The whole county of Adams, Ohio, has been disfranchised for selling their votes at the last election. There are not enough citizens in the county to fill the county offices. How the offices will be administered is a question to be settled by the courts. Even the Ministers in the county have been disfranchised.

C. Wilson Peck and family who have been in Philadelphia during the past three or four months, returned to their homes in this place last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Peck has not entirely recovered from the injury received in a fall while working on the new postoffice building in this place last August.

Suit has been brought in Somerset, by Attorneys A. C. and F. A. Holbert, acting in behalf of Ward Rhoads, of Johnstown, for $15,000 damages against Otis Reicher, proprietor of the Somerset House, at Boswell. The charge is that Reicher sold liquor to Rhoads, causing him to become intoxicated when he was permitted to leave the hotel and in his intoxicated condition fell along the tracks of the B. & O. railroad and had his hands cut off at the wrists by a passing train.

Mr. D. Webster Baker, a native of Taylor township, out now of Benedict, Neb., writes: "I send you herewith a dollar to keep my paper coming another year. Without the News I would get very little information concerning affairs in my native county. I have become very negligent about writing to my relatives and old friends, and they are even more negligent and tardy about answering than I am about writing. We are having moderate but steady winter weather here. We have had some snow—perhaps ten inches in all, but no storms." Mr. Baker was elected in November for a third consecutive term in the Nebraska Legislature, and at a majority largely in excess of that of two years ago.

THERE'S NO RISK.

If This Medicine Does Not Benefit You Pay Nothing.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, with out question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.

If You Want to Be Loved.

Don't contradict people, even if you are sure you are right.

Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friends.

Don't underrate anything because you don't possess it.

Don't believe that everybody else is happier than you.

Don't conclude that you have never had any opportunities in life.

Don't believe all the evils you hear.

Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd.

Don't jeer at anybody's religious belief.

Learn to hide your aches and pains under a pleasant smile. Few care whether you have the carache, headache or rheumatism.

Learn to attend to your own business—a very important point.

Generous Donation.

Friday evening last the St. Paul's Lutheran Congregation of this place tendered their pastor Rev. Clifford E. Hays and wife a donation. Mr. and Mrs. Hays had been out all afternoon and arrived in time to see the members carrying in the good things. At first they saw but the light in the kitchen and thought some one had broken in to do harm. Instead they found in the kitchen a great pile of things; and, also, about forty members of the congregation. They retired to the parlor and there played games and had music. Among the good things presented to the pastor were, ham, chicken, lard, sausage side meat, corn meal, flour, sugar, sauer kraut, chocolate, canned groceries, prunes, dried fruit, home canned fruit, potatoes, oats, etc. The pastor and his wife are very grateful to their people for this expression of love.
