Harry E. Spangler one of Wells townships progressive young farmers was in this community a day or two last week. His object was the purchase of a good farm horse.

Charlie I. Vores and Mrs. Kathrine Vores of this place, accompanied by the latter's son in-law and daughter Charles Shepard and wife, of Fort Sheridan, Ill., are spending a few days visiting at Pleasant Ridge this week.

The second meeting of the Bethel township Literary Society was held at Franklin Mills last Wednesday night. Question: Resolved, That foreign immigration should be prohibited. Affirmative, A. M. Bivens and Earle Golden. Negative, Edgar Hann. The judges decided unanimously in the affirmative. Next meeting to be held at Alpine, Nov. 26th.—Earle Golden, Sec'y.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Johnson returned home on Wednesday of last week after having spent eight days visiting relatives and friends away from the County. On Tuesday the 25th of October, they left McConnellsborg, and went to Shippensburg, taking supper with Mrs. Johnson's brother Daniel Suders, and spending the night with the family of Jacob Burtsfield, formerly of this county. The next morning they boarded an early train and in the evening they were at the home of Elmer Suders, another brother of Mrs. Johnston, who lives at Wampum, Beaver county. With Elmer's they stayed until the following Monday morning, when they returned to Shippensburg, spending Monday night, and came on to Mercersburg, and spent Tuesday night with Charlie McCurdy's family, and came home Wednesday having had the best visit of their lives. While in Beaver county, Elmer and his wife spared no pains in showing them places of interest, and every moment of their stay will long be remembered with pleasure. They want to thank all the folks they visited for the very pleasant way in which they were entertained.

Shall Women Vote?
If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, headache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

Booming Real Estate.
Five Hundred copies of book descriptive of Fulton County Real Estate for sale will soon be printed. It will contain a good write-up of the different sections of the county, as well as the full description of each property listed for sale. It will contain a map of the county showing the different railroad surveys, the proposed ones, the trolley lines, and such other information as should induce capitalists and other strangers to come to Fulton and invest in new enterprise, or real estate.

This book is being made much more extensive than at first intended; hence, the delay in its completion. It will contain cuts of buildings for sale, when photographs is furnished, that will show up better than words can express. Send description and photo, quick. No expense to owner unless property is sold.
