FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

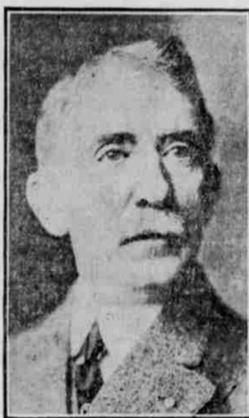

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF FULTON COUNTY.

After having received so much encouragement, I feel that I would be shirking my duty if I did not offer myself as a candidate for the nomination for the General Assembly the second term, as anyone knows full well that a man elected to a second term has more influence, and can serve his constituents better the second term than he possibly can the first time.

I, therefore, announce myself as a candidate for the General Assembly, Subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primary election to be held May 19, 1914, respectfully ask the support of the voters, and pledge myself to support the ticket nominated. I also pledge myself, if nominated and elected, to do as I have done in the past—discharge my duty fearlessly and honestly, and work hard for the best interest of the people of Fulton County and the State.

Respectfully yours, GEO. B. MELLOTT.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

By A. W. MACY.

JOSEPH THE UNFORTUNATE.

Joseph II., emperor of Germany, was not a very successful ruler. Half in jest, half in earnest, he suggested this as an appropriate inscription for his tombstone: "Here lies Joseph, unfortunate in all his undertakings." He was a good man, with excellent intentions; but somehow his plans almost invariably went wrong. "Be good and you will be happy" did not seem to apply in his case. The truth is, he was lacking in judgment. He was a zealous reformer, and deeply concerned for the welfare of his subjects; but he went about it in the wrong way. He tried to reform people with a hammer, and totally disregarded their feelings in the matter. Many of them did not even know they needed reforming. Joseph had about as much tact as a runaway horse in a flower garden. He probably did not know it, but this lack of judgment was largely the cause of his being "unfortunate in all his undertakings."
