DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of McConnellsburg People.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills.

Endorsed in McConnellsburg by grateful friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Lucinda Clevenger, Water St., McConnellsburg, Pa., says: "I know from several years experience with Doan's Kidney Pills that they do good work. I was in poor health for some time. My back ached badly and I couldn't do my housework. I had dizzy spells and chills and was annoyed by the kidney secretions. Often swelling appeared under my eyes, and I was very nervous at night. I was troubled by rheumatic twinges. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store, and since then I haven't been troubled by my back or kidneys. I can't say too much for this remedy."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Clevenger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SALVIA

Howard Skipper, of Waynesboro, visited his sister, Mrs. Thom as S. Metzler and family, on Thursday and Friday last. Mr. Skipper had the misfortune to fall from a ladder which shipped at the works of the Geiser Co.

He was so injured that he was rendered helpless for some months, and has not been able to do any labor since.

Two young men S. W. and H. L. Reisner, of Philadelphia, were guests of the Green Hill House over Sunday. These men took the last winter's course at the Pennsylvania State College, and are traveling via the Pittsburgh pike to Ohio, to take up experimental work; one going into the hog and fruit business. Very commendable indeed! If all young men would prepare themselves and go at and do some thing, there would soon be a different state of affairs in the country.

Edgar Hann, wife, and children recently visited Mrs. Hann's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Al lison Brant, near Dane.

Howard Hann, of Pleasant Ridge, was circulating among our farmers and capitalists, last Saturday, soliciting subscriptions to the Breeswood Telephone Company and had secured about $170 ostensibly to build a new line from Edward Swope's station to Salvia, thence to Harrisonville.

L. C. Maan, of Everett, was in this section part of last week, inspecting and taking up the lumber of Messrs Howard and Rinehart. He says nothing saved Everett from being destroyed by the recent fire, except that the fierce winds blew in the opposite direction from the town. Mr. Mann also said that there is quite a slump in the lumber business. The P. R. R. has suspended a large number of lumber inspectors, which means small orders for lumber from the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rinehart and D. W. Howard, of Altoona, are sojourning at their bungalow attending to the sale of the lumber and leasing their farm.

Mrs. Maye Lake and Homer Sipes were called last week to attend the funeral of a niece—their sister Lena's daughter—at Huntingdon.

Passion week is being observed in several of the churches in town. The Lutherans are holding services every evening. Rev Yearick preaches every evening; alternating between the Reformed and the Presbyterian church.

GRACEY.

Farmers are getting ready for their spring work.

Our school closed Tuesday March 31. The children may now enjoy a vacation.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Kerlin were Rev. Benson, Josiah Witter, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Witter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Cutchall and son Norman, spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Cutchall's parents, Daniel Landers and wife Misses Bertha McClain and Velma Alloway and George Barnett spent Sunday afternoon at George Heefner's.

Many of our young people are attending the Revival Services at Hustontown conducted by Rev. Benson.

Miss Jessie Cutchall spent Sunday with Miss Maud McKeech nie, of Hustontown.

Mrs. Dawson Strait is still in the hospital at Chambersburg, where she went some time ago for treatment.

Miss Lena Berkstresser spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. R. Lamberson.

WEST DUBLIN.

Lloyd Price and George King spent Sunday at their respective homes in Taylor township.

John J. Mumma has moved from the Austin farm to the farm near Laidig, which he recently purchased from Thos. McClure.

William J. Shaw moved from Bernard Foreman's property to the house that was formerly occupied by Joseph Price, deceased. Bernard Foreman who had been employed in Altoona most of the past year at carpentering, came home last week.

Several deer have been seen in Ross King's fields frequently, during the past few weeks.

The school at Laidig will close this week; Clevenger's school closed last week.

There has been quite a good attendance and very much interest shown in the revival services at the U. B. church, Hustontown.

Edward Bratton, Dublin Mills, who had been employed at Kearney during the past few years, but had been away from there since February 1st, has returned to Kearney.

The Canal Tolls question was discussed recently by the Defiance Literary Society at a session held at Riddlesburg. The decision of the judges was, that the Tolls Act should be repealed.

Surprise Party.

The many friends of Mrs. Georgia Truax decided to give her a pleasant surprise on her 33rd birthday. So, on Saturday night the 4th of April, when she returned from Hancock, she observed people coming from every direction. They informed her she was one year older. Many nice and valuable presents were given and preparations were then made for refreshments which consisted of seven gallons of delicious ice cream and numerous cakes.

Excellent music was furnished by Charley Fisher on his graphophone. Mrs. Ruth Souders, a lady from Johnstown with noted musical ability, presided at the piano interspersed with selections on the violin and the organ. All present enjoyed themselves hugely, and went home wishing her many more returns of the day.

Those present were: Lucy Homan, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lynch and three children Lela, Zada and Warner; Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Souders and daughter Mary; Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and son; Miss Anna and baby; Sadie Hess, Mr. and Mrs. John Peck, William Deshong, Andrew Souders, Clara Gordon, Clarence Brewer, Amanda Slack, Mrs. Jesse Snyder, Mr. W. H. Wink, Miss Estaline Wink, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robinson and three sons—Frank Charley and Herman; Mrs. Oliver Souders, Mrs. Minnie Waltz, Pleasant Waltz, Pleasant Snyder, Mark Yonker, Clarence Deshong, Enoch Truax, Goldie Sharpe, Francis Mellott, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Truax, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Souders and son Leroy, Mrs. Clara Bowman and two children—Clem and Rose; Jennie Funk, and Ora and Etta Douglass.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Sudanese Products. Sudan is the chief source of the world's supply of two important products—gum arabic and ivory. About 30 per cent. of the ivory and 15 per cent. of the gum is shipped to the United States direct. The better qualities of the gum are used abroad by confectioners in making candy and the lower grades in the manufacture of glue and muclage.

Rifling a Barrel.

The grooves in a rifle barrel are made with special machinery, and unless one has this he could not do the work properly, no matter how skilled he was. When the grooves of a rifle barrel are filled with lead it is usually necessary to have an expert gunsmith clean them out.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

By A. W. MACY.

AN INVASION THAT DID NOT TAKE PLACE.

In 1386 the young king of France, Charles VI., was persuaded by his uncles, of whom he had a good supply, to invade England, and an army of 40,000 men was assembled in Flanders for the purpose. Great preparations were made for the expedition. Every soldier provided himself with a pillard, or hired man to go along and collect plunder for him. An enormous tent was constructed, which it would require seventy-two vessels to transport in sections across the channel. Just what this tent was for is not quite clear. When all was ready for the grand start it was found that the youthful king was drunk. When he sobered up he decided to wait for the arrival of one of his uncles. By the time the uncle arrived the king had changed his mind, and concluded not to make the invasion after all. The army disbanded and the stores which had been collected were plundered. The boats upon which the parts of the great tent had been loaded got away from their moorings and drifted into the mouth of the Thames. The English seized them, and found the great tent useful in a variety of ways.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

ARCTIC ADVENTURE OF THE SHIP RESOLUTE.

By A. W. MACY.

In 1845 Sir John Franklin went in search of a northwest passage, with two ships and 168 men. All were lost in the frozen regions of the north. Many expeditions were sent in search of the lost explorers. In 1852 Sir Edward Belcher conducted such an expedition, with five ships under his command. All five of the vessels became ice-bound, and were finally abandoned. In 1855 the captain of an American whaling vessel sighted a strange looking ship in Davis Strait. No signals were put out or answered, and no crew was visible. The strange craft was boarded, and was found to be the Resolute, one of the five ships that had been abandoned by Sir Edward and his crew. In some way it had escaped its icy bonds, and had drifted southward more than a thousand miles in the 474 days between its abandonment and its discovery. Some things on board had been damaged by water, otherwise the ship was in fairly good condition. By a resolution of congress $40,000 was spent in putting the vessel in first-class shape, and it was then returned to the British government with the compliments of the American people.

Musicalian's Devotion to His Art.

In 1838 Robert Schumann wrote to Clara Wieck: "I have given several hours hard study every day to Bach and Beethoven, and to my own work, and conscientiously managed a large correspondence. I am a young man of twenty-eight, with a very active mind, and an artist, to boot; yet for eight years I have not been out of Saxony, and have been sitting still and saving money, without a thought of spending it on amusement."

Tied Boot Too Tight.

Tying his boot too tight caused a farmer, named Lyons, death at Ashgrove, near Mallow, County Cork, Ireland, recently. The man was tying his boot in the yard of his house preparatory to going to work when a vein burst in his leg, and although efforts were made to stop the flow of blood, death ensued in half an hour.

Alcoholic Sentiment.

The singing souse is a nuisance, but he has it all over the jag who weeps all over the bar when he realizes how much he loves his Dear Old Mother—Cincinnati Enquirer.
