Mr. Clarence Shimer, of Altoona, came home last Thursday. He has been in poor health for awhile, and came home to recuperate. We hope the bracing air of his native town will make him good as ever in a few days.

In the Lutheran church of McConnellsburg, volunteers for a Teacher's Training Class were called for on Sunday morning last. The class will be organized on Sunday morning, March 5, during the Sunday School session.

On Tuesday February 14th, while Mrs. John Sollers, of Orbesona, was visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lamberson, at Hustontown, her youngest child, Harry Edward, aged 8 months and 27 days, became ill and died. Interment was made in the cemetery at Clear Ridge on the 17th.

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by all dealers.

George W. Sipes of Licking Creek township, was in town yesterday arranging for the sale of this personal property on the 6th of March. Mr. Sipes has sold his farm to Mr. C. A. Decker, and intends to take the lamented Geely's advice, "Go West."

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by all dealers.

Auctioneer James M. Chesnut and H. H. Bridenstine, were among the business visitors in town last Saturday. Jimmy's throat is standing the stress of almost continual sale calling remarkably well, and he is in his usually fine trim for the work.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and laid on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Sold by all dealers.

Mr. Alex Patterson and daughter Janet, spent a few days in Cumberland county last week. Mr. Patterson recently purchased a farm of about 150 acres near Pleasantfield, and will remove from his farm in Ayr township which has been rented to Mr. Baltzer Schell, about the middle of the month.

IN MEMORIAM.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of J. Findlay Johnston by the Members of the Union Cemetery Co.

Whereas, Mr. J. Findlay Johnston, one of our members, has been removed from our midst by death.

Resolved, That we recognize the hand of God in this despatchment of his providence and bow submissively to his will.

Resolved, That we place on record the high regard in which we held Mr. Johnston.

He was one of the charter members of the Union Cemetery Company, and served in the office of treasurer for twenty-five years, discharging the duties of the office faithfully.

He was a useful citizen, always ready to take his part in public affairs and was frequently called upon to serve the people in public office.

He was a kind neighbor, whose advice was often sought and honestly and frankly given. He was a loyal and true friend, a faithful member of the church and a kind husband and father in his home. He exemplified in his life a true christian character.

He will be missed from among us, but his influence will long be felt in the community.

Resolved that this paper be recorded in the minutes of this meeting and published in the Fulton County News.

Tortured For 15 Years

by a cure defying stomach troubles that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work.

His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at Trout's drug store.

Likes It Out in Iowa.

Richard L. Sipes left his home in Licking Creek township on the last day of January, took the train at Hancock at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, and at 10 o'clock in the morning of February the 3rd was in Richland, Iowa. He was met at the railroad station by Mr. T. Irwin Sipes and son Otis who went from this county a few years ago. He found them well and enjoying life. There are a number of Fulton county people in that section and all are doing well. Richard says the country looks good to him. He has hired on a farm. If any of his Fulton county friends want to go west, they can do well, and if they want to write, they should address it to him at Packwood, Iowa, in care of John Thomas.
