President Wilson and some of his cabinet no doubt seem odd to a certain class of big, daily newspapers; but after a year's study of the reason, we find it is because they practice old fashioned religion in the performance of public duties. Winking at wrongs by public men is not popular with our president.

Radium, about which we read so much, is a rare metal, very useful in the cure of certain skin diseases, notably cancer. If a pound of it could be collected, its value would probably be $50,000,000. Less than an ounce has this far been extracted, in all the world. Wonder if we could find some in the Meadow Grounds?

Mrs. Anna Troutman, aged about 70 years, widow of Jacob Troutman, was killed on the Huntington and Broadtop railroad near Hopewell on Tuesday morning of last week. Mrs. Troutman who was very deaf, was walking along a narrow path at the end of the ties, and there was such a sharp curve that the engineer could not see her. She lived only ten minutes after the train struck her.

Goldfish could be raised by the thousand in any back yard in this place. Two or more small ponds dug deep to prevent freezing solid, are necessary. The eggs must be removed as fast as laid, to prevent large fish from eating them. The eggs are deposited by the fish, on moss placed for that purpose. Moss and the adhering eggs are then removed to another pond where they hatch.

Has No Money.

Shortly after the heavy fall of snow in this county during the holidays, Mr. Merrill W. Nace wrote to the Secretary of Game Commission asking what financial support might be expected for the feeding and care of helpless quail and other wild birds, in addition to the vast amount of voluntary work now being done by farmers and sportsmen in the County. In reply Mr. Nace received the following letter:

"In reply to your letter just received I would say I realize exactly conditions in your county; I know what deep snows mean, but am absolutely helpless in the matter. While because of the Resident Hunter's Licence law large sums of money are accumulating in the State Treasury, that are to be used for game and wild bird protection, not one cent of this money is available at this time, and I am absolutely without funds. I am sorry I cannot be of service to you.

JOSEPH KALBFUS.

Query:—This money not being "available", has it, like cheese, to be "ripened" somewhere?

Postponed Sale.

D. S. Stouffer's closing out sale, of Buggies, Wagons, Sleighs Surreys, Blacksmith Tools, etc., which was to have taken place at Mercersburg last Saturday was postponed to Saturday, January 31st, at 1 o'clock p. m., when it will be held regardless of the weather.

The United States Department of Agriculture, earnestly request that the presence of hog cholera in any locality, be promptly reported, and that prompt action be taken to secure a supply of anti-hog-cholera serum, in order to stamp out the disease before it becomes epidemic. According to Act No. 109 of the last General Assembly, the formation of county associations of supervisors and other persons officially charged with the construction and maintenance of the public roads and streets, is there by authorized; such associations to hold annual, or semi annual conventions at the county-seats of the respective counties, or at some other suitable place within the county; that each township supervisor attending such convention shall receive the sum of two dollar per day—not to exceed two days in each year—and three cents per mile for traveling expenses.

A Good Price.

Do you know that breakfast foods or at least some kinds of them are an expensive diet? Puff wheat, put up in nice paste board boxes contain six ounces each and retails at from 9 to 10 cents a box. Those figures are innocent-looking, but not so when you do a little "figuring." Six ounces are three-eighths of a pound. If 3-8 of a pound costs 9 cents, a pound would cost 24 cents and as there are 60 pounds in a bushel of wheat the retail price of an entire bushel would be $14.40 cents. Would you call that an inexpensive diet. What the showing is on other breakfast foods can be determined in the same way. One thing is quite certain—wheat at $14.40 cents a bushel is about fourteen times the price that farmers get for what they have to sell.

HAVE IT REPAIRED!

In every family are chairs, bureaus, tables, stands, lounges and other kinds of furniture that would be just as good as new, if they were placed in the hands of a practical mechanic; and the cost would not be much when compared with the value. Old furniture can be made to look like new; in fact, just now, old furniture polished and fixed up is more valuable than when first made. It may not be generally known that
