Driving ourselves to the limit, day in and day out, always results in final loss of time and money. Knock off work an hour earlier now and then, and go fishing for chubs, if no better recreation offers. Proper recreation is to our bodies what oil is to machinery.

The Annual Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Convention of the Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania Conference will be held at the Gapsville Christian church on Thursday and Friday, June 11th and 12th. An extensive and interesting program has been arranged.

John M. Rupp, prominent farmer near Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, was shot and killed by a chicken thief, last Thursday when he was making an investigation as to why the burglar alarm went off at 2 o'clock in the morning. A Harrisburg huckster was afterwards arrested and lodged in jail after he confessed to the shooting.

Mr. Howard Fix, near Hustontown, spent a few hours in town on business last Saturday. After having spent several years working at the Broadtop mines, Howard has returned to his farm on the road between Hustontown and Clear Ridge and as a side line is manufacturing soft drinks Dealers who have tried his pop and ginger ale come back with increased orders, which speaks well for the quality of the goods.

Automobile owners and drivers ought to use a little consideration and let us say courtesy too, in driving their cars through the town, owing to the abominable and death-dealing dust in our streets. Have a little mercy on the fellow behind you and the poor, innocent victims along side of you. A petition was circulated in town a few days ago asking the State Highway Department to oil the streets of McConnellsburg that lie in the line of the State highways. There is nothing upon the statute books of Pennsylvania to prevent our people asking this favor from the Department; but it is scarcely probable that the request will be granted.

ECHOES FROM CHAMBERSBURG.

Chambersburg Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns." The generous statement of this Chambersburg resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Mrs. J. W. Ankerbrant, 461 S. Main St., Chambersburg, Pa., says: "My kidneys were weak and I suffered from hard back-aches. It hurt me to stoop or lift. I had headaches and dizzy spells and my eyes were affected. Whenever I caught cold the trouble was worse. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and got great relief. They made my kidneys act right and removed the aches and pains in my back. Others of the family have been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills I willingly recommend them.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ankerbrant had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to the democratic voters of Fulton County for giving me their loyal support which resulted in making me the democratic nominee for the General Assembly. The almost unanimous support indicated by the democratic vote which was polled on last Tuesday is very encouraging, and it made me feel that my work while in the session of 1913 had evidently met with the approval of a large majority of the democratic voters of Fulton county.

I kindly solicit the support and influence of all the citizens of Fulton county; and if elected at the November election, I will, as in the past, give the office my whole time and energy, as my record during the last session will show, and will strive with all my power to work for the best interests of our County and State.

Very truly yours,

GEO. B. MELLOTT.

Is Business War.

General Sherman is credited with having imparted the information that "war is hell."

Isn't business war?

Don't we have to battle with our competitors for every customer?

Isn't it necessary that we be ever on the alert, that we be ever on the defensive and ever ready to take the offensive?

Would you think of going to war without powder in your cartridges?

Advertising is the powder of business; it is what makes the noise and the power that carries the missile true to its mark.

Bees and Spraying.

A York County fruit grower writes to Prof. H. A. Surface, Harrisburg, saying that it is understood in his region that growers will not be allowed to spray for Codling moth this year on account of the possibility of killing bees, and wants to know what to do.

The reply was sent as follows: "It appears that the idea that it is against the law to spray for the Codling moth on account of bees has gained some footing in Pennsylvania this year, but it is not true. I have many fruit trees that will be sprayed soon for the Codling moth, and this spraying will be repeated in about a month from the time of the first application. I also have bees in abundance in hives under these fruit trees, and consider that my bees are worth hundreds of dollars to me this year in helping to set or form a bumper fruit crop. I am satisfied that there would not be anywhere near as many perfect or fertilized blossoms without the bees, and as aids in fruit production I can not estimate the great value of my bees, for the Codling moth, and there never will be any law against this. The time may come when there will be a law that it will be necessary for every person to spray for this insect, which is the worst insect pest of apple, pear and quince fruit. Unfortunately, there is no law against spraying while in bloom. This is what kills the bees, and as I have published as extensively as possible, warning our horticultural friends against the evils of spraying while in bloom. I presume from this has arisen the wrong idea that they should not spray for the Codling moth at all. The spraying for this pest is with arsenate of lead in water, or in Bordeaux mixture, or dilute lime sulfur solution, just after the blossoms fall, and again in a month. This certainly will not kill nor harm the bees if applied then. I hope to see close co-operation of bee-keepers and fruit growers, as it has been proven by scientific experiments and practical tests that bees are a benefit to fruits, and the fruit grower gets even more than the bee-keeper does when the bees have an opportunity to reach his orchard."

DUBLIN MILLS.

W. D. Rober was in Mt. Union recently, and Ray Hess and Michael Laidig made a trip to Huntingdon. It was a new experience for Mr. Laidig, as he is sixty two years old and never rode on steam cars. They took in Wyoming Bill's Wild West show and visited Frank Benson and family, and Harry Locke and family, formerly of this place.

Whooping cough is the leading disease in this community at present.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benson, a son, on May 13th.

The third recent wedding within a radius of one half mile of this place occurred on Tuesday, May 19th, when Miss Lou Knepper became the bride of Harry Miller. Both are of well to do families, and have the best wishes of this community. Mr. Miller bought a farm recently in Huntingdon county, where it is likely they will locate.

Mrs. Brint Miller has again gone away for treatment—this time to Mt. Clemens, Michigan. Although in feeble health she stood the trip very well. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Irwin of McConnellsburg.

Ruth Hess is still employed by Mr. Brint Miller. Lois Huston (Mrs. Miller's sister), is also at Mr. Miller's.

Our miners are not now regularly employed, owing to slack work at the mines.

Arthur Rober is making quite an improvement to his property by painting, smoothing the yard and garden, and by putting up new picket fences.

If there be no killing frosts, the prospects are good for an abundance of fruit of all kinds. Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B.

Wilson of this place, a fine daughter.

James Benson and wife and David Hess and wife were visitors in our town Sunday.

B. B. Booth and Arthur Rober were painting in New Grenada, last week.
