SUDDEN DEATHS.

Miss Mary Shives died on Tuesday afternoon, and Miss Edna Trott, on Thursday, of Last Week.

Miss Mary Shives, who for many years resided in the lower end of Ayr township, went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Mellott, on Laurel Ridge on a little visit, and while there took pneumonia, and died on Tuesday afternoon of this week. Her funeral will take place tomorrow and interment will be made at Damascus church in Thompson township.

The deceased was a sister of Mr. B. F. Shives, of Ayr township, and of Mrs. Daniel Cover, of Hancock. She was aged 63 years, 10 months, and 23 days.

Miss Edna Trott, aged about 78 years, and a member of one of the oldest families in the county, died at her home near Hess's Mill on Wednesday night of last week. She and her brother Henry and sister Nancy all lived in the old home—all unmarried. On the afternoon of her death she went over to Miss Nancy's room to see how she was getting along, and while there died suddenly. Funeral on Saturday, and interment at Zion Church in Thompson township.

Yellow turnips are greatly improved when served mashed, by mixing with them a small quantity of Irish potato. A very little sugar, unless the turnips are unusually sweet, is a pleasing addition.

James Sipes and son Harvey went over to Cumberland county yesterday to look over their farms, and to attend the commencement at the Carlisle Indian School. They expect to return home Saturday.

On March 11th, my house burned, and 13th M. R. Shaffner, the agent received notice of the fire, and called with the adjuster on the 16th and by 18th my money was in, McCornellsburg. For square treatment and prompt payment I want to recommend Mr. Shaffner's Companies. He will treat your right.—Bert Hann, Salvia.

Here is the formula for treating seed potatoes to prevent scab: Soak the whole seed for two hours in a mixture of one half pint of formalin (formaldehyde) and fifteen gallons of cold water; dry the seed, cut and plant in ground that has not recently grown potatoes. You should be able to get the formaldehyde in any drug store.

The announcement of L. L. Cunningham, of Wells township for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Treasurer appears in the Fulton Democrat and in the FULTON COUNTY NEWS this week. Mr. Cunningham needs no introduction to the voters of this county, as he has been the courteous and efficient assistant of County Treasurer Stevens in his trips over the County collecting taxes during the past three years and is familiar with the work.

The FULTON COUNTY NEWS this week contains the announcement of Albert K. Nesbit, one of Ayr township's farmers, for the nomination for County Commissioner on the Republican ticket at the Primaries in June. While Albert was not born in this county, his father, the late William A. Nesbit, moved to the Cove when Albert was about nine months of age, and he is practically a native of Ayr township. He owns the old home farm, and is well qualified to fill the office to which he aspires.

HAIR HEALTH.

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

We assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness.

Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded if it does not do as we claim. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store.—Leslie W. Seylar.

Surprise Party.

A delicious supper was served at the home of Miss Minnie Strait last Thursday evening and a very pleasant company entertained—all in honor of Minnie's sixteenth birthday anniversary. She had been over helping Mrs. Johnson Truax move, and when she returned home she was delighted to find such a jolly bunch of her friends. The bill of fare consisted of roast chicken, pies, cakes, desserts, and—O, well just lots of good things and plenty of it. Minnie received a number of beautiful gifts, among them a splendid hymn book. Those present were Johnson Truax and wife, Hartman Truax and wife, Dawson Strait and wife, Aaron Garland, Erastus Bard, John Strait and wife, Mrs. Martha Strait; Blair, Vernon, and Bennett Strait; Nellie, Rhoda, and Verna Garland; Jessie Truax, and Minnie Strait.

The Round Knob Sunday School has issued an appeal for help to pay off a debt on their church building. This appeal is addressed to the Sunday Schools. A generous response is being received. Round Knob is at the upper end of the Six Mile Run coal district along the Wells Valley road. Labor troubles and lack of work in the coal trade have prevented the raising of money but it is hoped that through this effort the entire amount may be raised. A service will be held Easter Sunday, at which time the amounts contributed by each school will be announced.
