash;
On her pink-white phiz
There Nev. Ariz.
The least complexion Wash.

La! could I win
The heart of Minn.,
I'd ask for nothing more,
But I only dream
Upon the theme
And Conn. it o'er and Ore.

Why is it pray,
I can't Ala.
This love that makes me ill?
N. Y., O., Wy.

Propose to her my will?

I shun the task
Would be to ask
This gentle maid to wed;
And so, to press
My suit, I guess

Clarence R. Akers.
It has generally been managed in this county so that the farmers were never afforded an opportunity to elect to the Legislature one of their own calling. This is their opportunity. Clarence R. Akers has spent all his life on the farm, is a young man of good appearance, character and habits and not addicted to the use of profane and vulgar language, and comes of a family known through out the county for its hospitality. And Akers can get something for the county if you send him to Harrisburg. Think the matter over and vote for Akers. Brush Creek township never had a Representative.

KIPLING'S NEW POEM.

Verses by the English Author Glorify Strength of Character.

Rudyard Kipling has a new poem in the October American Magazine which he entitled "H.," and which Judge Swope thinks would be much enjoyed by the readers of the Fulton County NEWS. It follows:
"If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowances for their doubt;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give away to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.
"If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can treat with triumph and disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
"If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breath a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long before they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the will which says to them: Hold on!
"If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgetting minute
With sixty second's worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and every thing that is in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!"

FOR BALD HEADS.

A Treatment That Costs Nothing if it Fails.

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.
