When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

While Will Ott's boys were out hunting Thanksgiving, a valuable young hound got away from them and has not returned home since. The last they saw of the dog he was at Robert Gordon's planning mill below Webster Mills. Any one knowing of the dog's whereabouts will confer a favor by notifying Mr. Ott.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

Onions, when cut, quickly absorb impurities of the air, and therefore they act as disinfectants. But—and this should be remembered—the impurities they take up make them unfit for food, so a cut onion should be used at once or thrown away, never saved for flavoring something tomorrow.

WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE.

Geo. A. Harris Has No Desire to Succeed Himself in the Office of Prothonotary, &c.

TO THE VOTERS OF FULTON CO.: Having had many inquiries by letter and otherwise as to whether I will be a candidate to succeed myself in the office of Prothonotary, &c., of Fulton county next year, I take this method of informing my friends that I will not be a candidate. I want to thank one and all who have so loyally supported me in the past and who so kindly offer to support me for another term. Feeling that I owe it to my party and to deserving Democrats who may aspire to the office, not to ask for another term, this decision must be regarded as final.

Respectfully,
GEO. A. HARRIS,
McConnellsburg, Pa., Nov. 29, '10

WHIPS COVE.

The farmers in the Cove are about through with their corn husking; what they need now is rain, and plenty of it too. Water is very scarce and has been for some time making it inconvenient for many people to water their stock.

D. C. Mellott's sale was well attended last Saturday, and he sold a lot of goods; but he had more stuff to sell than he thought he had, and when night came, he decided to adjourn the auction to Tuesday, December 6th at nine o'clock, and continue until all is sold.

A cemetery fence is being erected at the Jerusalem church.

Sunday visitors and visited: C. T. Layton and family in the home of Watson Plessinger; Alfred Layton and family in the home of Howard Garland; E. A. Hoop engardner and family in the home of Denton Hoopengardner; Mrs. Ed. Diehl and family in the home of D. C. Mellott. Some one visited Caleb Mellott's corner the other evening (so rumor has it.) Of course, some of the corn did appear.

Rev. H. M. Spangler, of Altoona, was in the Cove last Saturday. Rev. J. M. Kaufman purchased the broncho.

Billy Stetler lost a fine horse the other day. Almost all of the hunters have left the Cove. They had little success this year.

Howard Layton sold a fine colt to Cecil Clark recently. Cecil has changed his place of residence from D. C. Mellott's to the home of Isaiah Layton, Sr.

Howard Mellott and daughter Belle were over Sideling Hill last Sunday.

There is plenty of fresh meat in the Cove now, as nearly every body has done some butchering. Ed. Diehl has installed a hydraulic ram to furnish water from the creek to run his engine.

Elmer Smith and friend Miss Shaw, of Amaranth, spent Sunday afternoon and evening in the home of Nathan Mellott.

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

David Harr, one of Belfast township's substantial farmers was in town a few hours yesterday attending to business. Mr. Harr said that some miscreant set fire to the old Snyder house on the farm recently purchased from the late Jane Ann Snyder by Rowe Mellott, about eight o'clock Tuesday evening, and burned it entirely to the ground. The loss was not so great, but the person who would deliberately set fire to a small house, would be dangerous about a large one, and is altogether a bad citizen.

Birthday Surprise.

Last Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd., Misses Bessie Akers and Lucy Peightel were calling on a neighbor. When they returned home, about half past eight o'clock, they found it all ablaze with light. On investigating it was found that the house was filled with friends who had remembered that it was Miss Bessie's birthday. It was a complete surprise to her, and one that will long be remembered by both the hostess and the guests. About eleven o'clock refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, pickle, pie, cake, coffee, etc., was served. Miss Bessie was the recipient of many nice and useful gifts. Those present were: Verna, Clara and Howard Duvall, Vyola and Lulu Seiling, Nora and Lulu Schenck, Julia and Howard Conner, Blaine, Ada and B. Hixon, Essie Williams, Pearl, Troy, Ross and Walter Barkman, Amy and George Lodge, Ella, Sibert, Walter, Gilland, Elton, and Talmage Barton; Russell, James, Charles, Clyde and Bessie Akers; Clara Hanks, Lucy Peightel, Charles Truax and Homer Akers.
