CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Good sleighing throughout the county.

Charles Bishop and family spent last Sunday at David Hill's. We imported $10,000,000 worth of gems the past year, and yet some people kick on two cents a pound more for sausage.

Mr. Maurice E. Trout and Miss Iva Poor, of Philadelphia are guests in the home of the former's mother, Mrs. M. B. Trout.

The farmers of Washington state are importing cats from Pennsylvania to kill gophers. Other states would like to contribute.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kline and daughter Goldie, and Mrs. Samuel Wible and little son Clyde made up a sleighing party that spent Monday in town.

On very cold frosty mornings no bit should be placed in a horse's mouth before warming it a little, as the cold metal will take the skin off the horse's tongue.

The bed of snow prevents the usual gathering of moss for the base of Christmas trees. The only known substitute, and a poor one, is green colored sawdust.

Small fish are being caught under the ice on frozen creeks. A blow with a hatchet stuns the fish. The work or fun, just as you choose to call it, then comes in cutting the ice.

Of course, you bought some Jewelry or Silverware for an Xmas present. Now you want it engraved. Take it to Ramsey the Jeweler. He will do the work, and do it well. Opposite Presbyterian church, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Ruth W. Swope and son Howard passed through town last Saturday after having spent a few days visiting at Foltz. Her daughter, Mrs. Sam'l Bedford is still in frail health.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

A sleighing party composed of James McQuade, Walter Black, Joseph Doyle, Luther Black, Irvin Helman, John McClucas, Murnie Rummel, Nelle McQuade, Edith Mellott, Grace McQuade, Lillian DeHart and Kittie Mentzer—all of this place, went over to Loudon last Thursday evening, and had a very pleasant time.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

WANTED—Solicitors, General Agents, and Brokers all Cities and towns of Western Pennsylvania for best new Health and Accident, Industrial Juvenile, Whole and Ordinary Life Policies on the market. Most liberal pay. Address Mr. C. Meek, General Manager, Eagle Building, Germantown, Pa.

Two sled loads of members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church in this place went down to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mellott in the Cove last Thursday evening.

In addition to the enjoyment of the sled ride, Mr. and Mrs. Mellott made it very pleasant for them during the three hours spent in their home. Those forming the party were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Martin, Jessie Brewer, Sadie Rotz, Marden Stout-eagle, Minna D. Thompson, Ada Decker, Nellie Hays, Mrs. C. B. Stevens, Wilson L. Nace, Russell Stevens, Frank Thompson, Joseph Thomas, Bruce Taylor, Dale Garland, Mrs. Elie Largent, Myrtle Harr, Ella Shimer, Lulu Anderson, Maudelline Stevens, Wilmer Hays, Bernard Truax and Russell Carnack.

Why Is It?

Why is it that many people despise their home enterprises? If our women want a sack of flour, they think that made over the mountain is a "leetle" better than that made by our home millers, notwithstanding the fact that the machinery that grinds the "over the mountain" flour was made by the same people that made the machinery for our home millers. If they want an egg beater or a cooking stove, they go away from our home merchants and send their money to Shears, Sawbuck & Co.,—paying their money first and seeing the goods afterwards. If an organ or piano is wanted, many people will take chances in trusting a stranger who usually fleeces them out of any sum ranging from twenty-five dollars to two hundred, rather than to buy from a home man whom they have known all their lives, and who is in sight to make good all his promises. Why is it, if a coat, a set of furs, a pair of shoes, or a cotton handkerchief is needed, a trip to Chambersburg must be made? This criticism does not apply alone to McConnellsburg. The same condition exists in other places. Salvia people think they will do a little better down at Harrisonville; Harrisonville people go to McConnellsburg; McConnellsburg people go to Chambersburg; Chambersburgers turn up their noses at their home stores, get on the train and go to Harrisburg; Harrisburgers do their shopping down at Philadelphia; Philadelphia go over to New York where they have something to select from, and the New Yorkers go to Paris, and the Parisians go to the—any place, you know, just so they can tell their friends that they got it away from home.

While your home merchant may not have in stock just what you want, if you leave your order, he will get it for you and not charge you more for it than you would have to pay if you made a trip to the City, and you have the advantage of not having to pay for it until you see the goods.

2000 Licenses First Day.

Over 2,000 automobile license tags will be issued to owners of machines on New Year's Day, according to estimates made at the State Highway Department, where applications are being received daily. So far 1,800 have been listed and more are expected. The applications are being handled as fast as possible and the yellow and black tags are put into cases and prepared for shipment so that the owners will receive them on January 1.

Glenn—Mellott.

Mr. Russell McC. Glenn, son of Ralph Glenn, Webster Mills, and Miss Lillian Alice Mellott, of Pleasant Ridge, Pa., were married at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. Clifford E. Hays, Wednesday morning, December 14. The bride and groom then left in a sleigh for the bride's home where they expect to spend the holidays.

W. G. Wink is getting along nicely with our school.

Last Sunday evening the young people of this community took advantage of the sledding and took a ride down to Walnut Grove to a revival meeting that is going on at that place. The load consisted of B. B. Booth, Lester and James Locke, Elsie Laidig, Clara and Julia Grissinger, Lillian Miller, Ray and Ruth Hess, Dorsey, Eddie, Oather and Bessie Brown, Mary and Clara Bratton. Peter Knepper lost a very valuable cow a few days ago, the cow having fell into a well about 8 feet deep that they were digging at the time.

The young people of this place are practicing for a Christmas entertainment which they expect to give next Saturday evening.

Our minister Rev. McGarvey preached at this place Sunday forenoon. He had not preached for several weeks, having been sick with fever.

The farmers of this community are making good use of the snow by hauling lime and coal.

Chas. Huston of Three Springs, passed through our town last Sunday.

Local Institutes.

The seventh educational meeting of Ayr township was held at Big Cove Tannery last Friday evening. Five teachers of the township were present. The following subjects were thoroughly discussed:—1. Who is responsible for the pupils' wasted time? 2. Friday afternoon employments 3. At what age should children enter our ungraded country schools. A large crowd was present but the order was excellent during the entire meeting. The literary work by the school was very good and reflects much credit on both teacher and pupils. The next meeting will be held at Back Run, Friday evening, Jan. 6, 1911.—Maude Rinedollar, Secretary.

The fifth local institute of Dublin township was held at Clear Ridge, Friday evening, December 16th. The meeting was called to order by the teacher, Fred Lodge, John Woodcock was appointed chairman. The following questions were discussed: 1. Education; its Value, How Obtained, etc. 2. Illustration Value. 3. Schoolroom freedom. The weather being ideal there was a large crowd in attendance, but the attention given and good order that prevailed showed the interest taken. Teachers present were Robert Cromer, D. K. Chesnut, John Woodcock, Levi Morton, Fred Lodge and Myrtle Stevens from Dublin, Zanna Laidig, Ruth Strait and Russell Gracey from Taylor. Some good literary work was given by the school. The next Institute will be held at Fort Littleton, Jan. 6, 1911.—Myrtle Stevens, Secretary.

The fourth literary meeting was held at Laurel Ridge, December 17th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Harry Biyens. The question for debate was: Resolved, That lime is more beneficial to the farmer than commercial fertilizers. Two of the judges were for the affirmative and one for the negative. The next meeting will be held December 31st. Question: Resolved, That Education prevents crime.—Jessie Mellott, Secretary.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free.
