Do not forget that the State Game Commission offers to pay for feed given to quail during the period when these little fellows cannot find sufficient food. Have your claims properly vouched for and send to the Commission at Harrisburg. For all it costs, almost any one can, however, afford to feed those on his own place in return for the insects they destroy. We know of some hunters who feed quail in places where hunting is permitted.

The new $1,000,000 hotel in New York that covers an entire block, is twenty-six stories high and has 1,000 rooms each with a bath is the latest and biggest thing in that city of large hotels. The next thing will be to reverse the arrangement of "rooms with baths," they will become "baths with room." We have rapidly outgrown the era of the old gentleman from somewhere-or-other who took a bath every month whether he needed it or not.

Amos Seville went to Cumberland county on Tuesday before Christmas where he spent a week very pleasantly, we have no doubt. Amos, if you don't look a little out, those real estate men over there will "get" you. Why not start another herd of those big, black cattle here, and help spread the gospel of scientific farming in old Fulton? We need you, right here, to show the rising generation how—we haven't enough teachers to go 'round.

Buseck--Walters.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walters of Round Knob on Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, when their daughter Miss Lottie became the bride of Mr. Raymond Buseck, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buseck, of Round Knob. The beautiful ring ceremony of the M. E. Church was used. Rev. W. W. Willard, of Riddlesburg, officiated. The bride wore a beautiful gown of silk chiffon draped over satin messaline—the drapery being held in place by Rhinestone buckles. Satin pumps, also, had Rhinestone buckles. A full-length veil and wreath of orange blossoms completed a costume of rare beauty. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Rees looked very sweet in a charming gown of cream serge and old rose messaline. Mr. Frank H. Barton was best man. Misses Ethel Foor and Elsie May, of Saxton, wore gowns of pink silk and embroidered voile. The young people are well liked and have the best wishes of their numerous friends. After a few days visiting among friends and relatives, they will reside at Finleyville.

In addition to a large number of guests from the immediate vicinity, there were present Mr. Frank Walters, of Pittsburgh, a great-uncle of the bride; Mr. W. H. Walters, grandfather of the bride, Crystal Springs; Haslet Walters, Walter Hartle, Lawrence McGee, F. H. Barton, Elmer Connor, Clarence Figard, and Rev. W. W. Willard.

The bride and groom were the recipients of a lot of beautiful gifts.

Some Common Birds.

Parents—or any one—could not do anything better to please the children, or themselves, than to drop a postal to Washington, D. C., and ask for the book on birds, it is free for the asking. The booklet contains the pictures of nearly all the birds we see on the farm and in the woods, and gives their habits and what they eat, how they help to save the crops from insects, and is well worth a place in your library shelves. Write as follows: Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Please send me Farmers' bulletin No. 54, on birds. (Your name) ..... (Address) .....

New Parcel Post Rates.

On January 1, 1914, the weight limit on parcels mailable within the first and second zones is increased from 20 to 50 pounds, while for greater distance the increase is from 11 to 20 pounds, but 11 pounds continue to be the limit in mails to foreign lands. Rates to the third, fourth, fifth and sixth zones are reduced.

After March 16, 1914, books weighing more than eight ounces may be sent at parcel post rates. This will be good news to lovers of good reading.

Editor NEWS, and the NEWS family—to all a happy New Year, is my wish.

Being a constant reader of the NEWS, I see many items of interest, some of which I wish to mention and comment upon. The shocking act of Frank P. Brewer leads one to wonder what might be the motive for such a man, in seemingly pleasant circumstances, to commit suicide.

The bitter war now being waged against the granting of liquor licenses leads me to say that my position as postmaster at this place affords an opportunity for me to make an estimate of the amount of money sent away by private individuals for booze. Money goes away in sums of from $2.50 to $19.00, and yet, there seems to be no move made to stop the manufacturer's wheels. We know men are robbing their families of necessities in order to keep the booze jug full.

Mr. Lauder's suggestion that the State take over the schools, and levy a 3-mill tax for their support, to start on, sounds very well—but where will it stop? I was a member of the Taylor township school board when the first appropriation gun was fired, and the 1-mill tax we then had, gave us as good teachers as we now have under an 8-mill tax. My idea of the movement is that it is a fake. I would like to hear from my old schoolmate, Webster Baker, and others, on this subject. They are able writers and should give us their views.

Wm. L. Berkstresser.

PIANOS, PLAYER PIANOS, ORGANS and VICTROLAS.

Pianos are like shoes—some makes good, some bad. They all look alike to the unsophisticated, and here's where the "peddler" gets in his work. He's here today with the piano; To-morrow he's away. You have the piano, he has your money.

I have been doing business with the people of Fulton county for ten years. I own real estate and pay tax. I am here to make good if the instrument I sell you is not satisfactory in every respect.

The following well known people have purchased Player Pianos and Pianos from me. Ask any of them about me before you buy from any one else.

Racket Store's Latest Announcement

In our last advertisement, one of the things mentioned, was our line of Guns. Well, we sold some. We sold more guns this season than ever before. Do you ask why? Just because we had the right guns, and sold them at the right price; and, we can still sell you the Parker, the Fox, the Remington Pump, or the Winchester 32-20 Rifle at $12.00, 22-caliber Rifles $1.25 to $12.00.

SHOES SHOES

This is our great line. We have a large stock of Shoes and Rubbers, and at almost the old prices. We buy about all these goods direct from the Factory, and this is one reason why we can make you such attractive prices. Child's shoes at 10 cents to 98 cents; Misses 90 cents to $1.48; Boys' 98 cents to $2.45; Women's from $1.25 to $3.75; Men's $1.48 to $4.00. If you are looking for a Ladies' Shoe, do not buy anything but a Boston Favorite, Lady Dainty, or Queen Quality; and in Men's buy Endicott, Johnston, or Walkover.

Seasonable Underwear.

Don't fail to see our great line of underwear. We have underwear for children 1 to 15 years of age at 10 to 30 cents. Boys' Union or separate underwear, 50 cents a suit; Ladies' 24 to 48; Men's 25 to 45. We sell High Rock Men's Underwear 18-oz. at 45 cents each. See our Misses union suits 23 to 50 cents a suit.

BED BLANKETS 50, 75, 98, $1.30, $1.75 to $4.98

We have just added to our line a fine stock of ALUMINUM WARE. It is the pure stuff and mighty nice.

We have just received a CARLOAD OF AMERICAN WIRE FENCE that we will sell Cheaper than Last Year. 20 to 40 cents a rod.
