Let us not be so deceived, let us unmask the king as he passes.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

TEST YOUR OWN EYES

Follow These Directions Carefully
 Cut this advertisement out, pin it on the wall, in a good light on a level with the eye, then step back ten feet from the wall, hold a card in front of one eye, or close it, and with the other look at the four squares. To the normal eye the lines THE SQUARES APPEAR BLACKER THAN THE REST. If ANY ONE OR TWO OF THE squares appear lighter or darker than the rest, you have astigmatism, leading phlogiasis and neurologists believed to be the cause of chronic indigestion. IF YOU ARE ALREADY WEARING GLASSES and they are correct they will make the lines in all the squares look alike in blackness. IF NOT YOUR GLASSES ARE DOING MORE HARM THAN GOOD, AND SHOULD BE CHANGED AT ONCE.

A P E O R F D Z

At the same distance this line of letters should be read clearly with either eye, or both eyes. If not, YOUR VISION IS BAD—YOU NEED CORRECT GLASSES. Glasses are a greater necessity every day because of the increased tax that modern civilization places upon our eyes. Small newspaper type, music lessons, long school lessons, the machine work, close application at clerical work days at a time, to say nothing of moving picture shows, reading in street cars, etc. If you are mis-using the ONLY EYES YOU WILL EVER HAVE you had better see us at once before they become worse. People under 25 years of age may be helped by glasses. BEYOND that age they may be always helped by glasses.

BRING YOUR CHILDREN. NO DROPS USED. EXAMINATION FREE. No charge to straighten and adjust your glasses.

Recipes for Happiness.
 In a German collection of wit and humor, dated 1644, there is a homely passage which says: "Would'st thou be happy for a day, get shaved; for a week, go to a wedding; for a month, get a fine saddle horse; for six months, build a fine house for thyself; for a whole year, marry a beautiful woman; for two years, inherit a rich uncle; but if thou would'st be happy for all thy life—be temperate. All of which is a parable, and not to be taken literally. The happiness often fails with every one of them."

Escaped With His Life.
 "Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes, H. B. Martin, Port Harrison, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Trout's drug store.
