Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, Never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only. 50c at Trout's drug store.

MAJOR

Is a beautiful Black Percheron Stallion, standing 15 hands, 2 inches high and weighing in breeding condition about 1650 pounds. He is symmetrical and solidly built, and presents a most handsome appearance. He is broken to be a very gentle and willing worker, and possesses a most tractable and kindly disposition.

PEDIGREE MAJOR was foaled on June 28, 1901. He was sired by Rameur 42982, imported from La Forriere au Doyler, department of Orne, France, by M. W. Dunham of Wayne, Ill., is still in service and conceded to be one of the best foalers in this country.

MAJOR, who is regarded as among the best foal-getters and has some of the finest colts in Somerset county, is now owned by D. J. Miller, Dublin Mills, Pa., and will stand for service during the season of 1911, as follows: On Monday and Tuesday of each week at Jesse Miller's near Dublin Mills, in Huntingdon county, and the balance of the time at the stable of the owner D. J. Miller, on the Albough Cutchall farm in Taylor township.

TERMS.—Ten dollars for colt that will stand and suck. Half-price if colt dies. Persons parting with a mare before she is known to be with foal forfeits the insurance price.

D. J. MILLER, Owner.

Attention, Horsemen!

The stallion known as "Pat" will stand for service during the season at the home of its owner, the undersigned three fourths of a mile north west of Dane and one-fourth mile north of cross roads at Bert Brant's place.

"Pat" is a dapple gray, coming five years old, weighs 1400 pounds, is gentle, works anywhere and has good action. Is a good driver and well bred, his sire being a Percheron and his dam a Canadian. Terms reasonable.

D. B. GRESS, Dane, Pa. 4-13-m3.

PRINCE, The Black Percheron Stallion.

This horse will make the entire season of 1911 at the stable of the undersigned 1 1/2 mile west of Hustontown, on the State Road. This horse was on the stand last year, and proved to be a sure colt getter, and some fine colts can be shown.

This horse has been examined, and found to be free from any transmissible unsoundness. Certificate, No. 273, Pennsylvania Graded. ZACK MCELHANEY, Owner and Keeper 4-5-m3.

Racket Store News.

We want to name you a few prices on some merchandise that is selling now.

Brooms are Cheaper and we are in shape to sell you a nice clean 4 tied Broom 25c. Just received another case of like we have been selling so many 95c. leather suit cases that are strictly water proof, and that if you set anything on them, they want mash. They are a steel frame, $2.35, $2.50 and $2.75 each.

Those Good Suit Cases,

Just a word to you who are going to attend the Summer School here. We have our Stationery in now and are in shape to show you a great line of these goods at prices that will cause you to wonder how we got them. Come in and see our line.

Clothing! Clothing!

And this line of goods is just as good and cheap as our other lines. We are selling more Child's, Boys' and Men's Clothing than we ever did, and why? Just because we sell it at the right price and when we sell you

A Suit for 5.00, 6.00, 8.00 or $12.00

You get value received; and when you get this, you will come back. Don't buy without first seeing our liners. We can save you a good day's wages.

Shoes and Oxfords.

Oxfords are going to be the rage this summer and we have them in all sizes and prices; also our Shoe stock never was in better shape. If you are a farmer we can fit you; if you are a lawyer, merchant, laborer, school teacher, or minister it matters not what your occupation, we can fit you, and save you money. See our ladies' shoes for dress at $1.00.

Say don't you want a nice hat? We have them 48, 98c. and $1.25.

WIRE FENCE.

We are the agent in this place for the AMERICAN WIRE FENCE, and always have it. We sell more every season; and we think it will pay you to burn or sell your fence timber, and buy wire. The stake and rider fence takes up 6 or 8 feet of good land; and besides, it is harder to keep clean. We can sell you as cheap as 22c rod, and heaviest made at 37c rod. See our 25c fence.
