WASHINGTON BELLES IN "RADIUM DANCE"

UNCLE SAM'S GREAT NAVY SCHOOL OPENED

The biggest school in the world has just been opened and the scholars have taken to their studies as a fish takes to water. Aboard every ship in Uncle Sam's navy there is now a fully equipped school room, and to the great pleasure of Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, originator of the plan, there hasn't been a hitch so far. Every enlisted man and every officer is compelled to attend the classes. The photograph shows the academic department on the U. S. S. Washington.

AMERICANS FLEEING FROM MANZANILLO

President Wilson's action in lifting the embargo on arms caused a general exodus of Americans from many places in Mexico. Our photograph shows American refugees and their baggage on a tender of the United States army transport Buford fleeing from Mazatlan.

COUNTESS DE BOURTIER

Countess de Bourtier, wife of the military attaché to the French embassy at Washington, is one of the recent arrivals in the national capital and attracts much attention by wearing the latest creations of the Parisian modistes.

Modern Tommy Tuckers.

The door in one of the most popular restaurants in Boston slowly opened at noon while half a hundred diners were eating and a small voice piped: "Any single?" "No," replied a waitress, and the owner of the voice, a boy of eleven years, walked down the street to another restaurant.

It is becoming a regular practice by boys to sing for the diners for a little loose change. One boy told me that he made $3 in one night recently singing in restaurants.

MME. CONSTANTIN DUMBA

This photograph of Mme. Dumba, wife of the new ambassador from Austria, is the first she has had taken since her arrival in Washington. It was taken in her rooms at the embassy.

GIRL JUMPS FROM WILLIAMSBURG BRIDGE

Despite the efforts of the police to prevent her, Constance Bennett jumped from the Williamsburg bridge, New York, the other day and with the aid of a parachute floated safely down into the icy waters of the East river. Rodman Law, known as the "Human Fly," jumped after her and rescued her from the entangling folds of the parachute, as shown in our photograph.

What She Wanted.
"I suppose," said the new suitor, "that you want a suit that will make you look attractive to your husband?" "Attractive to my husband!" echoed the shopper. "I should say not. He wouldn't know if I wore a suit ten years old. What I want is something that will make my next-door neighbor turn a pale pink green with envy."

CRUST COVERED BOY'S HEAD

Bolton, Ga.—"My little boy's head was covered with a hard thick crust which cracked with the least pressure causing a discharge of bloody corruption which was so offensive that I could hardly hold him. He was very cross. Some called it milk crust, another running tetter and another eczema.

"After trying several patent medicines I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using the sample I purchased some Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment three days I was able to remove all the crust and in one week he was entirely cured. Cuticura Soap and Ointment also cured my baby of an ulcerated sore behind her ear and now we think we cannot keep house without them." (Signed) Mrs. Charles Poss, Nov. 5, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Ad.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad. I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until I made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.
