If you knew of the real value of Chamberlain's Liniment for lame back, soreness of the muscles, sprains and rheumatic pains, you would never wish to be without it. For sale by all dealers.

Jonathan P. Peck who has been the tenant on the Mrs. Johnston farm near Knobsville during the past five years, has purchased a farm near St. Thomas in Franklin county and will move upon it next spring.

A nasty mistake occurred in "Taxpayer's" article 6th line, third paragraph, last week when friend or fiends, was made to read friend or friends. Such mistakes are annoying to the editor as well as to "Taxpayer."

The Rockhill Sunday school is having its annual picnic next Saturday and the members extend a cordial invitation to all who feel interested in the welfare of the school to be present and contribute to the day's enjoyment.

Running up and down stairs, sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

Loosening of soil by explosion of dynamite, to admit of moisture and facilitates tree planting, was used with success recently in an orchard down in Virginia. The same experiment will be made on the Patterson farm 1 mile south of McConnellsburg, beginning at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, September 21. At that time tree planting will follow the explosion demonstration.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

Imagine a tract of land containing five thousand vines, each of which is expected to bear at least two cantaloupes, or ten thousand in all, and you will get an idea of the size of the patch cultivated by F. C. Crider, the main grower of Saint Thomas, Franklin county. Not only are the "lopes" turning out well in quantity, says the Peoples Register, but they are beyond the standard in quality, the melons having a ready sale in Chambersburg, and will return the grower a handsome profit for the expense and labor incurred.

Foster Reunion.

The Second Annual Foster Reunion was held September 1, 1911, at Washington Park near Coaldale, Bedford County, Pa., at which there was a good attendance, many Fosters from different parts of the country having come to meet their friends and relatives; yet, there was quite a number of relatives in the near vicinity who were not present, and who are invited to be there next year. The day was fine. Many games were played by the young people, while the older ones enjoyed themselves in various ways. At noon all were invited into the Hall of the W. I. U. A. M. where the ladies had prepared a feast such as would gladden the hearts of both young and old. After dinner a business meeting was held for the purpose of electing officers for the next reunion the meeting was called to order by John E. Shuke, Esq., Pres., and the following were elected, Pres., John E. Shuke, Esq., Secty., James G. Foster; Treas., John E. Shuke. The following committee of arrangements was appointed by the President, John H. Martin, Chas. W. Zimmerman, C. C. Foster, J. C. Foster, Sr., and J. C. Foster, Jr., after which it was decided to hold the next reunion on the last Thursday in August, 1912, at Washington Park near Coaldale being the same grounds at which time and place all relatives are invited to attend and have a good time. The Fosters were among the first to settle in the Broad Top region and have a large following and while nearly 200 were present on September 1st we would like to see many more; so we hope you will not forget the date and join us for a good time.

JOHN E. SHUKE, Esq., Pres.

He Looped Forty Snakes.

Rush S. Dittman, the South Main street grocer and egg dealer, made quite a record for himself this season in the matter of catching snakes. With his family Mr. Dittman occupies a summer home near Caledonia park and during his spare moments makes incursions into the mountain. On one of these early in the season he decided he would see how many different varieties of snakes he could catch. As August closed he found he had thirty-five or forty snake hides. These were taken from green grass snakes, black racers (one a six footer), blowing vipers, milkers, garters, black diamonds, copper heads, rattle snakes, black snake with yellow ring around neck and others. Mr. Dittman caught the snakes by the loop method. Only a few turned on him but he escaped harm and in nearly every instance secured his snakeship. He this week exhibited a rattler four feet six inches long having 11 rattles. Mr. Dittman has not sold any of the skins, but has given away a number to friends.—Chambersburg Register.

Children's services, which were postponed, will be held at the Brethren Church in Belfast township, next Sunday.

Keep Them in School.

As a rule, the more intelligent a man is the better chance he has of achieving material success in the world. The place for him to develop and secure that intelligence is in the public schools. Every boy and girl ought to be given a fair chance in the great struggle for existence in a relentless world which awaits their coming from the homes and schools. From the days of Adam it always has been and always will be a survival of the fittest. The world shows no favors. It generally measures every one for what they are. How important then it is that your boy and your girl have a fair chance. If you are a reasonable parent, you want them to do well. Then keep them in school from the opening to the closing days.

An Alarm of Fire.

Saturday night about 11 o'clock an alarm of fire was given and in a short time it was located at the home of Groceryman R. S. Patterson, on Big Spring avenue. Mr. Patterson had not returned home from his store, and Mrs. Patterson, just before retiring, detected something burning. Up on investigation she located the fire in the coal house, which joins the main dwelling in the rear, among some rubbish used for kindling. An alarm was immediately sent in, and the fire boys responded promptly, but by the time they arrived the fire was subdued by the prompt use of a garden hose attached to the hydrant. No serious damage was done. The origin of the fire is a mystery.—Newville News.

Amy Clevenger of this place visited in the homes of her uncles, Daniel Ott at Thomastown, and William Ott at Back Run, from Sunday until Friday of last week, and had a nice time.

A Great Fruit Show For Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania will take her proper place in the eyes of the people of Pittsburgh in regard to the production of fine fruit when the show of the State Horticultural Association of Pennsylvania takes place January 15-20, 1912, in Duquesne Garden, in connection with the shows and conventions of the Pennsylvania Live Stock Breeders' Association, and the Pennsylvania Dairy Union.

"Pennsylvania to the front" is the motto of the show. Its object is the development of agriculture in Pennsylvania by showing that as fine fruit and other farm products can be grown here as anywhere in the world.

Several exhibits of car load lots have been procured already and the outlook shows several more entries in this class. Aside from car-load classes, there will be competitive exhibits in barrel and box lots, and also in plates of five apples each.

The largest apples in the State will be on hand and the finest pears. Nuts of all kinds, chestnuts, walnuts and shell barks, will swell the show. Erie County, the great grape belt, will have an exhibit. The market gardeners and greenhouse vegetable growers of the State will show their products.

As the purpose of these exhibits is entirely educational, the management has opened the entry privilege to all fruit growers residing in Pennsylvania and has eliminated all entry fees. On all exhibits that are solely for show purposes and which shall not be sold by the exhibitor, the freight and storage will be paid by the Fair Association. All that is required of the grower is that he ship packages of fruit well packed to T. D. Harman, Jr., c-o Union Storage Company Second and Liberty Avenues, Pittsburgh, Pa.

All Varieties Subject to Hessian Fly.

The inquiry is made by a farmer from Indiana county, as to whether certain varieties of wheat are free from the attack of the Hessian fly. Prof. Surface gives it as his opinion that not much dependence must be placed on the selection of varieties of wheat to control this pest.

"You can get no better information in the country concerning seed wheat and different varieties of wheat, than you can obtain by writing to Dr. Thomas F. Hunt, Director of our State Experiment Station, State College, Pa. They have made particularly valuable experiments there on the subjects of varieties of wheat. They have not made special tests in freedom from Hessian fly, but I can assure you that there is not the difference in varieties of wheat in this regard, that is generally supposed. I would suggest that you write to Dr. Hunt for any information needed along this line, as there is no specialist with this office who is doing such work."
