Quastion Given in Last Week's News. The NEWS last week gave the following little problem:

"A lady who died May 8, 1909 was said to be aged 69 years, 4 months and 29 days; what was the date of her birth?"

Answer: December 9, 1839. Proof: If she had lived until Dec. 9, 1909, she would have been 70 years of age. The birthday before that, December 9, 1908, she was 69 years of age. One month later, January 9, 1909, she was 69 years and one month of Russell H. Nelson, principal of age. In the same way, on the the schools at Roselle Park, N. 9th day of April 1909, she was 69 years and 4 months of age; but she lived 29 days more. Twenty-Mr. and Mrs. John S. Nelson, in one of those 29 days put her out to the end of April, and the other The People's Register, says: 8 days run her to the 8th day of
