Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Sappington entertained a half-hundred or more of their friends very delightfully at their beautiful home Hillcrest, near Webster Mills, on Thursday evening of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. Remington Patterson.

Mr. Albert Stoner took the 1 o'clock pneumatic-shod train for Everett, last Saturday afternoon, changing cars at that place for Saxton and other points on the H. & B. T. railroad where he will visit his daughter and other friends for about two weeks.

Professor Helman who was principal of the McConnellsburg Schools the last scholastic year, left for Millersville Normal School last week, to pursue a course of study preparatory to entering the Scientific Department of Gettysburg College next fall.

Mr. Dennis Smith of Maryland, is spending some time at the home of his mother, widow of the late Levi Smith, of Whips Cove. He spent two days in town last week on business concerning the settlement of his father's estate. Levi Smith was the man whose house was entered last summer and robbed of about $1,400. It is hinted that there is to be a sequel to the robbery episode.

H. M. Everts, of Marshalltown, Iowa, arrived in this place on Wednesday evening of last week, and next morning dropped into the NEWS office to renew his mother's subscription. He is going to spend three weeks in his native county, making headquarters at his brother-in-law Harry Deshong's home four miles northwest of this place. Mr. Everts is a motorman on the Marshalltown electric lines, and looks stout and hearty.

Miss Lulu Anderson, who has been with Mrs. S. B. Woollet at the Washington House for the past eight years, left for Chambersburg on Monday morning, to accept a position in the Hotel Montgomery. Miss Anderson takes with her the best wishes of the owners of the Washington House and of very many friends in McConnellsburg and vicinity for faithful service during all these years. Miss Lulu secured, at least, one medium of communication between her and the old Burg by subscribing for the NEWS.

Cost $5,000.

It cost a Nebraska saloon keeper $5,000 to make a man a drunkard. That state has a law making it a crime to make drunkards. A wife recently brought suit against a liquor dealer for having made her husband incapable of properly supporting his family, on account of drink. The case was carried through the courts up to, and including, the Supreme Court of the United States. The latter decided that the State had perfect right to place such a law on its books, and dismissed the case. The sot maker will now have to pass over $5,000 to the wife. It may not be generally known that Pennsylvania has a similar law on her statute books. The act of April 12, 1875, makes the rum seller who furnishes liquor to habitual drunkards, liable to damages and open to civil prosecution in the courts of the Commonwealth. The Nebraska act reached the Supreme court through proceedings brought by Mrs. May Bulger against Louis W. Prencia, a saloonkeeper of Nebraska City. Under the act, Nebraska courts had awarded Mrs. Bulger $5,000 damages for her husband becoming a habitual drunkard. Prencia appealed, but the Supreme court upheld the act.

It may be added just here, that if the temperance people would spend less time scolding the liquor sellers, and would go into the courts and make use of the laws that are already on the books, very much more would be accomplished along the line of controlling the evil.

Rum and The Navy.

A few weeks ago we told our readers that Secretary of the Navy Daniels had forbidden the use of all intoxicating liquors on United States vessels and about the government docks. Since that time our attention has been called to the fact that the average age of the enlisted men now in Mexican waters is not over twenty-one years. From other sources we learn that when navy men are arrested for drunkenness, it develops that they acquired the habit during their stay on board the ships. If you have sons, brothers or young friends aboard any of these ships do you not feel happier to know that they are free from the temptation to learn to drink? And yet liquor newspapers are poking all kinds of fun at what they term "piffle" whatever that means. Uncle Sam has no moral right to borrow your sons to hazard their lives in defense of the country, and then subject them to the possibility of becoming sots. All rummies are rejected when they apply for admission to the navy—why make them "rummies" while on duty?

Mason Quits Real Estate Business

On account of poor health and other reasons, I will not take any more Real Estate to sell on commission. I have on hands some that must be sold; these I wish to get disposed of at the earliest date possible, and will do so, even at a greater sacrifice to my personal interest and health in order to make obligations good. I wish to thank those people that patronized me; and should my health improve, I shall be pleased to assist any of them hereafter with such business, free of charge.

The Republican Party
Must Awake
In Time to Vote at the Primaries, May 19th
for
J. Benjamin Dimmick
For U. S. SENATOR

J. BENJAMIN DIMMICK

The organs of the Democratic and Washington Parties are waiting breathlessly for the nomination of Penrose, when they will sweep in and shatter the Republican strength in Pennsylvania. Remember—public sentiment is against Boss Rule. Penrose must be defeated to preserve the Republican Party.

In J. Benjamin Dimmick we have a leader bold enough to accept the challenge of Penroseism a man of high character, of sound scholarship, of clear vision and a complete understanding of State and National issues.

By nominating J. Benjamin Dimmick, we can remove the only issue which the Washington and Democratic Parties have and thus we can insure a normal Republican vote and victory.

Every day the army of men is increasing, who believe that the Republican Party on May 19th must choose between

Penrose and Defeat or Dimmick and Victory

Easy To Have Apples

Throughout The Season.

The editor of a Philadelphia class publication, recognized as a standard in its line, wrote to State Economic Zoologist H. A. Surface, Harrisburg, recently asking for names for five apples for home use throughout the season. Professor Surface recommended the following:

Yellow Transparent, Sweet Bough, Summer Rambo, Smokehouse and Stayman Winesap.

His letter also stated:

"The only real winter apple on the list is the last named. If you wish to substitute a winter variety for the sweet Bough, I would recommend Delicious or Rome Beauty. Jonathan is another of very high quality, as is also the Grimes Golden. It is difficult to think of eliminating any one of these from a list of apples with every high quality for growing in the southeastern part of Pennsylvania for home use."
