Operatives in Factories Were Wetting Tips of Cigars With Their Lips During Proces of Manufacture-Undesirable and Unsafe.

(Special Harrisburg Correspondence.) Harrisburg.-Notice was given by Commissioner John Price Jackson, of the State Department of Labor and Industry, that people in charge of cigar factories must immediately stop the practice of eigar makers placing tips of cigars in their mouths during manufacture. This order is the result of inspections recently made by the division of hygiene of the department, who found that operatives were wetting the tips of cigars with their lips. Of thirty-eight factories inspected in the western end of the State it was found that in eight the cigarmakers were putting the end of the cigars into their mouths. "Inasmuch as the practice of licking or wetting the end of the cigar seems to be a more or less prevalent practice and one which is not only unsafe to the operative, but and procured a clothesline. A demurrer to the action in equity brought by the People's Coal Comtutionality of the anthracite coal tax act of 1913, was filed by the Attorney General's department in behalf of Auditor-General Powell and State Treasurer Young. The demurrer declares that the Dauphin County Court is without jurisdiction; that the bill does not state any facts entitling the company to relief; that the bill contains "many wholly irrelevant, immaterial, scandalous and impertinent matters and does not show on its face that the plaintiff is entitled to any relief which it seeks;" that the bill does not show the act to be unconstitutional in any respect.

Walking Along Mountain Path With Farmers Busy in Every Locality-Others Miss Doyle Sank From Cave-In-Miners Pulled Her to the Surface.

Shamokin.-After Mary Doyle, a 17year-old schoolgirl, had fallen 100 feet down a mine breach near the Rich ards colliery, she found herself in total darkness and almost frightened to death. She was also covered with bruises. She had been walking along a mountain path, talking to several girl friends, when the path caved in. She was in the lead, and as she sank from sight her companions barely escaped. Close behind the girls was John Back, a miner, on his way home from work. Hearing Miss Doyle's friends call for help, he ran to the scene, called to the missing girl and was overloyed to hear her faintly answer. She told him she had fallen a long distance, but did not think any of her limbs had been broken. Bach told her to remain as quiet as possible, whereupon he ran to a house to tie it about her. Several miners appeared, tied the rope about Bach and lowered him fully 100 feet, until he found the girl, who had become unconscious. He tied the rope about her and had the men pull her up, after which he also was drawn to the surface. Miss Doyle was resuscitated and taken home, where doctors found she was badly bruised.

European Nations Are Asked To Join In the First General Council Of Church Since the

New York .- The greatest effort in the history of Christianity to unite all the sects of the world which held the Christian faith was proclaimed by a committee representing 37 branches of Christianity in the United States. This committee has no authority to declare Christendom united, but it represents the attempt of the majority of the world's religions to meet, if possible, within the next five years, to combine in a "Truce of God." In 1910 the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church, convened in Cincinnati, appointed a commission to begin the movement for universal religious peace. This commission received its first endowment from the late J. P. Morgan, and at once approached the official bodies of all sects with an invitation to join in preparation for the world-wide amalgamation of Christian churches.

During the last four years repre sentatives of 37 sects have reported to the Episcopal commission that they HIS OLD ENEMY AFTER HIM PRETTY SECRET LEAKS OUT believe in the one people of God throughout the world, and have con stituted themselves an advisory committee, endowed with power to invite all the creeds of all nations to confer.
