

Pictures of World Events for News Readers

In This Department Our Readers in Fulton County and Elsewhere May journey Around the World With the Camera on the Trail of History Making Happenings.

GETTING MONSTER LINER READY FOR SEA

At Clydebank, Scotland, the steamship Aquetania, largest of the Cunarders, is being prepared for sea, having been launched last April. She is a ship within a ship, having absolutely water-tight inner and outer shells. Her dimensions show that she will be one of the largest ships afloat. She is 901 feet long, 97 feet wide, 92 1/2 feet deep to the boat deck. Her gross tonnage is 47,000 tons. She will have a speed of 23 knots an hour, and accommodations for 3,520 passengers and a crew of almost 1,000.

WORLD'S BIGGEST GUN FOR PANAMA CANAL

This, the largest gun in the world, has been made to defend the Pacific entrance to the Panama canal. It has a 16-inch bore, weighs 130 tons and throws a projectile weighing 2,400 pounds. The weapon will be mounted on a disappearing carriage on one of the small islands off the mouth of the canal.

SAKURASHIMA VOLCANO IN ACTION

Photographs of the terrible volcanic disaster in Japan have just reached this country. The one here reproduced shows the volcano Sakurashima in action, pouring forth the ashes and lava that devastated towns and country.

MAYOR GAYNOR'S YOUNG DAUGHTER WEDS

Marion Gaynor, the sixteen-year-old daughter of the late Mayor of New York, was married the other day in Trinity church to Ralph Heywood Isham, son of a well-known family. The young bride is fond of athletics and is renowned for her skill in handling horses and automobiles.

DANCER IN SUFFRAGE PLAY

Miss Edie Baker, daughter of Dr. Frank Baker of Washington, and noted for her graceful dancing, is to be a feature in the suffrage play to be given by the women of the Congressional Union for Suffrage at Washington. Miss Baker is to give her solo dance of "triumphant joy" as a curtain raiser.

They All Do.

An enthusiastic citizen, on the verge of a trip to Europe, was rejoicing over the fact and despatching on the pleasures to come:
 "How delightful it will be," said he to his wife, "to tread the bounding billow and inhale the invigorating oxygen of the sea! The sea! The boundless sea! I long to see it! To breathe in great draughts of life-giving air. I shall want to stand every moment of the voyage on the prow of the steamer with my mouth open—"
 "You probably will, dear," interrupted his wife, encouragingly, "that's the way all ocean travelers do."

C. H. MACKAY, JUST DIVORCED, AND HIS CHILDREN

FIRST WARSHIP AT THE NEW COLON DOCKS

To the battleship Minnesota belongs the distinction of being the first warship to tie up at the new government docks at Colon. The photograph shows the coaling of the Minnesota at the dock preparatory to her sailing from the canal zone with 600 marines for duty in Mexican waters.

IN MEMORY OF THE MAINE'S DEAD

SENATOR ROOT'S NOBEL PEACE MEDAL

Obverse and reverse sides of the Nobel peace medal which has just been received by Senator Elihu Root of New York. He was awarded the prize for his work in connection with the movement for international peace. Besides the gold medal the prize carried with it a cash bonus of $40,000.

Woman's High Position.
 Dr. Catherine B. Davis, just appointed by Mayor Mitchel of New York as correction commissioner at a salary of $7,500 a year, received her doctor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1900 for work in the department of political economy. This is thought to be the most responsible position ever given to a woman in administrative work in this country outside of the field of education.

WALKING AROUND THE WORLD

Joseph Frank Mikulec, an Austrian from Croatia, since October, 1901, has been walking over the world. Now he is in Washington, where he walked from New York to get the autograph of President Wilson. On January 16, 1911, he completed his first circuit of the globe and started on a second tour. He has walked through 48 of the United States, through all European countries, South Africa, South America and Asia. On his return to his home he will receive 250,000 crowns from an Austrian newspaper.

Famous Revolutionary Soldier.

One hundred years ago William Heath, a distinguished soldier of the Revolution, died in Roxbury, Mass., in which place he was born in 1737. General Heath was a student of military science and in 1770 he commanded the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of Boston. At the battle of Lexington he was the only general officer on the field. On the organization of the Continental army he was commissioned brigadier general and a year later was made major general. He was ordered to New York and after the disaster at White Plains commanded the defenses of the Highlands. He had charge of Burgoyne and his army at Cambridge, Mass., where they were held as prisoners of war for nearly a year. In 1779, after Arnold's treason, General Heath commanded the posts of the Hudson river at West Point, and several times he was in temporary command of the entire American army.

Horses and Cards.
 "Why is it you always win at poker?" she asked, "and always lose when you back horses?" "Well, my dear," came the genial response, "I don't shuffle the horses."—London Express.

Presence of Mind.
 A tramp called at Mr. Cobb's house one morning.
 "I've walked many miles to see you, sir," he said, "because people told me you were very kind to poor, unfortunate fellows like me."
 "Indeed!" said the old gentleman. "And are you going back the same way?"
 "Yes, sir," was the answer.
 "Well," said Mr. Cobb, "just contradict that rumor as you go, will you? Good morning."—Lippincott's.

Tact.
 A miner got killed, and a tactful associate was delegated to break the news to the widow.
 So the tactful fellow called at her house and said:
 "With your golden hair, blue eyes, and pink-and-white complexion, ma'am, you'd break every heart in town if you wore widow's weeds."
 The young woman laughed and blushed for pleasure.
 "Oh, go on," said she.
 "And you are a widow, too," said the tactful miner quickly, seizing his chance. "Bill's legs and arms was just blown off in an explosion. But, by Jimminy, ma'am, ain't you goin' to look good in black, though?"

Speaking Of Lunch
