Fred Black spent from Saturday until Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Scott Souders, in Williamsport, Franklin County. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wible, of Harrisburg, arrived in town last Friday evening to visit friends in the county for a few days. Mrs. Wm. T. Runyan, of Ephrata, Pa., is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ed Dunlap, in Newark, N. J. Lemuel and Van Divens, of Knobsville, who have been employed at Kearney spent Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes. Harry Deshong, of Harrisonville, who had been home for a few weeks attending the spring work, has returned to his work at Kearney. Druggist Leslie W. Seylar incurred a small muscle in his back about ten days ago, and as a consequence was laid up for repairs in bed a few days. The McConnellsburg Band will give an open-air concert at 8 o'clock, Saturday evening, May 27, on the Square in front of the Court House. Everybody invited. C. R. Shore, Manager. Daniel W. Ott, of St. Thomas, spent Friday with his father, Wm. Ott. He was accompanied home by his sisters Mary and Pearl who expect to spend two weeks in the home of their brother. Mrs. Sabina Mellott, of Belfast township, brought her son Webster to town last Sunday to attend the Summer Normal, and she spent Sunday night in the home of Hon. and Mrs. George B. Mellott. Mrs. David Gordon, of Thompson township, suffered a stroke of paralysis about two weeks ago, but, we understand, is much better now. Dr. Rensburg, near Harfordsburg, is the attending physician. On Wednesday, May 27th, the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture will give a public demonstration on spraying and care of orchards, to take place in McConnellsburg, in the orchard of B. Runyan. Eli M. Peck, of Needmore, is getting lumber and material together to build a new residence. Next thing we expect to hear is that enterprising section is that an electric railway is being built to Hancock. Among the many fine wheat crops to be seen in Big Cove just now, that of Elmer Seiders is mentioned as being extra promising. The young fruit trees he planted some time ago look healthy and make things look home-like. Rev. and Mrs. T. Davis Richards, of Germantown, Md., passed through McConnellsburg, Monday morning in their new six cylinder Buick, enroute to Chicago, where they will attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. H. Shaffer, well known and popular salesman for the Myers Wholesale Grocery of Chambersburg, was carrying his right arm sling while on his regular trip to this county this week—result of a fall, breaking a bone in his hand. Mr. Ira Peck, who has been expected with the Waynesboro Business College during the past week, was in town a few minutes Monday morning. He expects to leave for the west next Monday for the purpose of taking a special course in Penmanship.

Tuesday's Primaries.

Fulton is an agricultural county. The lateness of spring has kept farmers back with their work. The weather Tuesday was ideal for working in the field. No further reasons are necessary to show why only about one third of the vote in this county was out. The following table, which, of course, is not official, shows the relative strength of the candidates:

Suicide.

The neighborhood of Sharpe Postoffice in Thompson township, was much shocked on Monday to learn that Mrs. Denton Everts had committed suicide by hanging herself in the barn. Her husband owned one of the best farms in the neighborhood, and they were getting along well. Their domestic relations were pleasant, and there does not seem to be any accounting for the rash act. Mrs. Everts was raised in the home of the late George Morton in Belfast township, and enjoyed the respect of all who knew her. The funeral took place yesterday, and interment was made at Zion church on Timber Ridge. She is survived by her husband and four children.

Mrs. S. N. Garland.

Mrs. Belle Garland, wife of Mr. Simon N. Garland, died at their home in Whips Cove, Sunday, May 17, 1914, aged 53 years, 1 month and 5 days. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. A. G. B. Powers, of Needmore, took place on Tuesday following, and interment was made in the cemetery at Jerusalem church. Mrs. Garland was a daughter of Abner and Sarena Mellott who are living, as is her husband and the following children: Mrs. G. M. Fisher, of Locust Grove, and Mrs. Gertrude Spohn, of Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Garland had been in failing health for a long time; but she bore her affliction with Christian patience and fortitude, which comes from a living faith in a Savior that doeth all things well.

BANNER SALVE
the most helpful salve in the world.

DUBLIN MILLS.

The home of Mrs. John Ficks was the scene of royal festivities last Sunday when the following friends met to have a good time: Mrs. Ephraim Mellott, of Hiram; Mrs. Chet Brant and daughter Evelyn; Mrs. Mack Ficks and children Dorothy, Russell and Earl; Mrs. Amos Ficks, of Pitcairn; Mrs. William Shore and son and daughter Roy and Della; Russell Keith; Benny Slates; Russell and Berton Meddling, Iva Ficks; Mr. and Mrs. John Ficks and children Della, George, Willie, Effie, Cleve, Olive, Edna, and Alfaretta.

At the proper time all sat down to a table laden with enough good things to supply double the number of guests. After dinner the parlor doors were thrown open and while all were enjoying good music, and chatting pleasantly, some of the good hearted ladies slipped out and made a freezer of ice cream and a supply of lemonade for a second course before taking leave of their hosts.

Participant.

We are not advertising Pyrox for pay; but know from having used it that potatoes sprayed with the stuff do better than with any thing we ever tried. We do not know what it is, nor who makes it; but presume that dealers in spraying material can get it for you. It seems to control insects and blight perfectly.

Ice Cream

Having installed an ENGINE and POWER FREEZER, I am prepared to furnish ICE CREAM in any quantity desired upon short notice.

When Adam Picked and Put On His First Fig Leaf.

When Adam picked and put on his first fig leaf, the Men's Clothing business was born. The first ready made garments was a fig leaf. Probably Adam wasn't satisfied with the first leaf and thought he'd try another. By and by he found one that suited him in cut, material, fit and quality. Adam was shrewd. He looked around. Now, sir, if you are not fully satisfied with the clothing you are wearing, suppose you look around. Suppose you look here. Our patrons are always satisfied. We make them so by giving them the best clothing to be had on earth for the money. Come in and look over our lines before you buy.
