McConnellsburg, Pa. AMERICA AND IRRIGATION.

Ours is the foremost country in the world in the reclamation of its arid land. To the untraveled easterner the extent of the irrigation of western lands under direct government supervision is unknown. The work of Individual and corporate concerns raises the actual reclamation of arid land in the west to an enormous toanl acreage. Most of this work has been accomplished within the past decade, while each year the plans for will further pushing the conquests of artificial irrigation are extended, says the Pittsburg Gazette-Times, That the prestige in this important department of home building belongs to the United States is further demonstrated by a request recently submitted to The state department by the Austra-Man government. Australia has sevmral wide extended areas of arid land. The reclamation of much of this has been undertaken, but the first difficulty that confronted the government was a lack of expert knowledge of the actual work to be done and of the means used to secure the largest and surest returns on the money invested. In this dilemma Australia Eurned to the United States, where irrigation on the broadest lines has been ably demonstrated under government control.

Workmen in demolishing an ancient house situated in the Rue de Strasbourg, opposite the old Mont de Piete at Nantes, have made an interesting discovery which is likely to attract considerable attention, since the find was at once dispersed by the men. It consisted of a number of gold and silver coins of different epochs. The cmost interesting bore the effigy of Alphonso VIII., king of Galicia and Casclie, who reigned from 1126 to 1158. They bear on the exergue an inscripwion in Arabic in these terms: "The Emir of the Catholics is aided by Allah, and Allah protects them." The find is interesting in more ways than wone, and it is likely that economic writers will not fail to make use of These coins to show the trade relations of Nantes about the period of The Hundred Years War.

The defendant in a case before Judge Bacon, who objected to being described as a gentleman, may be scommended on his refusal, to be Inbeled with a term which even Sir James Murray is shy of defining, says The London Chronicle. There is the cold legal definition, "all above the wrank of a yeoman," and there is Sir William Blackstone's description of a gentleman as "one who can live idly and without labor." There is also the Inistoric definition given by a witness at the trial of Thurtell for the mureer of Mr. Weare as "one who drives - gig." And the cabman probably expresses the average opinion as to st constitutes a man, a gentleman when he says: "You're a gentleman, str." to the spendthrift who does not ask change for half a crown on a abilling fare.

Two of the rare dollars of 1804 have been found. It is affirmed that only four of these coins are in existence, and numismatologists attach great walve to them. The last coin sold brought $3,000. But of course if they continue to be found in this fashion "the discoveries are likely to "bear" the market.

Radium has also come down among The other necessaries of life, a grain af it having recently sold for $72,000. Still, at that rate, the time is not clearly in sight when families can afford to lay in an entire winter's supply with reduced prices for cash.

A veterinarian on Long Island refinsed to take an anaesthetic for an operation because he wished to watch it that he might get surgical points. A man like this is just the kind not Bikely to inflict needless pain on mihers.

SOME HARD FIGHTING DONE THERE.

The Revolutionists Attempting to Take All Towns Along El Paso Road-The Federal Troops In a Serious Condition At Guerrero and Ojinaga As At Galeana-General Navano Cut Off From Chihuahua For Sometime-Gen. Lugoe Reported Surrounded.

El Paso, Texas (Special) .- Fighting continues at Galeana, south of Casas Grandes, and runners brought the news to Casas Grandes Sunday that among the dead were many women and children, killed in their homes as the Federals fired on the insurgents in the houses. Unless these couriers are greatly excited it promises to be the bloodiest battle of the present insurrection when all losses are totaled. Reports say that the dead and wounded will total 200. Casas Grandes is still in the hands of the Federals but the inhabitants are not certain how long it will be held.

It is claimed now that the rebels are attempting to take all towns along the El Paso Northwestern road south of here and hold the line in order to use it to take supplies to their troops from El Paso. Juarez, opposite El Paso, acording to these statements, is to be taken. As indicating that the Mexican government places credence in these reports it sent another hundred cavalrymen to Juarez from Chihuahua Sunday. Fiscal guards in Juarez reported Sunday that 200 revolutionists crossed the Rio Grande at Guadalupe east of El Paso Saturday going south. This report was made to their commander.

Guerrero and Reports from Ojinaga show the Federals in as serious condition there as at Galeana. Navarro is completely cut off from Thihuahua and the rebels boast that their retreat from Guerrero was to iraw him further away from his base of supplies and then annihilate his command. He has been cut off for a week and the rebels are attacking his commands in all the smaller lowns, around Guerrero and Temosachic, asisted in their attacks by the Tarhuamara Indians.

At Ojinaga General Luque has had to send out all the troops he can spare to reinforce the small garrisons he placed in the smaller towns and s now said to be surrounded himself oy rebels at Ojinaga. The loss among the Federals around Ojinaga is known to have been heavy of late.
