WHY. YES, SHE GOT THE NOTE FOUGHS AT NEW YORK GAMES

Beautiful Roses Appreciated, but There Was a "Fly In the Ointment.

A young man whose gallantry is in excess of his means sought to remedy this defect and to save the expense of the money required for the purchase of flowers for his lady loves by have a bouquet from time to time, in return for his castoff clothes. So it happened that one day he received a hunch of beautiful roses, which he at once dispatched to her house. In sure anticipation of a friendly welcome, he called on the young woman that evening. He got a frosty recep-

"Did-er-did you get my flowers today?" he was finally forced to ask. "Yes, and the note that went with them.

"Note? Why, did I send a note?" "You did. A disgraceful note, scrawled with a blunt pencil on dirty paper. Here it is, I don't understand it, and 1 don't think you are very humorous,

The note read as follows:

"Here's your flowers, but you owe me a pair of pants for 'em."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SCALP WAS BADLY AFFECTED

'I am more than gratified by the successful results I obtained by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. For substituted. These special officers several years my scalp was very badly affected with dandruff and scales, My scalp liched terribly at times and therefore be made for a return of the my hair fell out. My coat collar would old system. be actually white with the dandruff that had fallen from my head. My profession being that of a barber, I was particular about having my hair "Kid" Elberfeld, in Reminiscent Moin good condition, and was also in a position to try many lotions, etc., for the scalp. These had little or no effect. I had heard so much about the Cuticura Remedies that I resolved to try them. I shampooed my head with Cutleura Soap twice a week and after drying my head thoroughly, 1 anointed parts of my scalp with Cutithe outset, and continued to keep up this treatment. To think that only three cakes of Cutleura Scap and one and one-half boxes of Cutleura Ointment rid my head of this annoying trouble made me feel quite contented. I have now got a thick growth of hair and I am never troubled with any dandroff or itching of the scalp. There is no question but that the Cutleura Remedies cured me. 1 frequently recommend them to my customers and they think a great deal of them." (Signed) John F. Williams, 307 Norfolk Street, Dorchester, Boston, Mass., July 28, 1910.

Next!

There were a couple of dandy fish liars in the Colonial lobby. We didn't have time to get their names, addresses and photographs, but we lingered long enough to hear the conversation. The poignant part thereof was as follows:

"How much did your fish weigh?" "I didn't have no hay scales with we, you mut. But when I pulled him out it lowered the lake four inches."

"Some fish," commented the other, without the guiver of an evelash. Reminds me of some good sport I had duck hunting last fall. I fired at flock of ducks and gathered up four Spectators Are Annoyed by Rowdyism and Police Will Be Asked to Preserve Order.

Complaints of rowdyism indulged in by spectators at the two opening tames of the New York baseball seaton may result in the assignment of a large squad of policemen to keep orarranging with a gardener to let him ier at the big league grounds hereifter.

On both days the hoodlums were sausing disturbances, according to the complaints received by the managenent. Many women were struck with paper balls bigger than their heads. or by paper clubs rolled thick. Their escorts, who tried to ward off the atncks while making slow progress coward reserved or empty seats, were beaten with these improvised bludgeons until their hats were smashed and in some cases noses were bleed-

ng. The spectacle afforded by a hundred or more men and boys pelting a womin and her escort with newspapers. beanut shells, cigar butts and tobacco quids is not relished by the management and steps will be taken, it is announced, to persuade the police to take a hand.

The ball game crowds formerly were patrolled by regular police, but hese were withdrawn a year ago. wing to criticism of their assignment o this "private work," and special officers hired by the management were have been unable to cope with the rowdy element. Application will ment, Says Public Too Often Overlooks Good Play.

CANNOT FORGET THE TIGERS

"In figuring the responsibility for a unseball defeat or the credit for a rictory," said "Kid" Elberfeld in a handle Waddell right and that man is eminiscent moment, "the general puble too often overlooks the play or the American Association club. neident, through which success or cara Ointment. I was pleased from atlure came, and credits or blames free rein," says Lajoie. "He won't issome player who really should never uave had a chance to decide the reult. They don't go back far enough o note how the play should have but I wouldn't be surprised if he seen switched. pitched fully 50 games for Cantillon. "I was in one of the two most fanous finishes the American league I know both of them well and, believe me, they make a good combination. has had, playing shortstop for the Waddell is far from the has-been Highlanders in 1904, when we lost the stage. He still possesses the stud pennant to Boston on the closing day of the season, through being beaten in and it only remains for some one to the first number of a double-header. get it out of him. Joe is the one to That game has gone into baseball his. do it." tory as the one in which a wild pitch lost a pennant. As a matter of fact, Thesbro did toss the chances for the lag when a 'spitter' got away from him, went by Jack Kleinow to the stand and let Lou Criger score from second base with the winning run.

"But we lost that pennant three ways, and two of these had nothing to do with this particular game. It never should have been necessary for us to take either game of this doubleheader to become champions. The flag should have been won long before that. It might have been had it not been for Washington. That team, always down at the bottom of the column, started us down hill just when we were being hailed as the coming champions. It was the old

Larry Lajoie of the Cleveland club is one player who believes that Rube Waddell, the eccentric diamond actor, still has the ability to travel in fast company. Nap says that the fact that the Rube is with Joe Cantillon this SING season will make him a big winner.

THINKS WELL OF ERRATIC "RUBE"

34

Rube Waddell.

SHOE FOR TROTTING HORSE Much Depends on Conformation of Animal's Leg and Breeding of the Animal.

To induce a horse to tret or to change the gait from pacing to trotting the services of an expert driver re required. It is largely a matter of training, though much depends on the breeding of the animal and the next week" conformation of the leg. Shoeing with a four calked shoe is helpful in some

She is no good at dusting, He cannot mend a chair Nor can be hulld a fire, Yet the in his destre And with affection trusting She known they'll have no care-She is no good at dusting, He cannot mend a chair,

810

Pley'll blame B all on Cupid When life is going wrong. And each will would the other And she'll go home to mother And say that he is stapid While he'll use phrases strong. They'll blame it all on Cupid When life is going wrong.

Gloomy Outlook.

"Now, Mmc. Screechy," says the manager, after the contract has been signed, "can't you give out a few interviews on the subject of motherhood? "Mercy, no!" replied Mme, Screechy,

"Then deny your engagement to somebody this week and confirm it "I cannot think . such a thing." "But you'll allow us to quote you made a potato salad, stuffed eggs, as saying that you favor trial marmade a custard and brown bread. riages.

"Indeed I won't. I'm under consix o'clock in the evening he found her tract simply to sing and not to talk dressed up. And on the table was you may try your hand at writing a short story. A few minutes later Johnny handed up his slate on which was written: 'Us boys all loves our teacher."--

His Effort.

TO DRIVE OUT MALARIA AND BUILLD & PTHE STATEM Palse the Gla Sondard GRUTHE TASTALESS HILL TUNC. You know while you are taking. The formula is plathly printed on every foldie, dowing its simply Quintee and Iron in a tast-ess form. The Quintee drives on the melaria and the tran milds up the system, Sold by all feelers for 30 years. Price 50 cents.

Let amusement fill in the chinks of your life, not the great spaces theretired feeling so common in the spring or upon the return of warm weather. It purifies and enriches the blood.

Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolated tablets called Sarsatabs.

HARD LINES.

Grace-She married a widower?

Grace-No; when he's not talking about himself he's talking about his Hopelessly Outclassed.

Venice did you see the Bridge of "Mrs. Caswell, while you were in

"Oh, yes; I saw what they called that. But, my land, I've seen bridges

A Distinction.

"Jim may not be a successful man,"

"Perhaps," grunted the cynic, "but

If a dose of Hamlina Wizard Oil taken at night will prevent your having a had cold in the morning, icn't if a good idea (a have it ready to take the moment you feel the cold coming?

The sunset of your life will not be stream, for as you are stepping in,

-Heraclitus,

not of probabilities."

said the optimist, "but he's full of pos-

Edith-Is she happy?

first wife.

Stgha!

Schulte. ered. By the Giants, as usual. aim for two pennants this year.

First home run of the year for A "ragtime drop" has been discov New York fans are putting in a Japanese baseball players are more successful on American soil than in Vaughn of New York has fully retained everything that made him a The cheapest way of getting free

According to Larry, there is only one man in this wide world who can the present manager of the Minnesota

"Cantillon will let Waddell have a sue any orders, but will put it up to Rube entirely. I expect that the Rube will pull off a select series of his copyrighted stunts again this year, guarts of toes."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Lesser Evil.

Gresham college is 1719 was the scene of a famous serio-comic duel has tween two celebrated doctors, Dr. Mead and Dr. Woodward, both of whom were lecturers at the college. While walking down Bishopsgate street one morning they quarreled over some modical question and adsurned to the square of the college in fight it out with swords. Woodward fell, wounded in several places, whereupon Mead magnanimously said, "Take hy life." "Anything but your physic," hissed back the chagrined Woodward its he sweened away-London Chron-

Time Saving.

A new version of the new long familiar "while you wait" sign is found an aptown avenue where a barber shop and a tailoring shop stand side by side. In front of the building hangs a sign on which are displayed the name of the tailoring concern and the name of the barber shop and this anouncoment:

"Suits cleaned and pressed while you are getting shaved."-New York Sun

On the Level.

"Do you assimilate your food, Birnty ?" "No. I doesn't, sah. I buys it open an' honest, sah."-Woman's National hilly.

Get the Happy Mood-Post

Toasties

with cream for a breakfast starter produce it.

And there's a lot in starting the day right.

You're bound to hand happiness to someone as you go along, and the more you give the more you get.

Buy a package of Post Toasties and increase the happiness of the family!

"The Memory Lingers" POSTUM CEREAL CO., LM., Batrie Creek, Mich.

story of a team that didn't count at all killing the chances of a better club. "The same thing happened to us their own country.

again in the fall of 1906, when, after we had given the White Sox an awful beating on their own lot, phenom last season. going into the lead with only eight finished seventh that year, took three straight from us and won the flag for Fielder Jones. Last year, you will recall, Detroit in turn had the same sort of luck. When St Louis handed it a beating in an eight-game series, through which Jennings expect ed to go into the lead."

Tide of Battle by Joyous Cries and Groans of Fans.

A seasor, pass to a blind man that he may "hear" the Ohio State league baseball games at the Springfield, Ohio, park was the novel presentation that has been made by President Watkins of the club. The recipient of this favor is Professor Earl C. Houk, vocal director in the Wittenberg College Conservatory of Music. Professor Houk enjoys "hearing" ball games. By means of the umpires' calls on strikes and balls, the sound of the him. ball hitting the bat, the shouts of Joy player steals a base.

advertising seems to be to make presents to baseball players. Germany Schaefer is going to open a real estate office in Chicago when he gets through as a ball player. In order not to violate all precedent we should say something concerning the mortality among grandmothers. Baseball players must like the feel ing of being bought and sold before they have time to see their new own-

Rube Marquard seems to be doing his best to make good in his last chance and to prove he is not a Temon.'

"Doc" Gessler, the Washington out fielder, is showing better this spring than he has at any time since he joined that team.

Johnson, who is shortstopping for the Highlanders, seems to be a useful Christy Mathewson and Walter Johnperson. He fields everything nicely and can hit once in a while.

Heine Zimmerman s not worrying much about a few poor plays at the beginning of the season. He is getting them out of his system.

A report filed by the administrator of the late Dan McGann, who committed suicide, shows that the dead ball player left an estate valued at $35,000. Kid Elberfeld and Hal Chase, who were enemies when they were together on the Highlanders, have now made up and are boosting for each other. With a woman in charge of the St. Louis ball club the standard, ugly colors of uniforms may give way. Reger Bresnahan would look particularly well in cerise."

Those who fancy the ball players oppressed by the magnates do not consider that without iron-bound rules there would be no profitable professionalism in baseball.

Russell Ford, the crack young pitcher of the Highlanders, says that all he needs now to get into winning form is a few hot days. His arm feels better than usual this spring, he 88.78.

"Hughie Jennings is bothering about the hitting of his team," says a critic. The only American league manager who isn't worrying about this has a name of four letters and his nickname is "Connie."

Heine Zimmerman has been han dling everything which comes toward third in a manner which would indicate Chance has made good with his threat to make a ball player out of McIver, the young outfielder from or grouns of the crowd and with some San Antonio, whom Bresnahan has on the ineligible list, has been reinane to explain the intricate plays he picked up, is worth $300,000. He does stated, and all major league clubs follows the game with surprising ac. not have to play ball for a living, but have been notified that they will be curacy. He has to be told when a he would rather do it than live a life permitted to arrange exhibition games of ease at all." afraid your tour is doomed from the stuffed eggs, brown bread and cus start."

A Business Head.

ot a nickel, you do not place it in the little savings bank Santa Claus brought She was speechless with rage, and for you last Christmas."

"And I helieve, If I am not mis-

"Well, my boy, if you do not save

The front shoes must be heavier than around the corner, papa. Then I'll the hind and may be from 10 to 15 get all the pennics and nickels." Interesting Figures.

"Within ten years after that," the lecturer is saying as we enter the TWO PITCHING STARS MEET | hall, "the seas will be completely filled covered to a height of forty nine feet, | ence. so that only the tops of the tall trees. will be visible."

Christy Mathewson and Walter the person next to us.

"He is predicting what will happen the first time in Atlanta, and had a after everybody begins living and long talk. Each is a great admirer of traveling in air ships and throwing empty bottles, tin cans and old clothes Johnson asked Matty how he throws over the stern."

Watered,

he handles his best fooler. Johnson "How much rolling stock have said he believed he would try it. you?" asks the possible investor of "Go ahead, and good luck to you." the Yukon & Ypsilanti railway. said Matty, "If the fadeaway does you "Rolling stock ?" replies the promotas much good as it has done me you er. "We haven't got along that far will win a lot more games with all yet. We're busy handing out the floating stock just at present."

Would Heed the Warning.

"Hortensia," cautioned the mother. "If that young Mr. Lovum were to call on me as he does on you, and were to ask me to kiss him, as he does you. I should show him the door instantly."

"Yes, mamma," replied the dutiful daughter.

After the young man's next call the mother asked Hortensia:

"Did you follow my advice with regard to Mr. Lovum?"

"Yes, mamma. 1 told him you said if he asked you to kiss him you would show him the door."

"Ah, and what did he say to that?" "He said he wouldn't ask you to."

Peg's Day Off.

"Nothing today, Pegasus," said the poet, when his horse came to the door. ready for the matutinal flight."

Pegasus looked at him inquiringly. "I don't need you," the poet exclaimed. "All I've go to do is to write my annual parody on 'The Queen of the May."

mebur Stestit.

cold tongue, pork and beans, fresh "Then," sighs the manager, "I am | bread, cake, cookies, pie, potato salad, tard. The wife thought her husband would say: "You poor darling, how you have worked today!" Instead, he "My boy," says the thoughtful father, | said, in a surprised way: "COLD sup-"I notice that when you get a penny per! Lord, but you have an easy time!" His wife did not answer him.

THAT WAS THE LAST STRAW

Many Women There Are Who Will

Understand Just Why Long-Suffering "Worm" Turned.

Several years ago an Atchison couple were living happily together. The community was shocked one day when the wife applied for a divorce and got

It. The story of the divorce has come out. It seems that the wife went into the kitchen and "slaved" all day. She made bread, pies, cake, cockies and pork and beans. She boiled a tongue

When her husband came home at he does not know to this day why she

a BRUTE .- Atchison Globe. The Impossible.

Andrew Carnegie, at a recent din- ten times its size without ever going ner in New York, said of a certain out of Pennsylvania." labor trouble:

"It is silly of employers to pretend your money now, what do you expect in these troubles that they are always in the right. Employers are often "I am going to run a little store in the wrong; often unreasonable. (oribilitheat) They often-like Mrs. Smith-Jones-ask impossible things: "Mrs. Smith-Jones, taking a villa at Palm Beach, engaged for butler a stately old colored deacon. "'Now, Clay,' she said to the old fellow, there are two things I must and the surface of the earth will be | insist upon-truthfulness and obedi-

"'Yes, madam,' the venerable servbeautiful unless your home life was ant answered, 'and when yo' bids mepleasant during your day of work .--"What is he talking about?" we ask tell yo' guesis yo's out when yo's in, Colonel Hunter. which shall it be, madam?""

One Close Tip.

For COLDS and GRIP Hicks' CAPTOINT is the best remedy-re-leves the soling and feverisiness -cures the Cold and restores normal conditions. It's inguid-effects immediately icc., 25c., and 50c. "Your wandering life as an actor must cut you off from all ties." At drug stores. "Ah, madam, say not so. The rail road ties are ever with us." You cannot step twice into the same

The only proof against disappoint other, and yet other, waters flow on. ment is to expect the unexpected.

WOMAN'S ILLS Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanbood and from motherhood to old age-with backache, dizziness or headache. She becomes broken-down, sleepless, nervous, irritable and feels tired from morning to night. When pains and aches rack the womanly system at frequent intervals, ask your neighbor about

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, cask, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their havind to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult in confidence by letter free. Address World's Dispensary Medical Ass'n, R.V. Pierce, M. D., Pres't, Buffalo, N.Y. DR. PIERCE'S GERAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition-1000 pages, answers in Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of wrapping and mailing enly, in French cloth binding.

Shee for Trotting Horse.

cases in forming the trotting habit.

ounces, according to the size of the son Greet Each Other for First

Johnson, the pitching kings, met for his fadeaway hall, and the miant star took particular pains to show just how Matty learned a lesson from the American league kiug. Johnson has # way of his own of snapping the ball when he uses his fast one. He showed

There has been a lot of talk about a pitching duel between the two kings.

They had a good laugh when it was Dodges Baseball Squabbles.

Notice was served on all national agreement clubs by the national baseball commission the other day that hereafter the commission will not consider contentions over exhibition games between clubs of opposite major leagues, or between major and minor league clubs unless the arrangements for such games shall have been made by the respective presidents of the interested clubs or their certified agents. In case the agent of a club acts for it, its president must file with the commission a certificate

Player A. C. Coakley, who has been of his authority to represent it.

with clubs under his control

your speed and control."

Matty how he does it.

mentioned.

Time at Atlanta,

horse

the other.

to do when you grow up?"