TO DISPLAY OUR NAVAL STRENGTH

Atlantic and Pacific Fleets to Mobilize.

126 WARSHIPS IN REVIEW

The Vessels, Which Will Have a Combined Tonnage Of 693,844, Will Assemble At New York and Los Angeles.

Washington.—The mobilization of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets at New York and Los Angeles October 29 to November 2 will mark the gathering of the greatest naval force that ever floated in the waters of this hemisphere.

The Navy Department just made public the full list of the vessels to be assembled for the great reviews at New York and Los Angeles, and while the number combined does not equal the 126 vessels reviewed by the German Emperor at Kiel last summer, the 126 American ships, with their tremendous displacement of 693,844 tons, are really more powerful than the German fleet.

Second Greatest Display. The Atlantic fleet will comprise 102 vessels of all classes, with a total displacement of 577,599 tons, and the Pacific fleet, 24 vessels of 116,245 tons.

France assembled 24 battleships and 10 armored cruisers at the Toulon review last summer, but the fleet was much weaker than America's will be in other ships, as the total French display included only 82 ships.

TAFT DIGS WITH GOLDEN SPADE

Breaks Ground For Panama Exposition.

OVER 100,000 CHEER HIM

Never-to-be-Forbidden Scenes In the Golden Gate Park—All San Francisco In a Delirium Of Excitement.

San Francisco.—More than 100,000 people massed in the Golden Gate Stadium Saturday to see President Taft turn the shovel of earth that broke the ground for the site of the Panama-Pacific Exposition of 1915.

At 10 o'clock the President began his parade from the city. Every military post for miles along the Pacific Coast had been ransacked for its troops and its bands and every battleship of the Pacific fleet near San Francisco supplied a quota of its crew for the parade.

When the President appeared at the stadium four bands from all the corners of the grounds struck up Hall to the Chief. Before the President was seen the crowd had caught the meaning of the tune, and when Mr. Taft stepped onto the platform the hillside before him presented a scene upon a day of exceptional festivity, and a word set them cheering.

Madame Nordica, who sang at the ground-breaking exercises, rode in an automobile just behind the President. When she appeared upon the stand the people showed their holiday spirit by the ovation they gave her.

By the time the President arose to speak the enthusiasm was at fever heat. It was a hard task that he had before him when he began to tell them of the enormous task of construction the Panama Canal really was.

When the President finished speaking the Golden spade with which he was to turn the earth was handed him. He walked down from the platform to the hillside and with his smile at its broadest set his substantial foot upon the spade.

He gave a shove and the spade sank into the ground. He lifted the shovel full of earth before the crowd and they took up their cheering with renewed vigor.
