Dress.
If a man prefers the kind of clothes he can jump into and wears another only under compulsion;
While a woman prefers such clothes as she cannot put on without toil and trouble and the expenditure of time, and will, unless under compulsion, wear nothing else;
Then what of permanent equality is it going to avail for the law to call the sexes back to the tape and start them all over again?—Puck.

A Heartless Father.
"I need some help with my household duties," announced a woman when her husband came home the other night.
"What's the matter with our daughter?" the husband wanted to know.
"Our daughter? The idea! Why, Jim, you know she's awfully delicate, and she would die if she had to do any household work. She has her school, and—"
"And what? Her teacher's report shows that she isn't doing a bit of school work."
"Put she is the star member of her basketball team, and you know she is eager to take the prize at the gymnasium contest. But that's just like a man—wanting a delicate girl to engage in rough, hard labor. Be ashamed of yourself, Jim Jenkins! You have no feeling."

First Aid.
George Ade, at a luncheon in Chicago, paid a gallant compliment to a well-known actress.
The actress wore a harem skirt of the new flame color and Mr. Ade said to her:
"It is pretty. And what an odd color it is! Tell me the name of the color."
"Flamme de Vesuve—flame of Vesuvius," the actress answered.
"He jehers," said Mr. Ade, "yo make a vurry pretty crater."

Intricate Letter.
When Atkins was away from home on a long business trip, he got a letter from his wife that still puzzles him. It ended thus:
"Baby is well and lots brighter than he used to be. Hoping you are the same. I remain, your loving wife."

WANTED TO SLEEP
Curious That a Tired Preacher Should Have Such Desire.

A minister speaks of the curious effect of Grape-Nuts food on him and how it has relieved him.
"You will doubtless understand how the suffering from indigestion with which I used to be troubled made my work an almost unendurable burden; and why it was that after my Sabbath duties had been performed, sleep was a stranger to my pillow till nearly daylight.
"I had to be very careful as to what I ate, and even with all my care I experienced poignant physical distress after meals, and my food never satisfied me.
"Since I began the use of Grape-Nuts the benefits I have derived from it are very definite. I no longer suffer from indigestion, and I began to improve from the time Grape-Nuts appeared on our table.
"I find that by eating a dish of this food after my Sabbath work is done, (and I always do so now) my nerves are quieted and rest and refreshing sleep are ensured me.
"I feel that I could not possibly do without Grape-Nuts food, now that I know its value. It is invariably on our table—we feel that we need it to make the meal complete and our children will eat Grape-Nuts when they cannot be persuaded to touch anything else." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Michigan.

LADY'S FOOT TINIER

Chicago Shoe Experts Decried New York's Charge.

Prettier, Smaller and Daintier Than Ever, Says Dealer in Reply to Dispatch From Gotham—Report Is Wild Exaggeration.

Chicago,—"Milady's foot growing larger?"
"Pooh! Pooh!"
"It's smaller and daintier than ever."
New York shoe experts declare that the foot of the American woman is growing larger every year, according to a dispatch received here the other day. When this information was told to Chicago shoe dealers they rose in indignant support of the foot of the Chicago woman.

"Chicago women's feet growing larger? Nonsense!" they cried. "They are as small, trim and dainty as ever. And the Chicago woman has always worn her shoe a bit larger than necessary, at that. More small sizes were sold in the city this year than for many years previous. If that shows anything it seems to show that feet are growing smaller and daintier, doesn't it?"
That quotation is the composite statement of several men who have been in the business for years. Inidentally the New York report says that the modern woman's athletic activity is causing the growth in size and sets forth that to deceive vain women it has become necessary to invent a marking code. A. F. Martin, manager of the Michigan avenue shop, was quick in defense of the Chicago woman.

"That report is a bit of wild exaggeration," said Mr. Martin. "In Chicago you will find as dainty and pretty feet as walk any part of the globe. The statement that they are growing larger is wrong. If there was that tendency I am sure I would feel it in the shop. But we have not had to vary our sizes. The cosmopolitan character of the city brings big feet, of course, with the small. This man only founded the vaudeville joke about Chicago feet. Woman may be more athletic, but it hasn't affected the size of her feet. Regarding that marking code, the majority of people who come into this shop buy shoes to fit their feet, not their notions. I'll wager most of them really don't know what size they wear."

D. F. Mellen, general manager of a State street shoe store, said: "Chicago women's feet growing larger? Why, for fact, we have been selling smaller sizes than ever. It has been the fashion in this city for years for women to wear a shoe larger than she needs. This year they have been wearing shoes shorter."
"Don't worry about the foot of the

CAR SIDETRACKED FOR BIRDS

Robins Stick to Their Nest on Moving Train and Win Out From Admiring Railroad Men.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Admiration for the gameness of a pair of robins sticking to their nest on a flying trip between Hamilton, Ont., and Buffalo has resulted in a car being taken out of the train and being sidetracked for their benefit until their young are ready to shift for themselves.
Patrolman Mooney the other day noticed the nest behind the top rung of a brake ladder on an empty car that came over the International bridge. When the train came to a standstill he clambered up to investigate. Before he reached the top of the ladder a pair of robins were fluttering around and making a great ado. There were four eggs in the nest.
Railroad men, who became as interested as the policeman, managed to find something wrong with the brakes and the car was placed on a dead siding, where it will be allowed to remain until the birds get through with it.

HARVARD UPROOTS ELMS

Cambridge, Mass.—Five of the historic elms in the Harvard college yard were being uprooted by workmen the other day. Other trees will have to come down in the course of the summer. After undergoing the ravages of the elm leaf beetle and the leopard moth, the trees have at last succumbed to an insect known as the bark borer. It is doubtful if any of the elms in the yard, many of which are nearly a century old, can be saved. The college has ordered 150 red oak saplings, which will be planted to replace the elms.

YEAR'S TEST FOR HENS

Spokane Man Arranging First American Egg Laying Congress—Entries From Several States.

Spokane, Wash.—Problems of content wide interest are to be solved at the first American egg laying congress in Spokane, beginning next November and continuing 12 months. It is free and open to the world. Plans are to have at least two entries of six chickens each from every state and territory in the union and province in Canada. Among other things, this information is sought:
Will 200 chickens support an average family?
What breeds are best for commercial eggs?
What is the actual cost of producing eggs?
What are the prime requisites of successful egg culture?
What state, province or territory produces the best layers?

John C. Lee, a former newspaper man, now a poultry rancher at Hill-yard, Wash., who originated the congress ideas, has submitted tentative plans to A. C. Ware, chairman of the poultry and game committee of the Spokane chamber of commerce, for formal discussion and action at the next monthly meeting of that body.
"This is not to be a competitive exposition for fancy breeds or feathers nor a money making scheme," Mr. Lee said, "but an educational affair in the best sense of the term. There will be no medals or cash prizes, though diplomas and ribbons may be awarded for the best producers. Primarily, we are seeking accurate information, which is not now available through the regular channels."
Present plans are to set aside a tract of land near Spokane and erect the necessary buildings for the care of the fowls. Experts will be placed in charge and a record kept of every pen, the money returns going to the owners. We believe we can accomplish good results here, as we have an even climate and none of the diseases common to the chicken family."

POKER NOT AMERICAN GAME
California Supreme Court Judge Makes Violent Attack on Alleged Non-American Pastime.
Los Angeles, Cal.—"Don't you call poker the great American game in this court," said Judge McCormick, of the superior court, yesterday. "America has too high ideals to have the paternity of a gambling game placed against its name. I will not allow this country to be maligned."
These remarks were called out by the reference of an attorney for a young man accused of giving a worthless check in payment for poker losses. The lawyer urged that the young man should not be convicted because he had been engaged in a national pastime.
Judge McCormick placed the youth on probation for three years, making him promise to eschew poker and all other forms of gambling.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands suffer from sick or weakened kidneys without knowing the cause. If you have backache, headache, urinary disorders, look to your kidneys—give the help the kidneys need. Mrs. E. C. Tillman, Franklin Pike, Lewisburg, Tenn., says: "My kidneys were in terrible shape and I suffered intensely. My back ached and I felt all worn out. I seemed to be running into dropsy and my weight dropped 35 pounds. For a year I was practically an invalid. From the time I started using Doan's Kidney Pills, I improved until completely cured. I believe I would be in my grave were it not for this wonderful medicine."
Remember the name—Doan's.
For sale by druggists and general storekeepers everywhere. Price 50c.

EXTENUATING.

Parson—Boys, don't you know that you shouldn't play ball on Sunday?
Jimmy—Oh! that's all right, Parson. We ain't playing; we're practicing for tomorrow's game.
Couldn't See the Resemblance. They have been joking. Assistant Treasurer James A. Mathews of the Guardian bank, on his resemblance to President Taft, and Mr. Mathews has steadily refused to be annoyed thereby. So the jokers subsided and the joke died a natural death.
Until the other night, when Mr. and Mrs. Mathews dined together with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harmon and their little daughter, when the Taft resemblance was revived. Turning to young Miss Harmon, Mr. Mathews asked "whether she, too, thought he looked like the president."
Dorothy studied long and earnestly. Then she answered: "Not in the face, Uncle Jim."—Cleveland Leader.
The Worth of the Voice. How wonderful is the human voice! It is indeed the organ of the soul; it is intellect of man sits enthroned visibly upon his forehead and in his eye, and the heart of man is written upon his countenance. But the soul reveals itself in the voice only; as God revealed himself to the prophet of old in the still, small voice, and in the voice from the burning bush. The soul of man is audible, not visible. A sound alone betrays the fowling of the eternal fountain, invisible to man.—Longfellow: Hyperion.

Historic Event Celebrated.
Australia recently commemorated the one hundred and forty-first anniversary of Captain Cook's first landing. It was in 1770 that H. M. S. Endeavor, a barque of 370 tons, entered the inlet first called Sting Rays Harbor, but afterwards Botany Bay, from the beauty and variety of the plants growing about its shore. The vessel remained eight days, and before she left the British flag was hoisted. As is the custom on each recurring anniversary, the flag was again unfurled upon the spot where it was first displayed, and was saluted by the guns of the warships in the harbor.
Showed Tact of King. It was the order of the day at a late shoot at Sandringham that ben pheasants should not be shot, and one of the guests brought down a hen which fell near King Edward's place in the line. Anxious not to hurt the offender's feelings by an over rebuke, the king pointed to the corpus delicti and said: "Ah, Gurney, what a man you are for the ladies!"—Life of Edward VII.

Housework Drudgery
Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.
This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures those weaknesses so peculiar to women. It strengthens the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.
Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head!
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cures liver ills.
