of Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Frost in Florida, and an inch of snow in Texas appeared on the 8th.

Tuesday evening's Franklin Repository says that Harriet J. Dixon, of Chambersburg, is recovering from a recent illness.

Lee Decker, who went out to Ohio last August, writes that he likes the country there, and says the farmers are busy now putting out their oats.

MALE HELP—Man with vehicle or auto to tack small tin signs on Pike East and West. Akin Company, 1841 Oliver Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. 4-16-1t.

Do not fail to glance at the late sale register in the NEWS. A number of sales are advertised for April because of conditions arising after the usual sale season closed.

A. L. Wible moved from Knobsville to this place two weeks ago and opened a barber and shoe repairing shop in the house next to the U. P. church, on west Water street.

At least, a dozen new advertisements appear in this issue; M. H. Hollinshead, Harrisonville; Huston Bro's., Three Springs; Clem Chesnut, Hustontown; J. K. Johnston, town; also, a lot of "Want" Ads., Sales, etc.

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Thoroughbred Single Comb, White Leghorns—extra fine stock. For a record of these hens I can point to the best layers in existence. 15 eggs only 64 cents; 45 eggs only $1.47. MISS N. KNAUFF, McConnellsburg, Pa. 4-16-6t.

Our old friend John S. Hull, of Mansfield, Ohio, cannot persuade himself that he can keep house without the NEWS; hence we have another dollar to push his subscription into 1915. Mr. Hull stood the groundhog weather first-rate, and sends greetings to all his old Fulton County friends.

First-day fishermen did not get home in time yesterday for us to court their fish before closing the forms for this week's paper; hence we cannot report the catches. We will see to it that the fish caught do not grow larger by this time next week—they do, sometimes, you know.

Little Pearl Rhodes made her first trip to McConnellsburg last Saturday. Pearl is a very sweet little girl who adopted Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Brant as her foster parents, over a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Brant are expert at raising turkeys; but when it comes to finding hidden nests, Pearl can spy them first.

Mrs. David Sipes, who recently moved from the toll gate west of town to her property on Walnut street, in this place, had the misfortune to break both bones in her right forearm Sunday, when she tripped on a board in the back yard and fell. Dr. Robinson was immediately called, and he succeeded in reducing the fracture before any inflammation and swelling had taken place.

E. E. Wilvert, of Harrisburg, passed through this place last Friday on his way to the Pacific coast. Mr. Wilvert is making the journey on stilts. By means of stilts which are concealed by long trousers, he looks like a man of ten feet eight inches in height. A pair of shoes fitted to the feet of the stilts completed the deception and he attracts much notice wherever he appears.

Merrill W. Nace had the misfortune to sprain one of his ankles last Thursday, and for several days was forced to use a crutch cane. The accident happened when he tried to pull a limb out of the top of a tree by means of a rope; when the limb started to fall he ran backwards to escape being hit and his ankle doubled under with the above result.

On Monday the following lime-kilns were fired in Ayr township: John Carbaugh, John Heinbaugh, and George Heinbaugh each fired a 3-eyed kiln, and George Finger fired a 4-eyed kiln. During the week previous Houston Johnston burned a 3-eyed kiln, and Scott and James Hull burned a 3-eyed kiln using wood and coal, and next week Baltzer, Mitchell will fire a 3-eyed, are all in Ayr township.

About ten days or two weeks ago Conrad Glazier of Ayr township, pricked one of his knuckles to the bone with a penknife; turpentine was used freely on the cut at once, but in a few days infection set in and for a week he suffered great pain in his arm, shoulder and neck. Dr. Mosser was consulted and opened the wound to let out pus; at last report the swelling and pain had been very much reduced.

Farmers needing extra help during the summer months can be supplied by sending their address to State College, at State College, Pa. Most of the students in the agricultural department are anxious to spend their vacation on a farm; and some of them are far enough advanced to intelligently discuss farm problems with their employer. These students will not expect any more wages than other workmen, and as a rule, are good fellows.

Frank Mason who had been confined to his room at various periods during the past winter, has improved, and has been out more or less recently, although on crutches. His trouble is not from rheumatism, as has been generally supposed; his affliction dates back to September 1910, when he, almost unaided, attended six typhoid fever cases, for four weeks, in the family of his wife's sister, Mrs. Henry H. Deshong. Under this ordeal his physical strength gave way and one of his feet became affected, remaining numb ever since, and it is growing worse, so that he will go to a Baltimore hospital if a cure be not effected soon.

New Millinery Goods.
Miss Mary Wilkinson found it necessary to make the second trip to Philadelphia to replenish her stock of hats and millinery goods. She expects to have a new stock of the very latest hats and trimmings by the last of the week. Her store is just opposite the Public School building.

Mrs. Warner.
Mrs Elizabeth Lockard Warner died at her home in Toledo, Ohio, April 7, 1914, after an illness of about two months' suffering from stomach trouble and advanced age, she having reached almost the four-score limit. She left one son, Howard M. Warner, also of Toledo. Mrs. Warner was born in Bedford county, but went to Ohio several years ago.

Surprise Party.
On April 12th, about fifty friends of Mrs. Margaret Richards greatly surprised her by gathering at her home while she was temporarily absent in the forenoon. Mrs. Richards received many presents. A bountiful dinner was served, and good fellowship prevailed throughout the day, so that when time to leave came, all wished Mrs. Richards many happy returns of the day.

NEEDMORE.
Late spring—busy ploughing. John T. Laley is improving. Moses Gordon, of Sharpe, is reported to be seriously ill. Quite a lot of Needmore's young people spent the last day at the Cross Roads school which closed on the 10th.

Guy Mellott spent Easter with his mother, Mrs. Rachel Mellott. Miss Jennie Funk is visiting friends and relatives here. Jacob Hill and family visited Isaac Mellott Sunday. Mrs. Rachel Mellott had a wood-hauling one day last week. No one had time to haul any wood except Sam Hess and Eli Hann. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
