Why is it that we do not grow more spinach? It is one of the finest tonics that can be grown in our gardens, and can be grown very early. Nearly every one is fond of it served as greens.

A well known gentleman from the country recommends that we inform the general public that the names of violators of the game and fish law may be given to the State Game Commission and when prosecution takes place the informer's name will not be made public. Secretary Joseph Kalbfuss made the foregoing promise. If names be sent by letter, the informer should sign his own name to the letter in order to have any attention paid to it by the authorities, and as an act of common courtesy.

Speaking of railroads—a thing we have not been doing lately—the Cumberland Valley railroad still keeps people in this section guessing. That company expects to begin the construction of a new double track bridge across the river at Harrisburg, about May first. This company has been buying land at Newville, the point at which the Old South Penn was supposed to branch off and cross this county ten miles north of McConnellsburg. The rapidly increasing business of the road may necessitate all this expenditure, but many persist in their predictions that the several million dollar tunnels north of here will not be permitted to go for naught for all time.

SALUVIA

Max, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair, was considerably injured last Friday when he went into a lot where a mare and colt were grazing. It is supposed that he had attempted to caress the colt, and that the mare resented the act, for she seized the boy by the arm and bit him severely, throwing him to the ground, and probably would have killed him, or further injured him, but for the arrival of his mother who heard the boy's screams and ran to his assistance, and rescued him from the enraged mare.

Chas. W. Schooley has been laid up with rheumatism and other complications for some time.

Freddie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Sipes is quite ill of pneumonia; but he is said to be a little better at this writing—Monday.

We greatly fear that the oats sowing will be so delayed by the cool weather, as to shorten the crop. Lots of farmers have none sowed. Oats is a peculiar crop. Sown in March they invariably fill well, and have good weight; while late sowing makes chiefly straw. Nature will, however, even matters up, for there is a very hopeful prospect of a good crop of wheat and rye.

Reichtly Bros. & Company are rushing railroad extension as rapidly as possible.

The opening of the trout season on the 15 inst, by reason of the big rain, was not so inviting to lovers of the sport. Do you know that Fulton County has the best trout streams in the State? Why don't the authorities see to it that they are thoroughly stocked? [Editor's note;—Sportsmen within the last few days, have said that it is because a few fellows scoop them out with nets, and that it is too costly to raise trout for that purpose. Too bad isn't it?]

The Alaska blizzard predicted to hit us about Easter, got turned off, and whitened the mountains about Altoona.

The recent wedding of Mr. Cadiz Schooley and Miss Veda Mellott was followed by an infar at the parental home of the groom.

The large band of gypsies that passed west over the pike a few days ago, encamped near the premises of W. W. McDaniels, and their twenty-six horses tramped over his fields for hours Mr. McDaniels, it is said demanded $5.00 for damages, which was paid. At Everett the leader of the band was arrested and fined $60.00 by reason of their having no license to camp and carry on their business. DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of McConnellsburg Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidney.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Proof of their worth in the following:

Mrs. Dwight Stottlemeyer, 765 Fairground Ave., Chambersburg Pa. says: "Some time ago I suffered from kidney complaint. I had awful pains in the small of my back and my joints and muscles ached. I couldn't stoop and the trouble made me weak all over. The secretions from my kidneys caused me no end of an annoyance. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I did. I soon got relief from the pains and aches and my kidneys became normal. I now feel better in every way. Whenever I need a kidney remedy, I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and am all right.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Stottlemeyer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Racket Store News

You may know it, or you may not; but the truth is, that Queen Quality Shoes are manufactured by the largest Shoe Factory in the whole United States. The Queen Quality factory makes more shoes, and sells more shoes than any other. This should be the best evidence that they sell good goods. If the shoes were not all that they are represented to be, the Queen Quality people could not do the business they are doing. We have handled the Queen Quality shoes for five years, and our trade in them has grown steadily with that of the factory. Now, if you have a hard foot to fit, come in and let us try to fit you. If we do not happen to have in stock your size and width, we can get it for you in three or four days and it will not mean any extra cost to you, either. The prices run from $2.50 to $5.00. We have shoes to fit your whole family, and prices to fit your pocket book.
