Morton Hess, retired farmer at Needmore, spent a pleasant quarter hour in this office, Monday. He reports that John Plessinger is still quite ill.

A stork, that looked for all the world like Dr. Robinson of this place, brought a dear little girl to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mellott who live down by the mill at Andover.

Water can be conducted through heavy canvas tubes that can be made at home on a sewing machine. Occasions arise where a bit of cheap hose made of canvas would save a lot of work.

Speaking of the tango and the new steps that are almost daily invented, reminds us that the fair ladies of our county are now gayly practicing the old favorite "hoe down" in the flower gardens.

Light frosts occurred in several places in the County latter part of last week, with but little damage to vegetation. This is not the same "frost" that some candidates reported on Tuesday of this week.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Road supervisors throughout the county should bear in mind that beginning with May they are required by law to remove all loose stone from the public roads under their supervision. A penalty is attached for failure to do this work.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. W. N. Doyle last Friday, were Mr. and Mrs. Craig McClure and their daughter Minnie, Mrs. Maggie Garner, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle, and children, of Chambersburg; Cornelius Doyle, Harrisburg; Charles Youse and wife, and Mrs. J. B. Doyle, Mercersburg.

The United States Department of Agriculture's crop report for the May 1, 1914, indicates that the wheat crop for this year will be the greatest in the history of the country. The forecast promises about 1,500,000 bushels increase for Pennsylvania, and about 100,000,000 increase for the United States. A large increase of hay is also predicted. It is too early to forecast the corn crop.

Just to show his confidence in the Wilson Administration, that money would be plenty this summer, Leslie W. Seylar installed a 24-horsepower gasoline engine to run his new, large size ice cream freezer, and fixed up a Japanese summer parlor on the broad veranda overlooking the garden in the rear of the store, where lovers of ice cream (and each other) may spend pleasant moments.

Headaches also bothered me. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got a supply. Two boxes relieved me. I don't hesitate at any time to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends."

Flies and the Canal Zone.

At first the cry of "Swat the Fly" was treated as a joke; but the newspapers gradually educated the public to the realization of the danger to health when flies fresh from the privy and other disease breeding places were permitted to swim in the cream and crawl over the butter and other food. The way disease starts and spread is so well known now that to let flies have access to food stuffs is nothing short of, of—well—something ugly.

When the French undertook to build the Panama canal, the workmen "died like flies" in the district through which the canal was being dug, and the project had to be abandoned. To-day the canal zone is fully as healthful as here in Fulton county. Why? Well, it was because, first of all, the stagnant pools where mosquitos breed, the filth places where flies lay their eggs, were thoroughly cleaned up—only this and nothing more. Swat the fly.

If You Must Drink Booze.

Kansas City Star.
Mrs. James Watson, editor and publisher of the Dearborn, Mo., Democrat, has the following suggestion to make to booze fighters: "To the married man who cannot get along without his drinks, we suggest the following as a means to freedom from the bondage of the habit. Start a saloon in your own house. Be the only customer. You will have no license to pay. Go to your wife and give her $2 to buy a gallon of whiskey and remember there are sixty-nine drinks in a gallon. Buy your drinks from no one except your wife, and by the time the first gallon is gone, she will have $8 to put in the bank and $2 to start business again. Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have money to bury you decently; educate your children, buy a house and lot and marry a decent man and quit thinking about you."
