JOHN LATHEROW.

Extract from Chicago Newspaper on Death of Former Resident of Fulton County.

John Latherow, one of Dauphin Park's oldest residents died Tuesday morning, February 21st. He was born in Fulton county, Pa., May 5, 1837. He was married in September, 1860, and last September he and his wife spent their fiftieth anniversary together. He came to Dauphin Park in the year 1893 and took a position in the I. C. shops at Burnside, where he remained until 1908, when he retired. He was one of the first members of the Vincent M. E. church, and it was through his untiring efforts that the church was made possible, and he gave his services gratis in the building of the first structure of the church, and again when the present building was erected. He became an Odd Fellow at the age of 21 and at the time of his death was a member of the Wood lawn lodge, which had charge of the services at the house. He was a devoted husband and father, a devout Christian and a true and loyal friend to all, and especially to the children of this vicinity, for whom he always had a kind word and a pleasant smile. To know Mr. Latherow was to love him, and he will be missed by all. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. C. Godden, pastor of the Vincent M. E. church, and Mr. Oliver Jones sang "The Sweet Bye and Bye," Mrs. Hann has had a dose of rheumatism during the last few weeks, that nearly put him out of commission.

PENSIONS FOR VETERANS.

Bills Introduced Into Legislature Last Week Ask State to Provide for Soldiers and Their Widows.

If the bills introduced by Representatives John H. Riebel, of Philadelphia, and Claude T. Repo, of Lehigh, become law, Pennsylvania veterans of the Civil War and their widows will receive a substantial pension from the State in addition to what they are receiving from Uncle Sam.

Under the Riebel bill, those entitled to draw pensions, consist of every citizen of the state at the date of the approval of the bill, who enlisted from Pennsylvania in the Civil war and who on account of age, bodily infirmity or other cause, is unable to earn a living and does not have sufficient income. He is to be paid at the rate of $8 a month and in extreme cases not to exceed $15 a month. "Any person of continuous vicious and intemperate habits shall not be entitled to the provisions of the act."

When a pensioner dies the widow can make application. Wives of soldiers who died prior to the passage of the act, are also eligible to draw a pension. The bill appropriates $600,000 for the pensions and $25,000 for expenses.

Under the provisions of the Reno bill those eligible to pensions include all soldiers, sailors and marines of the Civil war enrolled from Pennsylvania and residents of the state at the date of the commencement of their service and one year prior to making application for a pension. In addition any person who served in the militia or emergency troops of Pennsylvania is eligible.

The rate of pension is as follows: Service of one full year or less, $5 a month; one year and not more than two, $6; over two years, $7; emergency men, $5 a month irrespective of the length of service, provided the person saw active service.

The first payment is to be made on April 1, 1912, and quarterly thereafter. No petition is to be filed before November, 1911. The appropriation for pensions is $2,500,000 and $67,950 for expenses.

Our veteran friends who read this must not lose sight of the fact that this is not now a law. It is before the present legislature; and if they pass it, and Governor signs it, you'll get your money.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Buterbaugh, Who Have Been Married Twenty Years, Celebrate the Event.

On Washington's Birthday, about forty invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Buterbaugh in Ayr township to celebrate the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Buterbaugh, and incidentally partake of a sumptuous dinner prepared by Mrs. Buterbaugh herself. This good lady has been in poor health during the past year; but when she got busy preparing a dinner for the occasion, she seemed inspired with the vigor of twenty years ago, and set before her guests such a feast of good things as is seldom the good fortune of any one to enjoy. The occasion was a red letter day to both Mr. and Mrs. Buterbaugh, and they were both as happy and jolly as when they started out on their matrimonial venture. While George's hair is just a little whiter than it used to be, he is supplied as a big boy, and can saw twenty-five cords of wood a day with his little gasoline engine. Among those present were Samuel Mellott and wife, John Hendershot, wife and three children; G. Wesley Mellott and wife, Harvey Unger and wife, Daniel McQuade and wife, D. A. Washabaugh and wife; Will Johnson and daughters Lydia and Sadie; Mrs. Annie Everts, Linn Alexander, wife and daughter Lucy, and Will Buterbaugh and wife. About four o'clock in the afternoon, the guests began to take their departure, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Buterbaugh many more happy returns. ONE WHO WAS THERE.

WHO IS THE F. S. ROYSTER GUANO COMPANY?

TRADE MARK
F.S.R.
REGISTERED

The F. S. Royster Guano Company is the largest independent manufacturer of Fertilizers in the United States. The business was founded twenty-seven years ago by Mr. F. S. Royster, who is still at the head of the Company, and gives the business his personal attention. It requires eight large factories to supply the demand for Royster goods in the South alone. Being desirous of extending our territory, we have built in Baltimore one of the largest and most modern fertilizer and Sulphuric Acid plants in existence. Ask your dealer for ROYSTER goods and see that the trade-mark is on every bag. If he does not handle them, write and give us his name and we will arrange with him, or some one else, to supply you.
