CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Blank notes at the NEWS office. Judge Morton was down at Harrisburg Tuesday attending the inauguration.

Miss Myrtle Sipes left Monday to visit her sister Sarah and brother Maynard in Pittsburg, and friends in Newcastle, Pa.

E. E. Kell, formerly one of Thompson townships teachers is a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Huntingdon county.

John R. Lashley, proprietor of Hotel Washington, Waynesboro, sold a half interest in the stock and fixtures of that business to Charles Zullinger, York, for $7,000.

Miss Ida F. Bard has a splendid position as stenographer in the offices of the Citizens' Trust and Guaranty Company, at Parkersburg, W. Va. The "NEWS" keeps her in touch with her Fulton county friends.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effectual for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

Miss Mabel Elith Ransom of Perry, Oklahoma, hungry for education, rode horseback from her home to Lawrence Kansas, to enter the state university. The trip called for a mere canter of only three hundred and fifty miles.

Mr. John B. Clouser, of Altoona, in sending a dollar to make his subscription good to 1912, says, "The NEWS has been coming into our family for a good many years, and to part with it now would be like giving up an old friend."

Nathan Mercer, aged thirty-five years, and his wife, Mrs. Rachel Mercer, aged thirty seven years, died Friday in Harrisburg of tuberculosis. Both man and wife were residents of Pittsburg and were on their way to Mont Alto to White Pine Sanatorium.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all dealers.

Frank Mellott, son of Samuel Mellott, in the Cove, went upon top of a big straw stack in his father's barnyard last Wednesday to open up the stack a little, and stepping on some concealed ice, slipped and shot down to the hard ground a distance of twenty-five or thirty feet. He got a shaking up, but is feeling well as ever again.

Last Monday a week—that windy Monday—Mr. John H. Truax, formerly of the Meadowgrounds, but now residing at Charleston, a village between Portz and Mercersburg, walked out into the yard at his home and the strong wind caused him to slip on the ice and fall injuring his shoulder so severely that a physician had to be called. The doctor had scarcely gotten home from attending Mr. Truax, when he received word to hasten back to the Truax home as Mrs. Truax had fallen and hurt herself. The doctor returned and found Mrs. Truax suffering much pain, but he left her some medicine, and now she and her husband are getting along well, and will soon be "good as ever" we trust.

A Pleasant Social Event. A few of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Layton's neighbors and friends gathered at their hospitable home Saturday afternoon January 14th and helped prepare ice cream for supper. When all was ready to sit down, the table was well laden with ice cream and cakes of different kinds, pies, and all that go to making a good supper. They did not stop at one making of ice cream or one kind either. Everybody was well satisfied and willing to holdo enough for once, for there was more than they could eat. Mr. Layton's are very kind and good neighbors and we all hope they may live to have many more such happy occasions.

ONE WHO WAS THERE. Mrs. Harry Wible of Hustontown, accompanied her sister Mrs. Bert Winegardner, of this place, to Mapleton last Saturday a week ago. They returned home last Wednesday, having had a pleasant visit among their relatives at Mapleton.

WHY HESITATE?

An Offer That Involves No Risk For Those Who Accept It.

We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

Constipation is caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestines or descending colon. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly ideal for children. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They have a neutral action on the other organs or glands. They do not purge or cause any inconvenience whatever. They will positively overcome chronic or habitual constipation and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c. and 25c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.
