lieve it, and still drank coffee until I could not leave my room.

"Then my doctor, who drinks Postum himself, persuaded me to stop coffee and try Postum. After much hesitation I concluded to try it. That was eight months ago. Since then I have had but few of those spells, none for more than four months.

"I feel better, sleep better and am better every way. I now drink nothing but Postum and touch no coffee, and as I am seventy years of age all my friends think the improvement quite remarkable."

that true faith takes what God provides, and needs no more for its ground and gladness than the fact that God said it. I Am Included.

This complete salvation is for them that come unto God by him. You may be of the great and goodly number who receive it and rejoice in it. When the Lord said, Whosoever, he included me. John 3:16 is still true; Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, yes, and forever; still he says: No man cometh unto the Father but by me. Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out. Still Christ is able to save unto the uttermost. What more could be done? What more could one want than a complete salvation? Believe what God says; accept what God offers. "Your sins he will more than pardon; your cares he will more than bear; your temptations he will more than overcome; your doubt he will more than dispel; your crosses he will more than carry; your perplexitles he will more than resolve; your bereavements he will more than sweeten."

"Lord, I'll trust thy wondrous love, Mighty to save."

work to do and could not be killed until it was done, John 11:8-10. The mention of the usurper called from Jesus a revelation of his compassionate love for the city of Jerusalem in spite of the way it had treated him. His contemp for Herod, "that fox," is the only record of such words having passed his lips. His dealings with Herod wero most solemn. The figure of the hen and her brood as applied to himself is another one of those assertions he made which prove his delty. He could have given that doomed city safety, comfort and rest. but its day was about at an end. Re jecting the Messiah consequently left the house vacant. The soul that answers his "I would" by a "would not" is also doomed to desolation, John 5:40. Jeaus spoke of himself as proceeding to do his own work in his own way and in his own time. That program included his death (v. 33), but his note of impending doom is ended in one of prophetic hope, in which he indicated that there is to be a day when Jerusalem shall say 'Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

PUT CHILDREN IN RIGHT PATH.

Is there any investment of time, energy, talents, that will count for more than the work with the children? "If you write the law of total abstinence on the hearts of the children," says Congressman Hobson, 'they will see to it that it is written on the statute books of the state and the nation."

This is why the W. C. T. U. gives so much time and thought to teaching children the nature and effects of alcohol.

SENTIMENT PARAMOUNT.

Public sentiment is everything. With public sentiment nothing can fail. Without it nothing can succeed. Consequently he who molds public sentiment goes deeper than he who enacts statutes or pronounces decisions. He makes statutes and decisions possible or impossible to be executed .- Abraham Lincolt.
