CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Mrs. Craig Beatty made a trip to Leechburg last week.

The father who keeps telling his boy he will never amount to anything shouldn't be surprised if he didn't.

Mrs. George W. Sipes, Mrs. Morgan Barton, and Mrs. Nathaniel Mellott, were interested callers at the News office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Karper and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Croft, of Chambersburg spent the time from last Saturday until Wednesday visiting among their Fulton County friends.

J. Ross Nail, of Duncansville, Pa., and his brother Fred of Hunt jagdon county, drove down to McConnellsburg yesterday morning from the latter's home, and have been meeting a lot of their old Fulton county friends.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barmond, of Harrisburg came to this county Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. Charles Fore, which occurred at Knobsville yesterday morning. Mrs. Fore was a sister of Mrs. Wagner and of Mr. Barmond.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz. Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

After having spent seven weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hockensmith in Johnstown, Pa., during which time she was taking treatment from an Eye Specialist, Mrs. Thomas McClure has returned to her home in Licking Creek township. Mrs. McClure's friends will be glad to learn that she received much benefit from the treatment, and is very much encouraged.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Hon. George A. Smith, and Robert Campbell, of Rogersville, Tenn., are spending this week in this county: Prior to the time when Mr. Smith removed to Tennessee about forty years ago, he was a school teacher, the leading lawyer at the Fulton county bar, was County Superintendent of Fulton county, and served as a representative of the county in the legislature. After getting about everything in Fulton that was worth having, he went to Tennessee where he has been getting quite as much as the other fellow when the dividends have been declared.

Samuel Carmack Dead.
A telephone message from Clear Ridge, yesterday said that Samuel Carmack, an aged and highly respected citizen was dead and that the funeral would be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Card Of Thanks.
I should feel ungrateful indeed, if I did not in some way express my gratitude to the friends who supported me at the primaries last Saturday and made it possible for me to secure the nomination for County Commissioner. I tried to conduct my campaign with fairness toward my fellow candidates. Had it been my lot to have been a loser in the race, I should not have quarreled with the judgment of my fellow citizens. Should I be fortunate enough to win the election in November, I shall do the best I know to prove that I am not a "misfit."

ROBERT R. HANN.

WILLIAM DESHONG DEAD.

Gunshot Wound Mentioned Last Week Developed Septicemia, and Death Occurred Monday Night.

The News last week told of the accident that befell Mr. William Deshong of Licking Creek township while hunting the cows. While the wound was painful, and his ankle and heel were badly shattered, there was nothing to excite serious apprehension until a few days after then blood poisoning developed, and from that moment Mr. Deshong suffered in intense agony until death came to his relief Monday night about 11 o'clock.

The deceased was aged about 42 years, and is survived by his wife, who was Martha, a daughter of the late Rev. Absalom Mellott, and by three bright children. He was a consistent member of the German Baptist church, and an excellent citizen. His funeral took place yesterday, and interment was made in the cemetery at the German Baptist Church on Pleasant Ridge.

MRS. J. CHARLES FORE

After a lingering illness of tuberculosis of the lungs, Elizabeth Bermond Fore, wife of J. Charles Fore, of Tod township, died at her home at Knobsville last Sunday night, aged 41 years, 9 months, and 10 days.

The funeral took place yesterday and interment was made in the cemetery at Knobsville.

Mrs. Fore, while conscious of the terrible malady of which she was a victim, bore her affliction with true christian fortitude, and showed that she possessed that peace and resignation that is borne only of a loving trust in the Savior of mankind.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five children, Merrill, Boyd Anna, Perry, and an infant daughter; also by three brothers John and Will, near Chambersburg, and Peter, in Harrisburg and three sisters, Anna, wife of W. H. Wagner, Harrisburg; Margaret, wife of Jacob W. Mellott, and Ella, wife of George Rivens—both of McConnellsburg.

MORTON.

Peter Kenneth, aged about 11 weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morton, died at their home at Petersburg, Pa., on Tuesday night of this week. The young parents have the sympathy of their many friends in this trying hour.

Local Institute.

The first local institute of Dublin township was held at Battle Ridge school house Friday evening, September 22. The following questions were very well discussed: 1, schoolroom freedom. 2, To what extent do you combine History and Geography? How taught? 3, What course do you pursue with pupils to secure home study?

Teachers present from Dublin were Blanche O. Peck, Dotte Dishong, Robt. Cromer, John Woodcock, S. W. Cline and L. P. Morton; from Taylor—Myrtle Stevens, Grant Wink and Harper Barton; from Todd—Zena Brant, Pearl Gress, Jno. Kelso and Amos Peightel. Supt. Lamberson was present and gave some very interesting talks on the subjects. There were some very good recitations rendered by the school which speaks well for both teacher and pupils.—Dotte Deshong, Secretary.

A very interesting local institute was held at Waterfall last Friday evening. Mr. Ranck president of the Institute Committee, took charge of the meeting. Questions discussed were: 1, Classroom Management. 2, How do you teach your chart class? 3, The dull child.

The following teachers were present: Ruth Strait, William Ranck, Russell Gracey, Dallas Brant, Ward Berkstresser, Harper Barton and Myrtle Stevens from Taylor; Levi P. Morton from Dublin; and Miss Helen Watkin and Dean Berkstresser from Huntington county. Three directors were present, namely, Geo. Heefner, Howard Barnett and William Laidig.

Much credit is due Miss Strait for the literary part of the programme. Next institute will be held at Cherry Grove, Oct. 20th.—Myrtle Stevens, Secretary.

CLEAR RIDGE.

Some of our people are Court visitors this week.

Last week the Mechanics Band erected a stage in the Clear Ridge association building for the purpose of giving plays during the coming winter.

Harvey Carmack is helping J. D. Stevens with his fall work.

We hear there is to be a festival in the Grove Saturday evening.

Rush S. Henry is receiving instructions in music by C. R. Shore.

Jack Frost has not visited us. Glen Miller and David Fleming were business visitors at Fort Littleton last Friday.

Those who had intended seed early were prevented by the rains.

Mrs. Patterson Kerlin is spending this week with her daughter Blanche, (Mrs. Bert Henry).

David Bowman who has lately returned to Burnt Cabins from a trip through the western states—being within two hundred miles of the Pacific Coast.—Was here Friday transacting business. He has much of interest to tell, and is highly pleased with the West.

Arthur Kerlin who is employed in the Cove, while attending the nomination at Fort Littleton Friday came to this place and called on friends during the evening.

Mayme B. Fields spent the past week with James Stevens and wife of Fort Littleton.

We are sorry to learn that our aged friend Samuel Carmack is not so well.

Our plasterer Gilson Kerlin has finished plastering for Harry Mort, and is now plastering the addition which Bert Winegardner has added to his house.

The funeral of Asa Stevens who resided with his son J. Bart occurred last Tuesday.

Dora Baker spent Wednesday with Mrs. Jess Bloom.

Reba Leader of Mt. Carmel, was a recent guest of her Grand-mrs. Martha Wible.

John Carmack, Jr., was a guest on Sunday at Pat Kerlin's.

There are two times in a man's life, when he works against his own interests. One is when he is eating his own seed potatoes, the other, when he slanders the school teacher in front of his own children. If you get hungry for potatoes and eat the seed, don't for the sake of the rising generation be guilty of the second offense.

Mrs. H. T. Heeter who is blind is in feeble health.

Clarence Shore the Band instructor of this place accompanied by L. H. Grove went down to Knobsville Friday evening where Clarence was giving the Band instructions.

We had quite a rain on Sunday afternoon which will be a delay to the seeding.

Russell and Graco Kerlin and Zelpha Fleming spent Saturday with Leon Stevens Fort Littleton.

EMMAVILLE.

C. W. Stanley of Amaranth made a business trip to our Valley last week.

A. R. Crum our new miller is well liked by the people of our community.

Jeson Hanks, while returning home from one of his nightly tours last Wednesday night, missed the road and when he came to himself was in the midst of the Emmaville dam hallowing like a panther. The good people of our Village succeeded in rescuing him and he went on his road rejoicing although wet to the skin.

The Institute held at Locust Grove school last Friday evening was well attended by the teachers who were all present but two. The teachers extend a hearty welcome to the patrons, and hope to see more of them present at these educational meetings.

Sherman Deshong and sisters Ethel and Lillie were visiting friends in our Valley last Saturday and Sunday.

Gives Aid to Strikers.

Sometimes liver, kidneys and bowels seem to go on a strike and refuse to work right. Then you need those pleasant little strike-breakers—Dr. King's New Life Pills—to give them natural aid and gently compel proper action. Excellent health soon follows. Try them. 25c at Trout's drug store.

OCTOBER COURT.

potatoes for Mrs. Ella Truax who lives about 200 yards from Lockard's house. Lockard was 42 yards from Foster when he fired the first time at him, a number of shots striking Foster—one lodged in his pocketbook in his left pants pocket. He did not see Lockard that day except at the time he fired the first shot at Foster. Did not see Lockard aim the gun. Foster was carried home from Mrs. Truax's and was confined to his bed about ten days. About 16 shots hit Foster.

In his testimony, Mr. Foster continued: "There has been trouble between Lockard and myself for some five or six years. I never entertained any grudge against Lockard. Lockard lived in a house alone. He began to hallow at me several years ago. I do not know what he had against me."

Mrs. Ella Truax sworn. I have been living in Wells township about one-fourth mile from Cal Foster's. July 12th last Foster came to plough my potatoes. The potato patch is between my house and Lockard's. I do not know who fired the first shot. I did not hear any conversation before the first shot. After Foster finished ploughing, I saw Mr. Lockard and heard his voice. Lockard did not say anything after he had fired the first shot.

Cross Ex. I watched Foster going toward Lockard's. It was after he had taken the plow out and unhitched the horse, that Foster said to Lockard, "I will be along there soon," and Foster went down the road. I saw Lockard fire the shots.

A. A. Stevens affirmed. I have lived in Wells township about 33 years. About one eighth mile from Mrs. Truax's. I saw Mr. Foster. My attention was attracted by loud talking. The loud talking was done by Foster and Lockard. The first words that I understood were spoken by Lockard. I saw Foster go towards Lockard's house. I heard the two shots fired and they were within a half minute of each other. About an hour before sundown that evening I examined the bridge. It has railing extending 10 or 12 feet from the bridge. There were about forty shots in the rails. Foster stayed at Mrs. Truax's about 2 1/2 hours, then we carried him to his home and put him to bed.

Dr. R. B. Campbell sworn. I was called and examined Mr. Foster. Found 16 shot marks. Was with him about two hours after he was taken home I attended him for about 14 days after he was shot, and kept him in bed ten days. There was no puncture of the bowels. I considered his case serious until the end of the eighth day.

The Commonwealth closed its case at 4:30 o'clock, when the Court told the jury there could not be a conviction on the first count, "intent to murder," and the defendant entered a plea of guilty on the second count, "Agravated assault and battery."

Is The World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble" she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at Trout's drug store.
