Sheriff Harris Arrested Him at the Home of His Parents Monday Afternoon.

PRISONER WAS CONCEALED IN BED.

Whether or not the roasting that Sheriff Harris got in court last week as a result of his not keeping Russell Sipes in Jail last July when Sipes was in his custo dy, and afterwards permitting him to escape when he had the prisoner the second time, the Sheriff did get busy Monday morning, and "pefore the golden orb of day had sunk behind the western horizon" Russell Sipes was back in his old quarters (?) the murderer's cell in the county

According to the Sheriff's own story, he "felt it in his bones' that Russell was not far away, and on Monday morning he made a visit to the home of Russell's parents. When he came away from that home, he felt sure that he could land his prisoner. Accordingly, he went to Justice of the Peace Robinson and secured search warrants to enter and search the premises of James Sipes, Russell's grandfather; that of Mrs. Daisy Pittman, the prisoner's aunt, and that of Frank B.
