Bonaire, and that is the kind of millionaire that is entitled to honor. His All idea is that it is good for a man to save, for economy is a healthy habit, says the Ohio State Journal. As a rule men can live on half they spend, have better health, and can do more work. Let a man sit down and make a list of what he needs, not scantily but bountifully, and he will be surprised how many things he can cut out and yet keep body and mind in fine condition. There are many things that one buys that are the objects of his fancy. He sees them and wants them; if he didn't see them he wouldn't want them. We once heard of a man who would not go to market. because he said, he wanted to buy everything, and succeeded in buying much he did not need. It is possible to live well on meals that average only 10 cents per capita. In a school on the west side they do it, and that little club of teachers are hearty and happy as robins in a cherry tree. We must get out of the idea that great chunks of heavy food are required for energy. As a rule they reduce it.

The bureau of animal industry has devised what appears to a be a breakfast food for horses, with the purpose to reduce the high cost of their living. This substitute for oats is composed of cocoanut and peanut meals and it can be produced for $15 less a ton have been 58 to 32. than whole oats cost. It appears that the horses experimented with did not take eagerly to the new ration at first; quite as human beings used to find their breakfast foods cloggy until a taste was expressly cultivated. The horses had to get the habit without the encouragement which a liberal application of cream and sugar affords the bipeds. In due time, however, the animals recovered their form on the novel diet. The ration must be unquestionably justified, nevertheless. before it can be commended to those who truly love a horse. It is not the animal's fault that oats have become a luxury. Human beings have been induced to eat its natural fodder in enormous quantities and that is the TERSOIL.

A German expedition which went to German East Africa to search for dinosaurian remains reports the discovery of bones larger than any heretofore exhumed in other parts of the world. One specimen which has been secured is a humerus 6 feet 1034 inches in length. This would indicate a thigh bone of nine feet. Heretofore the diplodoccus has been considered the great-granddaddy of colossal land mnimals of all times. But the length of the humerus of the diplodocccus was only three feet eleven inches. It is very safe to say of the prehistoric geological ages that "there were giants In those days."

FARMS DOUELE IN VALUE

Remarkable Increase Shown by Census Bureau Report.

Washington .- Of marked interest, because of many statements made during the Canadian reciprocity debate, was the Census Bureau's announcement of the intest general farm statistics of the United States, showing that land in farms more than doubled in value during the past 10 years, having increased $15,-252,788,000, or 118 per cent. In 1900 they were valued at $13,051,-033,000, and returns of the thirteenth census show they are now worth $28,383,821,000. Farm lands, farm buildings and Congressional committee which is investigating the affairs of the so-called trust. He could not remember whether it was the first or the second Harrison campaign.

Mr. Parsons frankly boasted that he was "the pioneer in the formation of the American trust," and was proud of it, but scouted the idea that the Sugar Trust constituted a monopoly such as the Standard Oil or American Tobacco Companies.

The committee spent the afternoon this vicinity, and held informal conferences with many superintendents, but took no testimony.

Mr. Parsons opposed a Federal incorporation law for local corporations, although he said such a law ice corporations. He opposed the officers and obtain the secrets of a corporation.

"I strongly condemn the modern theory of publicity of corporation affairs," he said. "It is unjust to the American citizen that he should be compelled to make his private affairs public."

In reply to questions by Mr. Sulzer, Mr. Parsons repudiated the many statements which have been made Dillingham, Vermont; Sutherland, that H. O. Havemeyer was the one power in the sugar trust and that the board of directors did as he bade.

FEDERAL CONTROL

A PLAN TO CONTROL PRICES.

Attorney General Declares That a Government Commission Should Regulate All industrial Corpor_tions.

Dulutn .- Attorney General Wickersham, before the Minnesota State Bar Association here, took an advanced stand on the further Federal regulation of corporations and declared that a government commission to regulate great industrial organizations in the same way that the Interstate Commerce Commission regulate railways, was certainly most desirable and that it might be absolutely necessary, Mr. Wickersham's speech was little short of sensational in many of its features. Ho declared that it was a matter of sevious consideration whether it would be practical to give to the proposed interstate corporation commission the power to fix prices. To do this in theory would simply require an extension of the principle by which the Interstate Commerce Commission controls the rates on railroads.
