Notice.

The annual business meeting of the Lot-holders of Union Cemetery will be held on Friday afternoon, May 22, at 2 o'clock. T. GLAZIER, President.

Rev. W. M. Cline, of Fort Littleton, was attending to some business in town last Saturday, and said that since his retirement to private life, he had little use for his fine driving horse, and would sell him. Mr. Cline is very much attached to that intelligent animal, and would feel the loss of a faithful friend should he and it part company.

James A. Stewart, genial landlord at the Green Hill hotel in Licking Creek township, had the misfortune to cut a gash about one and a half inch long in one of his feet, about two weeks ago. He was cutting timber to erect a building on the farm when the axe glanced from a knot, with the above result. He was alone in the woods, and although he cut a small vein, was able to get home unaided.

D. B. Nace, a member of the Board of Managers of the Chambersburg hospital, was at that institution Monday morning when M. H. Hollinshead arrived with J. Alfred Sipes. The sight of Fulton county people made "Davie" homesick, and as there was plenty of room in Mr. Hollinshead's automobile, Mr. Nace took advantage of the opportunity to come to McConnellsburg and spend a night in the home of his son, Cashier Merrill W. Nace.

Zelda Was Acquitted.

After a two weeks' trial in the Franklin county court, costing the county about seven thousand dollars, not to mention attorneys' fees and other expenses for which the county is not liable, Mrs. Zelda Keller Gerhold was on Tuesday acquitted of the charge of poisoning her first husband, Floyd Keller, about two years ago. At that time she and her first husband lived near St. Thomas. Floyd sickened and died under rather peculiar circumstances. Mrs. Keller's name was associated with that of one Isaac Heckman, a neighbor, in not very complimentary terms. The neighbors talked. Suspicions of foul play led to the taking up of Floyd's body some time after his death, and sending the viscera to Philadelphia for analysis. The chemical found evidences of arsenical poisoning. Zelda was arrested, as was also her mother charged with being accessory to the crime. Both were acquitted.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions on the death of Brother Hiram Clevenger adopted by Asaph Lodge No. 341, I. O. O. F. WHEREAS, It has been pleasing to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to again open the gates of death, and Brother Hiram Clevenger has been admitted to that world where sorrow and sadness can never reign. Our brother has laid down the burdens and cares of this world never again to take them up. There is a chair vacant in our Lodge, and we shall miss that wise and loving counsel—the influence of which was felt in our Lodge. He was ever loyal to Friendship, Love and Truth and his death deprives us of one of our faithful members.

RESOLVED, That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Creator who is too wise to err, and too good to be unjust.

RESOLVED, That this Lodge extend its deepest sympathy to the bereaved family in this hour of anguish and sorrow.

RESOLVED, That the charter of the Lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be attached to the records of the Lodge; that a copy be sent to the bereaved family of our deceased brother, and that they be published in the next papers of the county.

ADA HANN, MARY LAKE, CORA L. SIPES.

Mrs. William Doyle.

Mrs. William Doyle died yesterday afternoon. Further notice next week.

Mrs. Amanda Lynch and son Harvey, of Belfast township, were in town last Saturday. There is some mystery connected with the burning of Mrs. Lynch's dwelling house a week or so ago, that is likely to be cleared up before so long.

Painters and paper hangers were at work recently on the interior of the Washington House brightening things up.

When Adam Picked and Put On His First Fig Leaf.

When Adam picked and put on his first fig leaf, the Men's Clothing business was born. The first ready made garments was a fig leaf. Probably Adam wasn't satisfied with the first leaf and thought he'd try another. By and by he found one that suited him in cut, material, fit and quality. Adam was shrewd. He looked around. Now, sir, if you are not fully satisfied with the clothing you are wearing, suppose you look around. Suppose you look here. Our patrons are always satisfied. We make them so by giving them the best clothing to be had on earth for the money. Come in and look over our lines before you buy.

It's About Flour and Feed, and the Right Place to Bring Your Chopping.

We buy our Flour, Feeds and Grain in carloads, and sell at a small profit,—hence our motto—"Highest quality and lowest prices."

Our chopping outfits are unexcelled in their neighborhood. We use the old-fashioned four-foot stone for fine grains, and a very speedy steel chopper for ear corn. Power—Water and Gasoline Engine. This insures prompt service. We charge one-tenth toll—no more nor no less.

We offer you the Following Prices at this Market:

Table listing various flour and feed products with prices per sack or cwt.

The above prices are guaranteed until May 20th. We will also have car of Bran in, about tenth of May to be sold at $1.55 per cwt.

Give us a call and you will be glad you did. Yours with the goods. EDGAR L. WEAVER, Saltillo, Pa.

Lawn Mowers.

This week we want to tell you that we have just received a large quantity of Lawn Mowers and Garden Plows, and can sell them to you at a price that will save you good money. The garden Plow that we have sold so many of at $2.25 during the last five years, we are going to sell this spring at $1.98. We can let you have a 12-inch lawn mower at $2.50, and a 14-inch at $2.65. We have been selling these mowers for eight years and know what we are talking when we say they are good ones. Having brass bearings and being self-sharpening, they are always on the job.

Steel garden rakes, 25 cents; Hoes, 16, 20, 25, 38, and 40 cents. Steel shovels—no rivets in the blade—55 cents.

Fencing.

Say! you want a nice lawn fence in front of your house or lawn? We have it at 10 cents a foot. Also, we have some Field and Poultry fence on hand yet, that we are selling at the old prices. Screen wire at 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 cents a yard.

Paint! Paint!

Are you going to paint your house or barn this spring? If so, why don't you let us figure on it. We will not charge you anything for the figuring; and if we can't prove to you that we can save you money, then, we will not feel sore if you buy some place else.

Come Quick.

We have bought from a manufacturer 6 cases of Berlin kettles—3 cases of 6-quart, and 3 cases of 8-quart—all with tin lids, and they go at 23 and 33 cents. These goods sell regularly at 35 and 50 cents. Step along lively if you want some of them; for at these prices, they will disappear like a snowball in harvest.

Shoes! Shoes!

We have sold more shoes this spring than any spring since we have been in business. We have all kinds and are selling them at factory prices. See our white shoes for children, misses, and women; also, our Oxfords. We want everybody to try our shoes; for this is a line upon which we can especially save you money. And, we had almost forgotten to say that if you want a nice hat and suit to match your shoes, we have them too.
