CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Fine apples are selling on our streets at 40 cents per bushel.

James W. Rummel of this place is in Gettysburg this week, in the interest of the Lutheran congregations of this charge.

C. J. Brewer, of Ayr township, is attending the State Sabbath school Convention at New Castle, Pa., as a delegate from Fulton county.

Mrs. M. V. Cromer spent last week in Franklin county, visited friends and relatives in Mercersburg and Chambersburg, and expects to take in the Hagerstown Fair, this week.

On October 4th at the residence of the bride, by Esquire Hann of Licking Creek township Mr. Foster L. Strat of Belfast township and Miss Bertha A. Deshong of Licking Creek township were united in marriage.

Mrs. Minnie Buckley, of Shelby, Iowa and her brother Samuel Mayne, wife and little son of Altoona, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mayne at Fort Littleton. They spent Tuesday in McConnellsburg.

Many of the farmers who attended court last week report the season so backward that they have been unable to finish their plowing and unable to get their seeding done for several days. The recent rains is the cause of the delay.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Weisel, Verona Boulevard, Pittsburgh. Mrs. Weisel will be better remembered by her Fulton County friends as Miss Pearl Garland. Both mother and child are doing well.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz, Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

The editor's family will enjoy some good pumpkin pies this winter through the generosity of Mrs. David Forner, of south First street, who presented to them a fine specimen of the "goose neck" variety of the Sugar pumpkin. This pumpkin measures 55 inches from stem to blossom end, and would be nearly as long as a rail were it not for the fact that when it had grown out to the length of nearly two feet, it ran up against something and was obliged to turn and grow backward toward the other end of the lot. When the frost came and it had to quit growing for the season, it was just back where it started, and it looks much like a capital letter "U."

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disordered of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

FULL WEEK'S COURT.

Sheriff Harris Found Guilty of Negligently Permitting Prisoner's Escape. Sentence Withheld to January.

LOCKARD GOES TO PENITENTIARY.

The case of Sheriff Jefferson Harris, charged (1) with voluntarily permitting Russell Sipes to escape, and (2) negligently permitting him to escape, was taken up Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and it occupied the time of the Court from then until after tea the next day to agree upon a jury.

The defendant was represented by Jno. P. Sipes, S. W. Kirk, of McConnellsburg, and by Charlie Walters, of the Chambersburg bar. District Attorney Lynch was assisted by special counsel, O. C. Bowers, of Chambersburg, in behalf of the Commonwealth. The trial was fiercely contested, and it was half past ten o'clock, Friday morning when the Court finished his charge and sent the jury out to find a verdict. After several hours deliberation, they returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, namely, negligence in permitting the prisoner to escape.

The penalty for this offence is a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year. At three o'clock, Saturday afternoon, the Court announced that sentence would be withheld until January term. The Court gave as his reason for doing this, that the Sheriff would be able to complete his term of office, and prevent the necessity of having the Governor appoint a successor for the short time he would have to serve.

Perhaps never in the history of the County has a case attracted so much attention locally; the feeling of the citizens of McConnellsburg were keyed to a high tension, and the disposition made of the case by the Court may have been righteous but it was anything but popular. The fact that the Sheriff has since placed the prisoner in jail, will alleviate the feeling of the community very much.

For the shooting of Constable Foster, of Wells township, W. H. Lockard was sentenced to the Western penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years, and not less than nine months.

END.

William and O. Cessna, of Rausburg, stopped with relatives as they passed through Enid for the first of the week.

LAUREL RIDGE.

George Lynch and wife and daughter Helen spent last Tuesday in McConnellsburg.

Preaching at Laurel Ridge was well attended.

Among those that spent last Saturday at Jacob Gordon's were Rev. Dotterman, George Lynch, Rachel Gordon and Jessie Mellot. Bruce Weller and Jeanette Stouteagle were pleasant visitors at B. F. Shives' last Sunday.

A subscription paper is now being passed around for an organ in the new church.

Jacob Douglas and wife spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Jacob Clouser and wife.

Our farmers are not through seeding yet.

We have been having plenty of rain during the past two weeks.

Among our people who attended preaching at Mt. Zion Sunday were: B. F. Shives and wife, William Eagle, Mrs. Robert Mellott, Quay Mellott and Jessie Mellott. The most of them reported having heard a fine sermon.

Owing to the amount of buckwheat our farmers' have raised, we surely can eat plenty of buckwheat cakes this winter.

Sunday School next Sunday at 9 o'clock, and preaching services at 10:30 o'clock.

John Gordon butchered a fine porker Monday.

James Waltz and sister Esther spent Sunday at N. H. Evan's.

Jessie Mellott and brother Willard spent Friday afternoon visiting the school.

Flora Shives spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

Our boys on the ridge are kept very busy gathering chestnuts which seem to be plentiful.

We wonder what has happened our friends that they don't attend Sunday School. Come, friends, and see the good we are doing. Don't say, "Oh! I'll go next Sunday." That day may never come.

GRACEY.

Oct. 6.—The people of our vicinity are expecting their friend Jack Frost soon.

Our farmers are busy husking corn.

The attendance at the primary last Saturday was large.

The institute at No. 3 school last Friday evening was fairly good.

Our school is getting along nicely under the care Myrtle Stevens.

Mrs. Jacob Winyard and daughter Mrs. G. C. Fields of Clear Ridge visited at S. S. Straits last Sabbath.

Alice Cutchall has returned home after having visited friends and relatives in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Alice Horton and three children of Johnstown are visiting friends and relatives here.

W. G. Wink is getting along nicely with his school.

Gives Aid to Strikers.

Sometimes liver, kidneys and bowels seem to go on a strike and refuse to work right. Then you need those pleasant little strike-breakers—Dr. King's New Life Pills—to give them natural aid and gently compel proper action. Excellent health soon follows. Try them. 25c at Trout's drug store.

Johnson's Cider Mill.

The undersigned will make cider at his flouring mill in Thompson township, the following days of each week—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Cider boiled for merchant's use. First-class whiskey barrels for sale.

JAMES JOHNSON.

Silver Wedding.

The home of W. H. Williams and wife near Akersville was the place of enjoyable pleasure for a number of their friends October 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams having been married 25 years on this day, decided to celebrate the event by inviting a number of their friends to come and spend the day with them. Of course, it is understood that dinner was on the program, and at the noon hour a great feast of good things was found on the dining room table, it having been prepared by their daughter Miss Essie and her assistants. The "champion eater" was the "groom" of the day W. H. Williams.

A number of beautiful presents were received; also, a neat sum of money.

The departure of the gathering was preceded by an address by the "Bride" of the day Mrs. W. H. Williams, and with a prayer and songs. All wished the bride and groom a "Golden Wedding Day."

Those present were: W. H. Williams, wife, and daughters Lena and Ora; A. W. Duval, wife and daughter Myra and son Percy; J. N. Hixson, wife and sons Renford and Mark; T. H. Akers, wife, and niece Daisy and nephew Simon Barton; L. A. Duval and wife; O. A. Barton and wife; T. H. Walters and wife; Mrs. Mary E. Akers, Mrs. Maria B. Jackson, Miss Essie Williams and N. B. Hixson.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes, "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at Trout's drug store.

NEEDMORE.

Oct. 6.—The health of the people in our community is fairly good, and the farmers are busy seeding.

J. W. Powers, our village blacksmith, has completed his new shop 16x46 feet, and is now ready to do shoeing and general repair work.

Rev. Z. J. Powers and wife and little son of Lansville, W. Va., and Miss Katie Cosner sister of Mrs. Powers are here for a two weeks' visit among their friends.

Claud Mellott is able to be out again.

The good friends of Needmore cut all of one field of corn for Mrs. W. F. Hart one night last week.

Rev. A. G. B. Powers, preached the funeral of Lemuel V. Gordon, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Gordon at Antioch.
