MURDERED IN NEBRASKA.

Man Cousin of John Mower; Woman, Cousin of Mrs. Fleming of Clear Ridge.

Denise A. McVitty, his wife and six-year-old daughter Nettie were shot and killed, and Sheriff Fuller fatally wounded on May 29th by Jim Feidler, as they lay in their beds early in the morning. Feidler was a farm hand who had been working for McVitty and after the wholesale murder of the McVitty family, he was pursued by Sheriff Fuller and in return shot back, wounding the Sheriff fatally with three bullets. Feidler then shot and killed himself.

It develops that Feidler had been drinking on Sunday the 28th. He entered the McVitty home at 3 o'clock a. m. May 29.

The dead as a result of this crime are Mr. and Mrs. McVitty, their daughter Nettie and Sheriff Cloud H. Fuller; James Feidler, aged 30, murderer and suicide. Those severely injured are John McVitty aged 16, skull fractured over left ear; Frank McVitty, aged 14, skull fractured: Condition critical. Robert McVitty, aged 8, skull fractured.

Those escaping injury Jessie McVitty aged 18, Fannie aged 12, Lillian and May McVitty twins.

The last shell in the murderer's revolver was used for himself, he putting the gun against his head and blowing his brains out as soon as he saw the Sheriff fall.

Denise A. McVitty was 44 years of age. He was a son of Samuel S. McVitty of Amberson Valley, his wife was Miss Linnie Campbell, also of the Valley, and had moved from there 11 years ago to Pawnee County, Nebraska. Their funeral was one of the largest ever attended in Pawnee county.

Water Analysis.

Analysis of samples of water from McConnellsburg under date of June 17, 1911, shows the following results:

Bacteria per c. c.	B. Coll per c. c.
Town Spring	2,000
Court House Well	480
Reservoir	10

Bacteria coli show the presence of privy sewerage in the water—germs that have come from the bowels of some human being. As to the number: The 187 per c. c. in the Town Spring means 2,688 of those germs in each tablespoonful of the water.

No; a germ is not as large as a fish-worm.

WELLS TANNERY.

Last Friday morning a valuable young horse belonging to V. D. Schenck was found sick, and in spite of the combined skill of the neighbors the horse died Friday evening.

In last week's items your scribe prophesied that wedding bells would be heard in Wells Tannery. Well, the prophesy was fulfilled Tuesday evening in great shape, when a large crowd with old saws, bells, shooting irons, and noise enough in general to have cracked the walls of Jericho, did the calthumpian act in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bivens who had been married on the 21st ult., by the Rev. James Logue. Mrs. Bivens' maiden name was Clark, and they were married at the home of the bride near Everett. Their many friends here wish them a happy voyage through life.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Trout's drug store.

A Peek Into His Pocket.

I would show the box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that E. S. Loper, a carpenter, of Marilla, N. Y., always carries. "I have never had a cut, wound, bruise, or sore it would not soon heal," he writes. Greatest healer of burns, boils, scalds, chapped hands and lips, fever sores, skin-eruptions, eczema, corns and piles. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

NEW GRENADA.

The mines at Robertsdale and Woodvale are running full-time—work never better.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith, of South Fork are visiting Frank Thomas's.

Samuel Stans had an unusual experience lately in which he almost lost a very valuable spring colt. In attempting to jump across a fence the colt came down squarely on the top of a sharp pointed post, that penetrated the abdomen of the colt and firmly impaled the pretty young animal. The colt had to remain in that perilous position until it was released by Howard Tice a farm hand who had to saw off the post. It was with difficulty, then, that the post could be pulled out of the colt.

The festival at Oak Grove last Saturday evening was an attraction for the young folks.

Samuel Alloway was at Saxton last Saturday night.

Prof. E. M. Gress and daughter, of Swissvale, Pa., were recent visitors in the home of Harry Gaster and family.

Jesse O. McClain is nursing a sore foot crushed by one of his horses stepping on it.

Many poor widows and orphans are now bemoaning the loss of their savings by the recent failure of a Huntington bank.

Our townsman Frank G. Mills celebrated his 66th birthday last week when a bunch of his friends assembled at his home rather unexpectedly. A delightful evening was spent and lots of cake, ice cream, &c. were devoured. Your scribe is not in a position to say just how cold the cream was, nor how sweet was the cake—but from hearsay, it was all right.

D. M. Cunningham, of Pittsburg, spent a few days among his old time friends here. The sport of fishing in Berkstresser's dam was especially attractive until—Well, it happened in this way: He was crossing the dam when he stepped on a slippery stone. "Kersplash!" One hundred and eighty pounds of that Pittsburger beneath the surf, and only air bubbles marked the place where he had gone down. Floating away were hat, fishing tackle, but, cigars, etc. No; he is not lying in the bottom of the dam yet; but when he crawled out, his clothes were damp, he had water in his ears, and he didn't feel good himself. When he got back to Flick's home, he was given the hand of the Good Samaritan, and he feels just as good as ever now, but no more fishin' for him.
