Big Week.

March 8th to 15th will be the big week of Sabbath School work in this county. We are in the era of great things for Sabbath Schools. The Forward Movement is by leaps and bounds. Goals—The Advanced Standard for the County, the Front Line for every school and district. A wall chart of the Front Line conditions will be sent to every school in the near future.

To get the Big Week properly started the Superintendents are requested to begin now to drill the teams which will make the Every Person Canvass for the school. By the end of that week, every person in Fulton county who does not belong to a school, should have been interviewed by the team of a school and asked to enroll somewhere. From time to time the newspapers of the county will print accounts of the Forward Movement. For further information, address the Secretary, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply.

How to Live Long.

Do you want to live to be a hundred? Then get married. That is the advice of the Japanese newspaper, "Jiji Shimpo." Of course there are other rules you must follow, but according to the "Jiji Shimpo" getting married is the most important of them all. These are a few of the rules recommended by the Japanese which will help you to live to be a hundred.

Get married. If you are a bachelor, get married at once. If you are a widower, get married as soon as you can.

Sleep for seven hours in a dark room with the windows open wide.

Get to sleep as early as possible in the evening. Rise early, too.

Bathe frequently. One or two baths each day is none too many. Never neglect to take at least one bath each day.

Spend as much time in the open air as you can, whether eating, sleeping or resting. Breathe deeply while in the air.

Eat moderately. Drink moderately. Drink no coffee nor alcohol. Do not smoke.

Eat little when the weather is warm. Eat little meat and never more than once each day.

Take frequent periods of rest and devote one whole day each week to rest and to the recuperation of the body.

Do not show anger or sorrow or great joy. Control all emotions and do not let emotions show in the face. Avoid too much work and thinking.

Exercise frequently and wear sensible clothing.

John Martz, of Dublin township, was in town a few hours Monday. In addition to being a hustling young farmer, John is doing a good thing for himself, and a better thing for his neighbors, by burning lime. He is opening, to-day, a kiln of some 1,800 bushels, which will go to the first callers at 12 cents a bushel. Just as soon as this kiln is out, another will be burned. As a rule, farmers find they can buy lime at the kiln cheaper than they can haul the green stone and burn it at home.

Rev. A. R. Garland closed a protracted meeting at Antioch recently which resulted in 43 conversions. Thirty nine of these persons united with the Antioch church, two, with Oakley, and two, with Damascus.

The Fairview Cornet Band will hold an oyster supper in the P. O. S. of A. Hall at Needmore on Saturday evening, February 7th. Turn out, get a mess of good oysters, and help the boys along.

Mrs. E. L. Daniels has returned to her home at Sipes Mills after having spent five weeks with her daughter, Mrs. P. P. Mann, of this place.

Little Miss Elena Mellott, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. O. Mellott of Salvia, called to see the parrot yesterday.

Lemuel Hill, Belfast township, is still in a serious condition.

Farmers Should Use Rain Gauge.

Daniel N. Kern, of Allentown, lecturer for the State Board of Agriculture, who has kept careful records, reports that the rainfall in that city, last year was 40 inches or 7 inches more than in 1912.

"Up-to-date farmers should have a rain gauge," he says, "Some will ask why and what for, others say what is a rain gauge? Any vessel six inches or twelve inches square, about four inches high, will do. The sides should be square up and be set on a post-level and in an open place. After each rain measure the water exactly. When after a dry spell it is too dry to plow sod-ground and rain comes the farmer probably tries to plow, but soon finds out that the water has not gone deep enough.

"If he had a rain gauge he could have seen how much water to soak through dry sod ground. A farmer can soon learn how much water it takes to soak through his soil.

"Farmers should plow early in March for oats, and harrow their land as fast as they plow it to keep the moisture in their soil. When they plow and let it lie the moisture will evaporate very fast.

"By frequent tillage many farmers could double their potato and corn crops. Oats soaked in salt water and sown the last week in March, or the first week in April, should yield about 75 bushels per acre. If a heavy rain comes you should run a smoothing harrow over the whole field to break the crust as soon as it has dried off a little. By this simple process you can prevent the evaporation of many tons of water and give the young plants a good start. Seed oats that are soaked in salt water will produce straw about six inches longer than oats sown dry. It will prevent smut."

"Birds of a Feather.

A number of Fulton County people now residing in Akron, O. were entertained last Sunday a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Neal, in that city. When luncheon was announced and all had been seated in the dining hall, it was noticed that eight of the number were Pennsylvanians—all from Fulton county, except Mr. Neal who is a native of Williamsport, Pa. The others were Miss Goldie Mason and Miss Grace Lodge, of McConnellsburg; Miss Bessie Willett, of Wells Valley; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cunningham, of New Grenada; Mrs. Neal, who will be better remembered by her Fulton county friends as Maude Cunningham, and Master George Neal.

It was a most delightful occasion—more like an old-fashioned revival, or "quilting party". Music—vocal and instrumental, galore—was a feature most enjoyable. Mrs. Neal and Goldie Mason held the piano down while Mr. Neal and "Flick" cranked the victrola. Saturday evening, Misses Alma and Edna Melain called at the same home. "Birds of a feather flock together."

Goldie Mason, Grace Lodge, and Bessie Willett are teachers in the public schools in that city.

Billions Invested in Farm Animals.

The annual livestock report of the Orange Judd Farmer showed a farm wealth in this form of property that break all records. The increase in value in twelve months was placed at $443,750,000, while the total value of all classes of farm animals reached $5,596,024,000. Of this total horses furnished $2,185,555,000; mules $529,339,000 and milch cows $1,032,960,000. By way of comparison the total value represented fifty per cent more than the total money in circulation in this country and was almost equal to all deposits in the 7,400 national banks in existence.

The numbers of meat producing animals, however, showed a decrease, beef cattle recording a falling off in numbers of 1,762,000 head or five per cent; hogs a decrease of 4,982,000 or seven per cent. Milch cows showed no material change, while horses increased steadily in number. The decrease in numbers caused a heavy increase in average value per head, milch cows advancing 21 per cent; other cattle 18 per cent, hogs 17 per cent, sheep 8 per cent.

FOR CONGRESS.

JAMES M. YEAGER.

James M. Yeager, of Lewistown, announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Seventeenth District.

The Mexican Question.

The Mexican situation is one of the most perplexing questions any president of the United States has been called to consider. The Huerta forces are steadily losing ground, and any one of the possible victors is said to be little or no better than a savage bandit. It is said by those in position to know, that it would cost this country $100 to protect one dollar of American or foreign capital endangered in Mexico; and, in addition, many lives; and yet, this country is expected to guard foreign interests in this country, and opposition newspapers would have us believe that the president and his advisers are dallying with Mexico. We sometimes think that it would be the very height of consistency for the president to draft a huge army from among the worst of his maligners, and send them down there to fight the half civilized hordes of bandits. It would be a good object lesson. For generation after generation, Mexico has practiced revolution and bloodshed, and no administration has had the stamina to undertake to teach that country that it lives in an age of civilization until Mr. Wilson determined that the government of that country may as well be made to understand that the balance of the world is tired of it. It will be time enough when the Huerta administration falls for this country to seize the ports of entry, in case his successor proves no better than the rulers that country has had.

Mrs. Lavina Brewer, of Belfast township, is seriously ill.
