The editor acknowledges the receipt of a bag of shellbarks from Estaline Pittman, daughter of Edgar and Dessie Fohner Pittman who reside about three miles east of Mercersburg. For size and quality, they beat any shellbarks we have ever seen. The largest measures 4 1/2 inches around and it is not much larger than most of the others, and the kernels are fat and meaty in proportion. Estaline is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Fohner, of this place.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.
