Local Woman Now A Big Advertiser.

When one of our women customers recently bought five bottles of Harmony Hair Beautifier to give to her friends for Christmas, she started all by herself a mighty big advertising campaign because not only does each one of the women to whom she gave a bottle of the Beautifier now consider it indispensable for the proper care of the hair, but each of them has been the means of getting several of her friends to use it. As a consequence, if things keep on in this way for a few months longer, we will be selling more of it than of all other hair preparations combined. Sprinkle a little Harmony Hair Beautifier on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rex-all Stores, and in this town only by us.

WEST DUBLIN.

Some of our young people have been attending church at Green Hill last week.

Frank and Lloyd Price and George King came home Saturday evening from Kearney and returned to Kearney on Sunday afternoon.

David Hershey visited his brother-in-law O. B. Dunlap in Franklin county, last week and attended Mr. Dunlap's sale while there.

James Barnett and wife of Wells Tannery visited relatives in Taylor last Saturday.

William Heefner and Mrs. Marie Doran spent Sunday at Fort Littleton.

Clarence Hoover of Dane visited the family of his mother Mrs. Eliza Hoover on Friday of last week.

James E. Lyon has had some lumber sawed recently. The lumber will be shipped over the Reichey Railroad from the top of Sideling Hill.

G. W. Foreman and family of Wells Valley spent Sunday with relatives in Taylor.

Some of our folks are troubled with bad colds,—a result in part of the wintry weather.

Hayes Strait of Hustontown will saw the lumber for a barn on Chester Brant's farm the work of sawing to begin as soon as the weather is warmed.

Mrs. Daniel Laidig, and Mrs. Alton Price and son Gerald, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Hoover one day last week.

Entertainment.

There will be an Entertainment in the Hall at Clear Ridge, Saturday evening, March 7th.

Doors open at 7 o'clock. By order of COMMITTEE.

AFTER PASSING YEARS.

McConnellsburg Testimony Remains Unshaken.

It is the best test of truth. Here is a McConnellsburg story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

John P. Conrad, deputy postmaster, Main St., McConnellsburg, Pa., says: "For about a year I had terrible pains across my back and I didn't sleep well at night. I was very nervous, and when I got up in the morning I was more tired than when I went to bed. Finally I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, and as others similarly troubled had been benefited by them, I gave them a trial. They helped me immediately. Before long my back was free from pain."

LASTING RELIEF.

On December 10, 1913, Mr. Conrad said: "I haven't needed any remedy for backache or kidney trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I know the cure is a permanent one. You can use my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills as long as you wish."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Conrad had. Foster Milburn Co., Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y.

BURNT CABINS.

Judging from the blizzards we are getting, some one must have left the door open up at the North pole.

John Cree, who drives stage from Shade Gap to Fannettsburg was unable to make the trip on Monday on account of drifted roads, and the mail from McConnellsburg did not get in, hence Burnt Cabins did not receive any mail on Monday.

The sick of this community are all recovering.

J. J. Cromer, of Cashmere, Wash., spent Saturday with his sister Mrs. J. H. Baldwin.

S. R. Curfmar, having sold his farm to M. S. Nesbit, will have sale Monday Mar. 9th, and he expects to leave for Canada the following week. Mr. Nesbit will move to the farm about the 16th of March.

Wednesday evening Feb. 25, 1914, at the M. E. parsonage Rev. C. F. Himes united in marriage Miss Ethel Kerlin, of Fort Littleton, and Mr. Henry Crouse, of Decorum. The happy young couple left Thursday morning for a short visit to friends in Altoona and Tyrone, returning Saturday to the home of the groom, where a reception was given; and in the evening the calithumpian band turned out and gave them a rousing serenade. This worthy young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Birthday Surprise.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown, near Clear Ridge, was unusually brightened last Saturday evening when 35 people gathered to celebrate the eighteenth birthday of their daughter Olive. Mrs. Brown with the aid of her good neighbors, had planned the event out to a letter, Miss Olive not knowing anything of the affair until they began to pour into the house all at once; it then dawned on her that it was her birthday.

The evening was spent with games and music, and about 9:30 o'clock ice cream and cake were served, and at about 11 o'clock the guests began to return home wishing Miss Olive many more happy birthdays. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents and postcards for which she feels very grateful to those who sent them.

Long—Hess.

Mr. Earl Lloyd Long, of Knobsville, and Miss Lydia Susan Hess of Hustontown, were united in marriage by Rev. J. V. Royer, at the M. E. Parsonage, in McConnellsburg, on March 4th.

HAVE IT REPAIRED!

In every family are chairs, bureaus, tables, stands, lounges and other kinds of furniture that would be just as good as new, if they were placed in the hands of a practical mechanic; and the cost would not be much when compared with the value. Old furniture can be made to look like new; in fact, just now, old furniture polished and fixed up is more valuable than when first made. It may not be generally known that has a shop in the building just east of Clise's automobile garage McConnellsburg, and that he is prepared to do all kinds of new and repair work, and at very reasonable prices. Gather up your broken furniture, or give him an order for any new work you may need, and see how well you will be pleased.

Any work left with Court Carbaugh, near Big Cove Tannery, or with Hayes Sowers, at Clco, will receive prompt attention and be returned promptly. Give Joseph a trial.

Pianos are like shoes—some makes good, some bad. They all look alike to the unsophisticated, and here's where the "peddler" gets in his work. He's here today with the piano; To-morrow he's away. You have the piano, he has your money.

I have been doing business with the people of Fulton county for ten years. I own real estate and pay tax. I am here to make good if the instrument I sell you is not satisfactory in every respect.

The following well known people have purchased Player Pianos and Pianos from me. Ask any of them about me before you buy from any one else.
