THINK THIS OVER.

This Offer Should Gain the Confidence of the Most Skeptical.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless, and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle, and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping, or other inconvenience. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can get them in McConeilsburg only at our store. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.

Bad Fire at Mapleton.

On Thanksgiving afternoon, William Wharton and his wife left their home in Mapleton, Pa., to visit some friends, leaving the house in care of their children. A couple of the smaller ones playing in the front room with some matches set fire to the lace curtains. The blinds were quickly ablaze, as also was the carpet, and in almost an instant, the fire was beyond control of the older children. It spread from the Wharton home to other property, and before it was entirely checked, two residences, a barn, and part of a railroad trestle had been destroyed, the total loss amounting to over seven thousand dollars.

Saved His Wife's Life.

"My wife would have been in her grave to-day," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, its the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, la-grippe, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Just for Good Luck.

We received a letter a few days ago from Mr. James G. Patterson, a former McConeilsburg boy, but now a prosperous citizen of New Wilmington, Pa., in which he says: "Enclosed please find check for two dollars, which place to my credit on Fulton County News. My subscription is not quite out, but I thought I would push it ahead two years just for good luck."

When we examined his label, we found that he was paid up to April 1, 1912. Now his label reads, April 1, 1914.

NEEDMORE.

Rev. A. G. B. Powers butchered two porkers that tipped the beam to the tune of 360 pounds each, from which he got 16 gallons of lard. Now, if any of you preachers can beat that, speak up.

Mr. Abraham Iman of near Petersburg, W. Va., is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. G. B. Powers. He tells an interesting story of the finding of a 44 caliber Winchester rifle in the mountains of his state, which had evidently been lost for many years as all of the walnut stock was decayed with the exception of the breech, on which were found the initials, "M. H." Mr. Iman bought the gun from the finders for fifty cents, and upon examination, found that the magazine contained two shells, the powder of which was dry. The barrel contained one shell which he could not remove with his fingers, and he laid it on the porch with the muzzle pointed toward a hill about 100 yards distant. He then put his foot on the barrel, placed a nail on the primer, and with a hammer gave it a tap, when it was exploded as nicely as though the shell had not been in there a week, and the ball was buried in the hill. It seems strange that a hunter should lose his gun and not lose himself; but a punt flask found near the gun indicated that when the flask got empty the hunter got full.

Auction.

S. B. Deshong will have an auction at N. S. Strait's on Saturday, December 9th. This will be the last one, and the closing out sale for the season. The auction will begin at 10 o'clock a. m., sharp, when terms will be made known.

A Terrible Blunder

to neglect liver trouble. Never do it. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills on the first sign of constipation, biliousness or inactive bowels and prevent virulent indigestion, jaundice or gall stones. They regulate liver, stomach and bowels and build up your health. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.

A Suggestion To Parents

In addition to toys or other articles, this Christmas, give your children a bank account. This will mean more for them than the mere amount of money you place to their credit. It will stimulate them to save and thus form a useful habit. Special presentation cards and envelopes are supplied for bank books. $1.00 starts an account.
