

Will Motter, of Chambersburg, is spending a few days in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Motter, of Ayr township.

A bill providing for one cent letter postage has been introduced in Congress, and if passed and signed by the President will take effect July 1, 1911.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son, pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

The last remaining $15,000 for Chambersburg's new postoffice has been appropriated and the work of erection can now go on without interruption. The structure is to cost $80,000.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

Nurserymen say that more trees have been planted in Pennsylvania during the past year, and more orders are now waiting to be filled in this State than in any other State in the Union. This is chiefly because of the activity of the persons officially engaged in advancing the interests of orcharding in this State.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by all dealers.

Residents of Dry Run and vicinity are in anticipation of the enjoyment of a home talent production—"Dot, the Miner's Daughter," to be presented on Saturday, February 25. The characters will be represented by well known young ladies and gentlemen of that section. The Doylesburg band will furnish music.

Life Saved At Death's Door.
"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years. "Quick safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

LAIDIG.
Wm. Clevenger, who has been employed in West Virginia, is spending some time with his mother at Laidig.

David Strait was unfortunate enough to lose a horse last week. Miss Sarah Grove, of Chambersburg, is spending some time visiting friends and relatives at Hustontown and Laidig.

Roy Laidig, who is employed on P. C. Mellott's saw mill, spent Sunday with his parents, Daniel Laidig and wife.

I wish to correct the mistake made in the News last week concerning P. B. Foreman spending Sunday evening with Miss Nellie Deshong. If that correspondent would tell some truth about themselves, it certainly would be more of a credit to them.

In The Lutheran Church.

Commencing with Wednesday evening, March 1, there will be a series of services held in the St. Paul's Lutheran church until Easter. The special services will be held on Wednesday evenings and will be Church services instead of the regular mid-week Prayer Meetings. Wednesday, March 1, is known as Ash Wednesday, or the beginning of Lent. The purpose of the meetings is to set forth Christ's life as it is known during the last week of his earthly life prior to the Crucifixion. Each Wednesday night one day of that Last Week will be studied, and with especial attention to the deepening of our love and devotion to our Lord and Saviour. The character of the meetings will be deeply devotional, as we want to learn to love our God more deeply because of his great love for us. If possible, the series will end with nightly meetings during the week preceding Easter, when one of the sayings of the Cross will be studied each night to prepare us for the fitting celebration of the Easter.

Mrs. Mary A. Kelly of this place is spending a few days with relatives in Thompson township.

AT GREATHEAD'S

CLOSING OUT SALE,

A call will convince you that the following lines are bargains:

Men's and Boys' Boots that were $1.25 to $3.25, now 95c to $2.00. These are all good solid stock, and better leather than you can get to-day at the advance in price.

60 pairs of heavy Women's shoes at 85c and $1.00 that can't be replaced at $1.40. These are bargains.

Men's and Boys' heavy shoes from 90c up that are worth far more than the market price.

Horse Blankets—all new stock—58, 65, 75c, 1.25, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25, that were 75c to 3.25. Not more than a half dozen of the best grades left.

In Dry Goods, Gingham, Prints, etc., what is left of some lines at prices far below actual value.

350 yards of Cotton Flannel at 7 and 8c in gray and brown, that is worth 12 1-2c to-dav.

Space will not permit us to give prices in detail. The standard of quality of goods at Greathead's is known to the trade throughout the county. If you want the best, you will find it here.
