Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by con stitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eus tachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbiing sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

We are all enjoying the snow which fell Monday morning.

Mrs. Delilah Shives, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Levi Skiles, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Truax still remains in a critical condition. Trout Fagley of Andover, was a pleasant caller at John Strait's Sunday.

The birthday surprise held a Rev. John Mellott's in honor of their daughter, Miss Maggie. Was well attended and enjoyed by everybody.

Mrs. Joshua Mellott is improving under the care of Dr. Palmer. S. M. Clevenger was calling on friends at Pleasant Ridge.

Cambria county is in pocket about $7,000 because in 1910 it paid its sheriff 121 cents a day for feeding prisoners, instead of 25 cents, as it had paid his predecessor. Sheriff Stutzman says he made some money, the prisoners all look well fed and there has been no complaints.

THINK THIS OVER.

This Offer Should Gain the Confidence of the Most Skeptical.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obliged to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you?

A most scientific, commonsense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreea ble in every way. This ingredient does not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember you can get them in McConnellsburg only at our store. 12 tablets 10 cents; 36 tablets 25 cents .-The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.

THE ROMISH LADY.

PRINTED BY REQUEST.

There was a Romish lady brought up in Popery, Her mother often told her the Priest she must obey; "O pardon me dear mother I humbly pray thee now, For unto those dumb idols I can no longer bow.

Assisted by her handmaid a bible she concealed, By this she gained instruction 'till God his love revealed. "I cannot worship idols not pictures made by man, So mother, use your pleasure and pardon if you can.

With grief and great vexation her mother quick did go, Unto the Roman Clergy, and told him all her woe. The Priests were all assembled, and for this lady called, To force her in a dungeon and frighten her with all.

Their threatnings and their scourges she meekly did endure; Although her age was tender, her faith was very sure. Her chains of gold and silver, they from this lady took; Her richest pride and grandeur she cheerfully forsook.

Unto the Pope they brought her in hopes of her return, But still she was condemned in iron chains to burn. Unto the place of torment they brought her speedily, She raised her hands to Heaven and joyfully did cry.

There being many ladies assembled in the place, She raised her hands to Heaven and begged supporting grace. Weep not for me, dear ladies, nor shed a tear for me, Though my poor body burneth, my soul the Lord shall see.

You need yourselves to pity in Zion deep decay, Dear people turn to Jesus and that without delay. Alas! my aged mother, quite on my ruin bent, "Twas you that did betray me, for I am innocent."

In came her raging mother her daughter to behold, And in her hand an idol all decked with finest gold, "O take away that idol. O take it from my sight, And bring to me my Bible, in which I take delight.

Go on all ye tormentors and do as you think best. I know my loving Savior will take me home to rest!" Soon as these words were uttered, up stept the man of death, There kindled he a fire to stop her mortal breath.

Instead of golden bracelets, with chains they bound her fast, She cried, "My God give power and victory at last. With Jesus and bright angels, I shall forever dwell; God pardon Priest and people"-and then bade all farewell.

George W. Crist aged 22 has been in the employ of Oliver Bingaman, a tenant farmer about four miles west of Greencastle as a farm hand. During that time ily. Last Thursday, while Mr. and Mrs. Bingaman were at Jimmy Hollinshead's sale about a mile from the Bingaman's home, the farm hand ran away with Stella, the twelve-year-old daughter of the Bingamans, took her to Hagerstown, applied for a marriage license, swearing that the girl was twenty years of age. Before the ceremony was performed, however, the couple was apprehended, and held until the father arrived, who took the child home with him. The interesting part of the affair is in store for No. 6
