IN MEMORIAM.

Sketch of the Life of Walter B. Anderson, Published by Request.

Walter B. Anderson was converted and baptized into the church of God at Mudlevel, Fulton county Pa. Like some other youngmen, he strayed from grace and not until later in life was he reclaimed.

At the age of 20 he met and married Miss Savina Griffith daughter of the late Amos Griffith of Todd township Huntingdon Co. Pa., a happy couple went housekeeping on a farm located near Madsdensville owned by the brides father.

At a revival at Walnut Grove Huntingdon, Co. Pa., he reclaimed and joined the church of God there, of which he was an ardent member for a number of years.

His dwelling with its entire contents was destroyed by fire after wards locating at Roxbury, Franklin Co. Pa., where he united by letter with the M. E. church. From here he moved to Waynesboro, Pa. of the same county becoming a member of the same church.

He decided to move to Brad-dock Allegheny Co. Pa., being employed at the Westinghouse Machine Co. for about 6 years, was a member of the M. E. church. Finding himself in good circumstances he bought the farm of the late Samuel Rotz in Todd township Fulton Co. Pa. becoming a member of the McConnellsburg M. E. Church.

With the aid of the late Nathan iel Rotz, Mr. Luther Finniff and other good men he organized a non denominational Sabbath School which proved a big success and a benefit to the community, his hope was that it might grow and prosper.

He sold his farm moved to Dublin township Fulton Co. Pa. and became a member of the M. E. church of Knobsville of which he was trustee and treasurer until the time of his death, March 18, 1914, aged 4 days less than 51 years.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord. They rest from their labor and their works do follow them."

To The Queen's Taste.

The following list of friends of Mrs. Luther Gordon, near Jug-town, Ayr township, arranged a birthday surprise for that good lady last Saturday, and the program, it is said, was carried out to the "queen's taste." James Gordon, wife and family; James Fryman and wife; Harvey Unger and wife; Andrew Lamberson and wife; Geo. Unger and wife; Baltzer Cutchall, wife and son; Andrew Washbaugh and family; Nicholas Hohman and wife; Paul Houck and wife; Wm. Buterbaugh, wife and son; Mrs. Stenger and daughter; James Houck; Harvey Crouse; Rosetta and Beulah Buterbaugh; Misses Georgia Wilson, Dot Richards, Josephine Gordon, and Maud and Fannie Gress; David Strait; Orgen Mellott; Campbell Mellott, and Alvin Strait.

They Surprised Him.

Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hixson, was fifteen years old last Saturday, and when he returned from his place of employment in J. A. Irwin's store in the evening, he found a crowd of young friends waiting to pull his ears, and, incidentally, to spend the evening with him. Needless to say that Mr. and Mrs. Hixson had prepared entertainment dear to the hearts and palates of Young America.

Those who celebrated the event with him were: Beulah Ramsey, Edna Ott, Lois Mason, Olive Lodge, Elizabeth Doyle, Helen Stenger, May Sipes, Lenora Decker, Mildred Hixsyn, Netha Hixson, Raymond Grissinger, Peter Morton Jr. Floyd Garland, Mac Morton, Lloyd Mellott, Paul Ramsey, Lewis Largent.

The Crystal Springs Camp-meeting will open on Tuesday, August 18th. Any one desiring to rent a cottage should apply to F. M. Lodge or Amos Hixson. The trustees are contemplating the building of a new stable. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Little, Miss Evelyn Bennett, Miss Lillian Brewer, and Miss Zella Crouse went down to the Tonoloway Baptist church in Davie's Crow Car, and attended the Annual May Meeting last Sunday.

J. K. Johnston is having some concrete work done in his back yard. The use of this material is increasing rapidly. Like all good things, the original cost is considerable; but, when well done, and the foundation laid below frost line, it is durable as stone, and cheapest in the end.

Mr. John B. Runyan is in Harrisburg this week attending the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. representing McConnellsburg Lodge, No. 744. He was accompanied Monday morning as far as Mercersburg by his wife, who there met their daughter Josephine (Mrs. Scott Runyan, of Pittman Grove, N. J.) and Mrs. Runyan and Josephine returned to McConnellsburg Monday evening, where Josephine will spend a week.

Just to show that they entertain no hard feeling against him, every year when J. S. Eitemiller comes home for his vacation, some family in the Freundschaft gets up a big dinner, and a joyous reunion is held. Last Sunday this custom was observed at the home of John Comer and his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ott, and there were seventeen persons present, among them Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eitemiller and their little daughter Myrtle, of Mercersburg. It is needless to add that it was a happy event.

Mr. J. S. Eitemiller and daughter Miss Mary, of McKeesport, Pa., after having spent several days in York, Pa., attending the Convention of the Knights of Malta, visiting his nephews—Jacob Comer in Hagerstown, and Charlie Eitemiller in Mercersburg, are spending a few days among their relatives and friends in McConnellsburg. While Jake has been away from McConnellsburg for twenty-four years, there is nothing that affords him more pleasure than a vacation spent in the "old town" among the many friends of his boyhood days.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Over, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dull, and Mr. J. Floyd Murdock—all of Bedford started out in Edgar's automobile from their homes in Bedford last Sunday after luncheon for a spin "down the pike." The weather was so pleasant, the road so "great," and the motor behaving so splendidly, that they kept going, until they pulled up in front of the Fulton House in McConnellsburg, where they enjoyed one of that famous hostelry's Sunday dinners. After spending the evening visiting the "principal points of interest" in that old town, and shaking hands with some of the "natives," they "cranked up" and returned to Bedford, having enjoyed the afternoon immensely.

Miss Nora H. Watson, returned to her home in this place last week after having completed another year's work in Delaware, teaching in the public schools of that state. This completes the third year of Nora's work as teacher in that state, and each year with increased salary; thus showing that her work has been satisfactory. She graduated at the head of her class from the McConnellsburg High School a few years ago. This story is told to show that a colored boy or girl in Fulton County has just the same chance to lift himself or herself from obscurity into a life of culture and usefulness as a white boy or girl. Success in life depends upon the boy or girl individually whether white or colored.

Route No. 2 For Needmore.

Needmore is to have a second Rural Delivery route. Route No 2 will start at that office and go by way of Gem, Joseph B. Mellott's store, then to Pleasant Ridge, and back to starting place. The route will be about twenty-three miles long, and service will begin on June first. The substitute carrier on route No. 1 will carry the mail until a regular appointment is made, examinations for which will take place on June 13th. Delivering mail on rural routes is not a bad job now, and we understand that there will be about twelve times as many applicants as can be accommodated.

Woods Meeting. A woods meeting will be held on the Walnut Grove campground June 5 to 7. Preaching every evening at 7:30. Preaching Sunday June 7th at 10:30 and 2:30. Children's services at 1:30. Among the preachers present will be Revs. Spies, Ritchey, Benson and McKeelchne.

The same as going into a man's office. Wherever you see the Blue Bell sign, you will find an open door to the business world. Keep on the lookout for them. That will save you many steps, and money, too. It's cheaper to talk than walk. Rainy days, torrid hot days, any day, there is always a Public Bell Telephone that will welcome you and save you a bad trip. You'll get just as much satisfaction by completing your business in this way—perhaps more, for the business man's door is always open to the ring of the Bell. When you telephone, smile! The Bell Telephone Co. of Pa. B. H. OVERPECK, Local Mgr. Chambersburg, Pa.
