

PHYSICAL WRECK RESTORED TO HEALTH BY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY

Some time ago I began the use of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root with the most remarkable results. For years I was almost a wreck and was a great sufferer. The doctors who treated me made me believe that my great sufferings were due to female trouble. I was so bad at times I would faint away and had sinking spells. Finally a new doctor was called in and he said that I had kidney trouble and gave me medicine, of which I took several bottles. I obtained some relief from this but I could not sleep and suffered so much pain that my husband and children had to lift me in and out of bed. After this time two friends sent me word to try Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, which I did, and I am glad to state that the first dose gave me great relief. After taking the third dose I was helped into bed and slept half of the night.

I took several bottles of Swamp-Root and I feel that I owe my life to this wonderful remedy. The two family doctors said that I could not live three months; my urine was in a terrible condition—thick and slimy—and I would have to be helped in and out of bed ten to twenty times every night. After taking Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root for two days I was entirely free from getting up and could sleep soundly.

MRS. D. E. HILEMAN, Tunnelton, West Va.
Personally appeared before me this 15th of September, 1909, Mrs. D. E. Hileman, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

THE ONE DEFECT.
"An heirloom," explained the farmer's wife to her 13-year-old boy, "is something that has been handed down from father to son, and in some instances is greatly prized."

"I'd prize these heirlooms I'm wearing," remarked the youngster, "a good deal more if they wasn't so long in the legs."—Everybody's Magazine.

WOULD LIE AWAKE ALL NIGHT WITH ITCHING ECZEMA
"Ever since I can remember I was a terrible sufferer of eczema and other irritating skin diseases. I would lie awake all night, and my suffering was intolerable. A scaly humor settled on my back, and being hot and itchy, I naturally scratched it. It was a burning, itching sensation, and utterly intolerable, in fact, it was so that I could not possibly forget about it. It did not take long before it spread to my shoulders and arms, and I was almost covered with a mass of raw flesh on account of my scratching it. I was in such a condition that my hands were tied."

"A number of physicians were called, but it seemed beyond their medical power and knowledge to cure me. Having tried numerous treatments without deriving any benefit from them, I had given myself up to the mercy of my dreadful malady, but I thought I would take the Cuticura treatment as a last resort. Words cannot express my gratitude to the one who created 'The Cuticura Miraculous,' as I have named them, for now I feel as if I never suffered from even a pimple. My disease was routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I shall never cease praising the wonderful merits they contain. I will never be without them, in fact, I can almost dare any skin diseases to attack me so long as I have Cuticura Remedies in the house. I hope that this letter will give other sufferers an idea of how I suffered, and also hope that they will not pass 'The Cuticura Life Saving Station.'" (Signed) C. Louis Brown, 825 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 29, 1910.

Went Swimming at 92.
"The Grand Old Man of Hightgate Roads" William McKenzie, long known as "grandfather" by his fellow members of the Hightgate Lifebuoy Club, has passed away at his North London home. He was in his ninety-third year.

Up to six weeks ago Mr. McKenzie was bathing in Hightgate Ponds, where he had bathed for many years. His infirmity regularly at the age of 92 probably constitutes a record in natation. Until three years ago he joined the winter lifebuoy bathing sports and his practice was to walk over the two miles from Highbury and back for his swim.—London Chronicle.

All Over.
"The Tiger—What's the matter with the giraffe? He doesn't look well."
"The Lion—No, he says he feels sick all over."
"The Tiger—Has a sore throat, I suppose."
It's easy for a pretty young widow to make a man think he wants to marry her.

HUNTING FOR YOUNG BLOOD

In Eagerness to Secure Fresh Recruits Many Managers Carelessly Let Old Players Go.

There is so much talk of young blood in baseball that many managers seem to have become absolute maniacs in the matter of allowing men to go for no other reason than the fact that they have seen seven or eight years of service in the big leagues. One out of about every twenty recruits makes good, and in the meantime players of ability who can play rings around the youngsters who have supplanted them are allowed to drift into the minors.

Williams and Ferris would positively have shone on the St. Louis Browns last year, and Hughes would have been no slouch in Washington. But even more striking than the passing of these players is the fact that Rube Waddell has been allowed to go out of fast company. The big left-hander has a lot of winning games left in him and would be sure to strengthen almost any club in either league, while to teams such as the Brooklyn or Boston Nationals he would be absolutely invaluable.

Waddell is valuable not only as a player but as a drawing card as well, for with the possible exception of "Bugs" Raymond, more than any other player in the country.

ELIOT BOOSTS SUNDAY SPORT

Former Head of Harvard University in Address to Legislature Urges More Liberal Laws.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, has joined the ranks of those who believe that the present puritanical laws which work to restrain baseball and other amateur sports and out-door games on Sunday should be repealed or amended. He spoke in favor of a liberal law before a committee of the Massachusetts legislature.

"I am in favor of freeing the minor sports from the restrictions of the present Sunday laws," said Dr. Eliot, when asked to lend his aid to the movement. "I am opposed," continued Dr. Eliot, "to allowing the carrying on of theatres on Sunday or moving picture shows or big professional games which attract thousands of spectators with an admission charge."

Dr. Eliot is now concerned with the framing of a measure which will give entire freedom on the first day of the week for the enjoyment of all manner of outdoor sports, for the witnessing of which no charge shall be made.

ROTATION PLAN TO BE USED

New System of Handling Pitchers Adopted by Management of New York American Team.

"Rotation" is the keynote of a new system of handling the pitching staff which has been adopted by the management of the New York Americans for the coming season. Six pitchers, Ford, Quinn, Vaughn, Fisher, Caldwell and Warhop, are relied on to carry the team through the summer, and they are to be worked in turn with clocklike regularity.

Manager Chase believes that Ford's success last year was wholly due to the fact that he did not pitch out of his regular turn. He positively refused to go into the box unless he was absolutely fit and ready, with the result that he was always at his best. Under this method of procedure Ford knew exactly when he was expected to pitch, and consequently nerved himself for the task.

Chase maintains that if the other pitchers are worked in a similar manner they will prove vastly more effective, and in his belief he is supported by many close students of the game. It is argued that a pitcher cannot be expected to do himself justice if he is suddenly called upon to enter the box at a time when he is hardly ready for a grueling test.

LOOK OUT FOR SWEDEN'S TEAM

Everett C. Brown.

"Watch out for Sweden in the Olympic games at Stockholm next year," said Everett Brown, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of America. Just before he left Chicago the other day for New York to attend a meeting of some of the United States representatives to the Olympic.

"The 'native sons' have gone out for the world's athletic championship with 'blood in their eyes,' and with the training they will have added to the natural ability they displayed in London in 1908, they are going to cut considerable figure at Stockholm. 'I don't want to be accused of lack of patriotism or anything like that because of my statement,' continued the president. "My aim is to warn the athletes of this country that they will have to be up and doing every minute of the time if they want to figure at the top in the final count, for Sweden is going to leave nothing undone to turn the trick."

"As a starter, the government is back of the movement by which Ernie Hjertberg, former coach of the New York Irish-American Athletic club, has been secured to train the Swedish athletes, and he has been given free rein in his work. At present he is engaged in scouring the entire country for athletes from all stages of life and every time he lands a man who looks like a 'comer' he puts that individual to work with a promise of a place on the Olympic team if he shows enough class."

COLLEGES TAKE UP BOXING
Athletes May Battle for Honor in Ring as Well in Various Other Sports.
Athletes representing various colleges soon may battle for honors in the ring as well as on the diamond, gridiron and tennis court. Plans for a boxing league, long in contemplation, were aided when William J. Crombie, physical instructor in the University of Pennsylvania, sent letters to Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Cornell and Columbia suggesting the formation of an intercollegiate boxing association.
Pennsylvania has already given attention to boxing. Bouts at the various weights form a big feature of the May Day sports. The bouts are conducted under the amateur rules and never have been marked by any serious accident. Such clever men as Danny Hutchinson, Larry Miller, James Skinner, Livingston Sullivan, T. D. Barclay and E. D. Roseberry competed in the bouts.

Rheumatism Advice

Gives Prominent Doctor's Best Prescription—Is Easily Mixed.
"Get one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound and one ounce of Toris compound. Then get half a pint of good whisky and put the other two ingredients into it. Take a tablespoonful of this mixture before each meal and at bed time. Shake the bottle before using." This is not new in this city as many of the worse cases of rheumatism and back-ache have been cured by it. Good results come the first day. Any druggist has these ingredients on hand or will quickly get them from his wholesale house. Any one can mix them.

Brought the Tears.
An unusual incident marked a recent fire in New York. The fire started in the cellar of a five-story tenement and before it was extinguished the 18 families in the building and all the firemen were weeping copiously from inflamed eyes. In the cellar many bags of onions had been stored. The chief fireman allowed the tenants to remain in the building, assuring them that the fire was confined to the cellar. They did not stay, however, when the onions had got well aflame.

Dare to Be Happy.
Let us never be afraid of innocent joy; God is good and what he does is well done; resign yourself to everything, even to happiness; ask for the spirit of sacrifice, of detachment, of renunciation, and above all, for the spirit of joy and gratitude, that genuine and religious optimism which sees in God a Father, and asks no pardon for his benefits. We must dare to be happy and dare to confess it, regarding ourselves always as the depositaries, not as the authors of our own joy.—Amiel.

Home and School.
Home and school are two different spheres and have of necessity different duties to perform and different work to accomplish in the training and teaching of the child. But unless the ideals are the same and unless there is a systematic attitude of mind between parents and teachers, the best result cannot be achieved and the child must suffer.—Mrs. E. L. Franklin, Secretary Parents' National Educational Union, England.

A Matter of Size.
Wife—I want a cap, please, for my husband.

Wife—Well, I really forget. His collar is size sixteen, though I expect he'd want about size eighteen or twenty for a cap, wouldn't he?

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE
So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.
From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menopause ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headache, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.
Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For the free sample address Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 301 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

My ankles became bloated, my heart was affected and the doctors gave me no relief. Soon after using Doan's Kidney Pills, I grew stronger and ere long I was able to do my housework."

A Helpless Invalid

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at last try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is, it would almost seem, to blame for her own wretchedness. Read what this woman says:
Richmond, Mo.—"When my second daughter was eighteen months old I was pronounced a hopeless invalid by specialists. I had a consultation of doctors and they said I had a severe case of ulceration. I was in bed for ten weeks, had sinking spells, and was pronounced to be in a dangerous condition. My father insisted that we try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought me six bottles. I soon began to improve, and before it had all been taken I was as well and strong as ever. My friends hardly recognized me so great was the change."—Mrs. Woodson Branstetter, Richmond, Mo.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

I wish every mother in America could be persuaded to use it as there would be less suffering among our sex then. I am always glad to speak a word of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you are at liberty to use this testimonial."—Mrs. James T. Lawrence, Jonesboro, Texas.
